Still the Board of Education goes on thrusting out the three R's and pushing in charlatanism.

Sour Grapes.

Denver Republican. Denver Republican.

Mr. Morton, the accretary of agriculture, says that the trade of Germany in American cattle and beef does not amount to much anyhow, and that, therefore, the fact that these products have been excluded from that country does not signify a great loss to us. It looks very much as though the grapes were sour, and there is very little consolation in it to the American cattle men.

Control of a Pacific Cable.

Denver Republican. The construction of a cable across the Pacific ocean would be a great commercial benefit, and it would be especially advantageous in connection with naval operations in that ocean. It ought, however, to be under American rather than under Eaglish der American rather than under English control, and, therefore, congress should take steps to provide for the laying of such a cable connecting San Francisco with both the Hawaiian islands and Australia. The proposition of certain English and Canadian capitalists to lay a cable to Hawaii and thence to Australia would accomplish all of these results except that the line would not be under American control.

> Cultivation of Cantagre Kanson City Star

Kansas City Star.

A number of Chicago tanners have organized a company for the cultivation of caniagre, a weed which contains a large percentage of tannic acid. The experiment is to be tried in the San Joaquin valley, Cal. The result will be interesting to Kansas City, which annually ships an enormous quantity of hides to Chicago and New York to be cured. With the material for tanning them close at hand, it would be possible to build up here an extensive and remunerative industry. If the plant called caniagre can be profitably utilized for this purpose it can be grown in the Missouri valley as well as in California. It is not at all unlikely that the Chicago tanners who have gone into this scheme are indicating a valuable source of wealth to Kansas City.

every day in the year. Judge: Judge (abruptly)—One dollar. Vagrant (philosophically)—Ye'll never know, yer honor, de real value uv a dollar till yer try ter get it out uv me.

Indianapolis Journal: "Yes," she said, "I'll give you your breakfast if you'll chop down that tree for me."
"Madam." Meandering Mike replied, meekly, "I don't want ter git cut o' my class. I'm no Gladstone. Neither am I a George Washington."

Buffalo Courier: "They acquitted Bilkem on that charge of jumping a board bill, I hear. Evidence of his innocence conclu-sive?" Yep; his attorney simply introduced the bill. It was from a summer hotel and the most stupid furymen could see that it was too blamed high for any one to jump."

WHEN WOMEN VOTE. Kansas City Journal When women vote we'll have reform; For tyrant man they'll make it warm; He'll have to quit cigars and rum And take to tea and chewing gum; And if at night he comes home late, He'll have to settle with the state, When women vote.

WHAT WOULD YOU SAY?

We have finished our jo ries of many miles. With hearts that were true, old friend, With days of tears and days of smiles, And now we are close to the end.

There was many a toil, and many a slin And many a day's wild weather; But we closed our hands in a firmer grip And our hearts beat truer together. Bu; what would you say, if one should ask, As we stand here close at the end: Would you live it again, as you lived it then? Oh! what would you say, old friend?

YOUR MONEY'S WORTH OR YOUR MONEY BACK.

THE VOTE.

You Can Bet

Your last red cent on the election, but it wouldn't be wise. A man who bets is a gambler, but a man who doesn't bet is no better)-that's a chestnut, but we'll let it go this time) - Bet a hat, suit of clothes, pair of gloves or an overcoat. Then you win something. If you bet money you'll have to set 'em up to the boys and the first thing you know it's gone, blown in, flown, evaporated. Then, again—we come in on it if you bet wearables. If you loose you can let yourself down easy by buying at our store. Hats at $2.50 and $3.00 that can't be told from the $5 affairs you see all over town.

A good late style black hat like cut for $1.00; also the new Alpine or Fedora soft hat for same price. All prices from that up to our celebrated "Stetson

Browning, King & Co.,

Reliable Clothiers, S. W. Cor. 15th and Douglas.
