

FOR CRUSHING A SKULL

Mr. Cullen Gets a Verdict for Heavy Damages Against Mr. Altendorf.

FOLLOWS A CONVICTION CRIMINALLY

Assault Under a Suspended Sentencing—Patrick Donovan Sentenced to Fifteen Years for Attempting to Criminally Assault a Child.

Twelve jurors in Judge Hopewell's court have disposed of a case wherein religion, politics, hot temper and a piece of gas pipe played all of the principal parts during a short but spirited engagement.

A couple of years ago William Cullen, an ex-policeman, and Albert Altendorf were fellow workmen, laboring side by side in the Union Pacific shops, where frequently the question of religious and political differences arose.

Altendorf was arrested and charged with assault with intent to commit great bodily harm. On this charge he was held to the district court and March 13, 1894, the trial was commenced, continuing for four days when the jury returned a verdict of guilty.

On the same day a motion for a new trial was filed and on March 22, 1894, it was overruled and Altendorf went back to jail to await sentence, which was pronounced on March 28, the judge fixing upon two years as the term during which the prisoner should be confined in the penitentiary.

Altendorf was in the criminal court yesterday, where he was given what to him means a life term in the penitentiary of the state.

Patrick Donovan was in the criminal court yesterday, where he was given what to him means a life term in the penitentiary of the state.

On October 13 there was an order entered compelling John Lewis to pay into court the sum of $10 each month as alimony to aid in the support of his wife, Hattie, while she is trying to secure her divorce.

In Judge Hopewell's court the case of J. C. Kenworthy against the Union Pacific Railway company is on for trial, the plaintiff seeking to recover damages in the sum of $200 for damages sustained.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

A new musical comedy, "A Tallow Candle," opens an engagement of three weeks and Saturday matinee at the Fifteenth Street theater this evening.

The prize winner of fun, "4-11-14," a brand new farce comedy, that the critics state is among the leaders in that line of attractions, will be the attraction at the Fifteenth Street theater for four nights, commencing Saturday matinee, October 28.

Willie Collier's success in legitimate comedy, while in no sense a surprise, has been one of the dramatic events of the season.

"While down in the southwestern part of the state some time ago," says Mr. W. Chalmers, editor of the Chico (Cal.) Enterprise, "I had an attack of dysentery. Having heard of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I bought a bottle, a couple of doses of it completely cured me. Now I am a champion of that remedy for all stomach and bowel complaints." For sale by druggists.

Special Excursion to Texas. On Nov. 6th I will run a special excursion from Omaha to Houston, Texas, $20.00 the round trip, to land buyers. Call on or address 425 Range Building, Omaha.

Mikado's People Feverishly Awaiting News of the Mysterious Expeditions Which Have Been Fitted Out Recently—Other News of the War.

YOKOHAMA, Japan, Oct. 12.—(Via Steamship Express) Japan to Victoria, B. C., October 24.—All Japan is in a fever of excitement awaiting news from General Oyama's expedition, which is supposed to be directed toward some point on the Chinese coast within the gulf of Pe-Chi-Li.

Reports of landings at Port Arthur, Wei-Hai-Wei and other localities are already circulating in Japanese newspapers. From the beginning the Japanese authorities have been determined to allow no inaccurate records of actual events to go forward.

The fact, however, that the expedition is now prepared with full reports of the Ash-Tung-Yang campaign and fresh intelligence from that quarter is provided only by newspaper correspondents, who, while enlarging upon individual achievements, are thrown out upon unsettled questions of battle.

Wonderful Cures Made all Over the Country.

Every Form of Piles Yields to It.

Reports in Test Cases. In spite of the fact that the Pyramid Pile Cure is so well known as a certain cure for every form of piles, there are still many people who think a surgical operation the only sure cure.

THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK

Washington, D. C., Nov. 5. For Nebraska, heavy snow tomorrow, followed by a very cold day.

And the battle is on.

The Rep., the Dem., the Pop., and the Dem. Pop., the silver man, the one who hates silver, the income tax man, the one opposed to an income, the protectionist and the one who carries his own gun, all battle for their own convictions and for the best interests of the state and country.

Some silver-tongued orator will debate national economy that concerns none but bankers and brokers, while we shall discuss domestic economy, which concerns your own prosperity.

We've served the people with Overcoats for the past ten years—served you in an honest, honorable and straightforward way. Furnished you with the best and with a good many dollars of saving.

We were never known to trick, gull or mislead. This year we'll serve you with a better Overcoat for considerable less money than we ever dared hoping for.

Where, in former years, we saved a dollar for you, we will triple it this year. Six Dollars and Seventy-five Cents is all you pay this year for single or double breasted black Kersey, all wool, Italian lined Overcoat, for which you paid $10.00 last year right here, and not less than $15.00 elsewhere.

Ten Dollars and a Half for a handsome, long cut, dress Overcoat, fancy wool lined and richly trimmed—excellent Kersey in black—is another proof. $15.00 was the price last year and $20.00 invested elsewhere bought no better garment.

And so on—one by one they fell into our money grip—from the ordinary $6.50 Ulster, which will sell at Four Dollars, up to the extreme tailor-made garment, which we exhibit in abundance—long, half and full box—extreme long full box—and the body-fitting, swell "Paddock."
