RECORD OF A SENATORIAL COMBINE. A prominent republican, a member of the legislature, and one of the men who refuses to support Tom Majors in the present campaign, stated yesterday in conversation that many republicans in his county were op-posing Majors because of his record as presiding officer of the senate.

"I remember perfectly well," said he, "that there was a combination of the railroad senators, under the personal direction of the lieu-tenant governor. This combination had its hendquarters in the daytime at the private office of Majors, and at night at his rooms at the Capital hotel. When the appropriation bills were pending in the senate the combination sought to increase them by extravagant additions to the suns granted by the house. There had been a popular demand for a reduction of state expenditures, and in obedience to this demand the house commit-tee on appropriations had cut the total amount down more than $500,000. When the bill reached the senate the combination threw the doors of the state treasury wide open and admitted everybody that had been shut out in the house. When the combine got through with the appropriation sheets it was discovered that the total amount had been increased to the extent of $454,226. Nothing but the unflinching attitude of the house prevented another reign of extravagance at the state house. The combine was formed for the deliberate purpose of defeating the maxi-mum rate bill, and it used the appropriation bills as a means to the end. In nearly every case the increases in appropriations were acporded to constituencies represented by members who were fuvorable to the railroad bill.

By their tactics the combine, under the leadership of Majors, deliberately sought to use the people's money to bribe refractory embers to vote against the maximum rate procent. bill. Fortunately their tactios did not succeed and the appropriation bills were finally passed in the closing hours of the session substantially as they were passed by the

But when Czar Holdrege heard of the combetween his man and the Thompson-Covell contingent it was different. He sent for Tom. Just what happened at the inter-view is not chronicled, but at any rate the report is given out that in case Majors be elected governor Hon. Frank Ransom will be the next police commissioner of Omaha. Ransom's appointment will be perfectly satisfactory to the brewers, as well as the rail-roads but will not be satisfactory to the A. P. A. Mr. Ranson is a lawyer of some ability and has been in the legislature, where he represented an Otoe county constituency. He is not a pro-hibitionist, but he knows the difference between a railroad pass and a liquor license.

Majors has also pledged the position of warden of the state penitentiary to at least five sheriffs or ex-sheriffs throughout and the latest report is to the effect that he has given one George A. Bennett of Douglas county to understand that he would make an excellent warden. But what will Sheriff Dean of Hall have to say about that and how will the sheriff of York county, who also expects to be warden on a Majors pledge, take the proposed appointment of George Bennett? Last, but not least, how are all these pledges to be fulfilled in the face of the pledge made to the present war

The same gentleman pointed out the significant fact that it was the Majors combine that fastened to the maximum rate bill the senate amendments which enabled the railroads to carry the measure into the federal courts and to suspend the operation of the law.

Majors' arbitrary rulings while the maximum rate bill was pending were also recalled by the ex-legislator, and he testified as to the fact that time and again Majors took advantage of his official position to thwart the will of the people.

In the early history of the republican the rank and file to support their nominees. A gentleman high up in the railroad repubparty its conventions were deliberate representative bodies, which discussed what measares were best for the welfare of the public and the party, and no gag law to shut off debate was thought of or applied.

For a few years past however, the railroads and boodlers have had complete conporations controlled the last republican state convention in Nebraska is proved beyond the shadow of a doubt.

In Lancaster county the sixty delegates to the republican state convention were selected by an employe of one of the great railways several days after the county convention adjourned, after such employe had examined many persons called before him, and without in any manner being appointed by the republicans in that county. In other words, it was solely a delegation chosen by that interest, and had no more right to represent spēje k tomu, aby otázky, jež byly již jed-nou odhlasovány a které stály velkých vý-vet than it had the republicans of Sioux county, yet that delegation was the controlling force that determined the nomination for governo hlasovací právo a máte prohibici na krku. and other republican candidates on the state it is applied to all the counties of the state and the republicans of a county be deprived of any voice in the selection of delegates. In addition to this the convention con-tained a very large number of political railway employes of all the lines, brought there for the purpose of controlling the convention, and did it. No one will object to a railway employe as a delegate where chosen by the republicans of his county or district, but the case is very different if he was not chosen by the republicans, but merely by the corporations through some of their peculiar methods.

A public officer should be free and independent, so that he may be prepared to perform his duty faithfully, impartially and efficiently to the public, whose servant he is. The Savior said, "No man can serve two masters," and experience has proved the truth of the statement. Now, if a man is taken up by the great corporations and boodle element, not because of his integrity and ability, but because some of their as-sistants can hold back-door conferences with him, and he will prove subservient to their wishes, a man, if possible, who could have reached the position on his merits, such an reached the position on his merits, such an one is sure to be governed by the wishes of as to make-the working of that law confuse

There is not a city, town or individual in the state that is not interested in having a fair, capable, efficient and independent board of transportation to adjust the wrongs of discrimination or other abuse against the own itself or individuals therein. Many reliable life-long democrats assure me that for years past the great corporations have kept hired men in their party in the guise of friends, whose sole purpose was o create confusion and to make such nominations in the democratic party as would leare to the henefit of the republican party. Saunders, who now stands for re-election, and is Invited Exposition hall has been engaged for next Monday evening for the delivery of a political address to wage workers on their rights and duties as American citizens and the vital isthe regular nominee of the republican prima-ries of the ward, where he received 400 out of the 600 votes cast, and his selection was of the Union Pacific. The democrats of the ward, perceiving their mistake in nominat-ing Dailey, rushed to the Municipal league, ing Dailey, rushed to the Municipal league, whose president is a democrat, and induced the league to nominate Mr. Rector, the object being to thus cut Saunders' vote in two leafup to the election of Tom Dailey, demines as operator and manager, he has the personal experience of the wage earner and as an employer of workingmen wishes of the people that prevailed for a few years past, and the same defiance of the laws of God and man, the fountains of justice obstructed and the same loose methods, are in the populous portions of the city, which fact makes it safe to say that the registration of the city of the makes it safe to say that the registration of the city of the several departments and insti-

to engineer the business. His instructions are to push Rector openly, but to get votes for Dalley. He wants Rector to shars Saunders' vote in order that Dalley may squeeze in. Now, why is the B. & M. road fighting Saunders? Let me tell you. That road has paid the Union Pacific an enormous sum of money for depot grounds at Tenth and Mason streets, where its little depot stood up against the hill for many years. The two roads a few years ago formed a Union Depot company and promised the people a magnificent union depot if they would vote a clear title to the of this district to the general assembly which depot grounds to the Union Pacific. You mests in New Orleans Tuesday, November 18. depot grounds to the Union Pacific. You see the city has a string on those valuable grounds which the B. & M. bought of the Union Pacific. The B. & M. went before the city council has Union Pacific. The B. & M. went before the city council last month and made a des-perate effort to get an ordinance passed which would clear the title to these grounds and also release the railroads from their contract obligations to admit the trains of eastern railroads into the depot. Mr. Saun-ders voted against this ordinance and it was defeated, thus saving the city fully $1,000,000.

This is why the B. & M. is fighting Mr Saunders and pushing Rector so Dailey get into the next city council under p to vote this valuable concession to the rail-roads. What Mr. Rector would do in this depot matter if elected I do not know, but I appeal to the voters of the Fifth ward to stand by Mr. Saunders in this fight and rebuke the interference of the B. & M. railroad.

FOR LABOR'S CANDIDATES. Mass Meeting of Workingmen Held at Exposition Hall Saturday Night. The lower floor of Exposit, in hall was filled Saturday night by those who wished to hear the candidates for office that have been endorsed by the Omaha Central labor union.

August Beerman, chairman of the organization committee of the Central Labor union, was the first speaker. Mr. Beerman made an earnest plea to the citizens to vote for candidates of the Central Labor union, and promised better government if workingmen were elected.

Mr. George Daggart, lately from England, and a carpenter by trade, delivered a very earnest address that was well received, after which Chairman Schupp introduced D. Rallying Around Gordon.

A mass meeting in favor of S. I. Gordon was held last night in the First ward at Thirteenth and Vinton streets. The speakers were J. J. Kennedy, J. Woleshensky and S. I. Gordon. A big crowd was in attendance and they seemed to be very much anti-Lowry in their sentiments.

J. J. Kennedy said that he ran against Lowry two years ago for the nomination for the city council, and that, although he had the majority of the votes at the primaries, he was thrown out and Lewry received the nem-ination. He also stated that at the primaries Lowry had agents about who bought votes at from $1 to $3.50 a vote. This year, when it was rumored that he (Kennedy) would run on petition, through the influence of Lowry he was given to understand by his employers the Missouri Pacific, that he had better with draw if he wanted to hold his job. given permission to speak if he would say nothing.

W. Woleshensky, the populist candidate, who will not appear on the ticket, read a circular which he has prepared and which showed how his name had been thrown out. When he found that it was too late to file his certificate he decided to run on petition He obtained twenty-one names, one mor than was necessary. Lowry discovered that one was a resident of the Second ward and date for representative, who was one of the bad it taken off. One more name had to be disposed of. So he had a Bohemian signe who could understand little English swea therefore take pleasure in recommending to an affidavit that his signature was a for him to the voters of Douglas county, Ne-braska, and ask you to kindly publish the following in the columns of your valuable paper:

The following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Whereas, The Knights of Labor for twenty-live years have persistently advocated the use of the ballot as the proper means to right the wrongs of the present social system, under which the masses of the people are suffering, and

Whereas, The two old parties, both republican and democratic, have been in power continually during all that time and have persistently refused to listen to the demands of labor or to enact any laws for its benefit, and

Whereas, The people's party platform is almost identical with the platform of the Knights of Labor, and

Whereas, The people's party stands today as the champion of the common people and against the tyranny and oppression of the streat monopoles and treets; therefore be it.

Resolved, That we most heartly endorse the people's party state licket, headed by Silas A. Holcomb for governor, and be it further.
