

ALEXANDER AT REST

Cares of State No Longer Trouble the Autocrat of All the Russias.

PEACFULLY PASSED BEYOND THE RIVER

Great Grief Manifested by the People Throughout the Empire.

NOT YET PASSED THE HALF CENTURY MARK

'Preserver of the World's Peace' Taken Away in Prime of Life.

SKETCH OF A VERY EVENTFUL CAREER

Took No Pleasure in Governing and Cared More for the Society of His Wife and Children—Something About His Successor.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 1.—The Angel of death, in a shadow whose pinions the autocrat of all the Russias has been lying for many days, today beckoned, and the soul of the man who had in his hands the lives and destinies of millions upon millions, was borne away.

Calmly and peacefully as a sleeping babe, he, who by his slightest word, could have plunged Europe into a war, the horrors of which would defy description, fell into the dreamless sleep that he feared not. He, though the head of the church whose members number over 70,000,000 persons, took his last rites a few days before death claimed him from all his greatness.

At 2:15 o'clock this afternoon the summons came and a few hours later the thunderous booming of cannon at Livadia and St. Petersburg announced the czar was dead, and that he who had been the Grand Duke Nicholas, reigned in his stead.

On lightning wings the news of Russia's loss spread throughout the world, and it is safe to say that everywhere the intelligence created sympathy for the family of him who, by his policy, had maintained the peace of Europe.

From America came words of sympathy, for the dead ruler had always been a friend of the great republic of the north and the north in the war of the rebellion.

Among the peasants of Russia he will be mourned with a deep and abiding sorrow, for was he not the "Little Father" who carried out his duty with a kindly hand?

GRIEF IS UNIVERSAL. None of the grandiloquent titles borne him were thought as much of as the one bestowed upon him by his lowly subjects whose virtues were magnified in him, and whose vices were magnified in him.

His kind acts to them in their seasons of plague and famine, and his words of comfort to the bottom of their hearts for the repose of the soul of their "Little Father," who was to them as great in soul as he was in stature.

He will be sincere mourning, too, in the royal and imperial families of Europe. Not the conventional mourning prescribed by rule, but the mourning of little children, for he has not been the father of a nation, but the father of a family.

He will be sincere mourning, too, in the hearts of the great and the small, for he was the only Russian who was true to his wife.

His home was an ideal one, and all his pleasures were found in his own family.

But as the czar and not the man he could be as stern, as unrelenting as fate itself. He has banished men and women to Siberia, but he has banished no woman from his palace.

He was a man of great energy, and he was a man of great courage. He was a man of great intellect, and he was a man of great heart.

He was a man of great strength, and he was a man of great weakness. He was a man of great power, and he was a man of great humility.

He was a man of great wisdom, and he was a man of great folly. He was a man of great knowledge, and he was a man of great ignorance.

He was a man of great virtue, and he was a man of great vice. He was a man of great goodness, and he was a man of great evil.

He was a man of great beauty, and he was a man of great ugliness. He was a man of great grace, and he was a man of great deformity.

He was a man of great honor, and he was a man of great dishonor. He was a man of great respect, and he was a man of great contempt.

He was a man of great love, and he was a man of great hate. He was a man of great kindness, and he was a man of great cruelty.

He was a man of great mercy, and he was a man of great severity. He was a man of great gentleness, and he was a man of great harshness.

He was a man of great patience, and he was a man of great impatience. He was a man of great calmness, and he was a man of great excitement.

He was a man of great self-control, and he was a man of great lack of self-control. He was a man of great discipline, and he was a man of great lack of discipline.

He was a man of great order, and he was a man of great disorder. He was a man of great cleanliness, and he was a man of great dirtiness.

He was a man of great neatness, and he was a man of great slovenliness. He was a man of great tidiness, and he was a man of great untidiness.

He was a man of great industry, and he was a man of great idleness. He was a man of great activity, and he was a man of great inactivity.

He was a man of great energy, and he was a man of great weakness. He was a man of great strength, and he was a man of great weakness.

He was a man of great power, and he was a man of great weakness. He was a man of great influence, and he was a man of great weakness.

He was a man of great authority, and he was a man of great weakness. He was a man of great respect, and he was a man of great weakness.

NO BUSINESS ON THE LIST

Omaha Firms Continue to Repudiate the "Business Men's" Manifesto.

NAMES PUT DOWN WITHOUT AUTHORITY

Great Claim of the Scarescrow Hoovers Disputed by Frank Statements from Jobbers and Retailers—Country Dealers Repudiate the Scheme.

The bankers and railroad people who have been managing the so-called Business Men's Association of Nebraska in the interest of the Republican candidate for governor have tried to create an impression throughout the country that the jobbers of Omaha are all with them to a man.

SKETCH OF HIS CAREER

Alexander Romanoff Had Little Likelihood of Success as a Candidate for Governor

Emperor Alexander III. was born in 1845, the second son of Alexander II. It was not expected that he would reign over Russia, and his training was that of a soldier.

The prominent characteristic of his early life was his military career. He was a soldier, a general, and a statesman.

He was a man of great energy and a man of great courage. He was a man of great intellect and a man of great heart.

He was a man of great strength and a man of great weakness. He was a man of great power and a man of great weakness.

He was a man of great influence and a man of great weakness. He was a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He was a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He was a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He was a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He was a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He was a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He was a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He was a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He was a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He was a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He was a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He was a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He was a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He was a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He was a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He was a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He was a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He was a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He was a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

BY BLUNDERS AND BRAWLS

Closing Days of the Major Campaign Filled with Dissension and Mistakes.

COURAGE OF THE WORKERS IS VANISHING

Inside Figures of the Committee Give Very Little Hope to the Followers of the Railroad Candidate—Major's Prohibition Record.

The Major's managers are winding up their campaign with a series of blunders and blunders such as have never been known in the history of Nebraska politics.

The railroad candidate, Major's Prohibition Record, is a man of great energy and a man of great courage. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

BY BLUNDERS AND BRAWLS

Closing Days of the Major Campaign Filled with Dissension and Mistakes.

COURAGE OF THE WORKERS IS VANISHING

Inside Figures of the Committee Give Very Little Hope to the Followers of the Railroad Candidate—Major's Prohibition Record.

The Major's managers are winding up their campaign with a series of blunders and blunders such as have never been known in the history of Nebraska politics.

The railroad candidate, Major's Prohibition Record, is a man of great energy and a man of great courage. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

BY BLUNDERS AND BRAWLS

Closing Days of the Major Campaign Filled with Dissension and Mistakes.

COURAGE OF THE WORKERS IS VANISHING

Inside Figures of the Committee Give Very Little Hope to the Followers of the Railroad Candidate—Major's Prohibition Record.

The Major's managers are winding up their campaign with a series of blunders and blunders such as have never been known in the history of Nebraska politics.

The railroad candidate, Major's Prohibition Record, is a man of great energy and a man of great courage. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

BY BLUNDERS AND BRAWLS

Closing Days of the Major Campaign Filled with Dissension and Mistakes.

COURAGE OF THE WORKERS IS VANISHING

Inside Figures of the Committee Give Very Little Hope to the Followers of the Railroad Candidate—Major's Prohibition Record.

The Major's managers are winding up their campaign with a series of blunders and blunders such as have never been known in the history of Nebraska politics.

The railroad candidate, Major's Prohibition Record, is a man of great energy and a man of great courage. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great energy and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great strength and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great power and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great influence and a man of great weakness.

He is a man of great authority and a man of great weakness. He is a man of great respect and a man of great weakness.

EUCLED MARTIN'S STRAIGHTS

Mere Technicality Will Keep Them on Douglas County's Official Ballots.

QUESTION SETTLED BY JUDGE KEYOR

Plainly Intimates that the Objections Are Good but Holds that They Were Made Too Late for the Court to Interfere.

The last and latest suit of a political nature was instituted just before yesterday was heard, the petition having been filed with the clerk of the district court only a short time before the hour of midnight was reached.

In legal parlance this suit is known as W. S. Shoemaker vs. Fred J. Sackett, but as a matter of fact it has for its object the invoking of the law to make the nominees of the democratic rump convention give up the designation of straight democrats, as they now appear upon the copy for the official ballots.

Flushed by the two legal victories Wednesday, both of which were fought out on lines more or less political, that night Mr. Shoemaker jumped into the political arena and filed a petition reciting the fact that on September 26, 1894, the democrats of this state assembled in convention in Exposition hall in this city, where they nominated a full and complete state ticket; that this convention was called to order by the chairman of the democratic state central committee, the names of the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.

After this action by the secretary and the supreme court Mr. Shoemaker alleged that the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.

He alleged that the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.

He alleged that the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.

He alleged that the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.

He alleged that the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.

He alleged that the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.

He alleged that the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.

He alleged that the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.

He alleged that the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.

He alleged that the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.

He alleged that the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.

He alleged that the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.

He alleged that the nominees of the democratic rump convention were not the nominees of any convention called to order by the chairman of the democratic rump convention.