Another Move Made in the Progress of Administrative Government,

CLEVELAND SI NS IMPORTANT ORDERS

Extension of the Classified Branches Bring ing Large Numbers of Employes Under the Reform Rules-Customs and Postoffices Especially Affected. WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 .- The president yesterday signed several orders of great importance in connection with the civil service reform movement, making important extensions of the classified service to offices not heretofore classified and revising existing classifications in branches of the service already classified so as to bring within the classifications many districts formerly excluded: 1. A revision of the customs classiall employes not serving merely as workmen or laborers, without regard to compensation. Heretofore this service has been classified on the basis of compensation, all employes receiving a compensation of less than $900, or a rate of compensation less than $900 per annum, have been excluded from the classification and therefore not subject to civil service rules. This action of the president brings the classification of the the president brings the classification of the customs service into harmony with those of the other branches of the service.

2. An amendment to customs rule, extending the classification to include all customs districts in which there are as many as twenty employes. The present limit is fifty employes, and under that limit eleven customs districts have been classified. The extension of the classification to include all districts in which there are as many as districts in which there are as many as twenty employes will bring into the classified service certainly eleven additional districts and probably several more. 3. An amendment to the classification of the department at Washington so as to include in the classified service and subject to the civil service rules in all the departments messengers, assistant messengers and watchmen. 4. An amendment to the civil service rule abolishing the right of transfer, upon non-competitive examination, of persons ap-pointed to excepted places after one year's service in such places to classified non-excepted places. Hereafter persons ap-pointed from the outside to excepted places in any branch of the classified service can not be transferred at the end of one year into the places covered by examination.

5. An order extending the classification of the Postoffice department so as to include in the classified service of the department the clerks employed in the offices of the the clerks employed in the offices of the postoffice inspectors.

6. Amendments to the postal rules withdrawing from the excepted class a very large proportion of the places now excepted from examination. This amendment will transfer from the excepted class in the excepted class in the excepted restricted restricted. classified postoffices to the non-excepted class probably not less than 1,500 places, the whole number of excepted places in the classified postoffices now being in the neighborhood of 2,300. Hereafter it will not include more than 700 or 800.
7. An amendment to the department rules withdrawing from the excepted class in the Department of Agriculture the chiefs of the divisions of entomology, economic ornithology and mammalegy and pomology, and the assistant chiefs of these divisions. 8. An amendment to the Indian rule pro-viding for the appointment as assistant teachers in the Indian school service, without civil service examination, the graduates of the normal classes at Salem, Ore.; Santa, Fe. N. M.; Haskell institute, Lawrence, Kan.; Carlisle school, Cariisle, Pa.; Hampton institute, Hampton, Va., upon their certificates of graduation, but before they can be advanced to full teacherships they shall be required to pass the regular civil service examination. examination. 9. Allowing appointment without examination for not exceeding thirty days to the places which may be filed by non-competi-tive examination into the department at Washington in cases of emergency, pending an examination by the commission. No appointment made under this authority can continue longer than thirty days.

The president has had these changes under consideration for some time, and before his mission that immediately upon his return he would consult with them in reference thereto. Other important changes involving an extension of the classified service are still under consideration and only await arrangement of minor details through conference between the civil service commission and the heads of various departments.

Official Order Issued in the Case of Mor-ton's Concluman. WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 .- Secretary Carliste has just delivered a decision directing that the case against Howard, Mr. Morton's coachman, be dismissed. This is in accordance with the information exclusively given by the Associated press yesterday. Secretary Carlisie's letter, which was addressed to Hon. Herman Stump, superintendent of immigration, reads as follows:

Treasury Department. Office of the Secretary. Washington, D. C., November 3, 1894.
Hon. Herman Stump, Superintendent of Immigration, Treasury Department. Sir: I have carefully examined the evidence taken before the board of special inquiry in the case of John J. Howard, and the reports of reached the conclusion that the said Howard comes within the first provision of section five of the act approved February 26, 1885.

and therefore ought not to be deported.

The decisions of Secretary Windom, March 12 1890 (S. 9919) and Assistant Secretary Spaulding, April 30, 1891 (L. 11015) that im-migrants who come here under employment "strictly as domestic or personal servants" cannot be lawfully admitted into the country or permitted to remain here unless they actually come with their employers is not approved and will not be after regarded as precedents by the immigration officials at-

"You are directed to make the proper crder for the release of Howard and for his return from the place he was taken if he desires to go there. "Very respectfully yours,

"J. G. CARLISLE, Secretary."

Upon receipts of this letter Mr. Stump sent the following telegram to the com-missioner of immigration, Ellis Island: / "Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., November 2, 1894.—Commissioner of Immisgration, Ellis Island, N. Y.: By direction of Hon. J. G. Carlisle, secretary of the treasury, you are hereby ordered to release John James Howard, now in your custody under an order of deportation. You will furnish him with transportation to the place from which he was taken if he so desires, and the cost, together with his expenses whilst at Ellis Island, will be paid by this bureau upon presentation of proper vouchers.

"HERMAN STUMP, Superintendent."
This conclusion of the celebrated coachman case was exclusively foreshadowed in yes-terday's dispatches of the Associated press.

FORGER WHO CANNOT WRITE. Efforts for the Pardoning of Charles Kengy, Serving a Sentence in Colorado. DENVER, Nov. 3.—At the next meeting of the board of pardons the application for a pardon for Charles Keagy, who has served two years of a term of twelve years for to be innocent and the evidence in his favor is so strong that he has already been paroled. Keagy says that when working as a teams: or in Kansas he found a box partly buried on a river bank, in which were $11,000 in hills, gold and silver. He came to Colorado with his trophy, which he de-clares he gave to R. K. Fuliam at Manitou in exchange for two notes made by Fuliam for $19,000 each. Fuliam declared the notes were forgeries and Kengy, who cannot even write his own name, was railroaded into Soon afterward Fullam left the
