SUPREME COURT CONVENES

Habeas Corpus Case of Alleged California

Criminal Being Considered.

LIKELY TO BE RETURNED TO THAT STATE

Sheriff Auble of Los Angeles Staying in Lincoin in the Hope of Being Able to Take the Prisoner Back with Him.

LINCOLN, Nov. 7 .- (Special.) - The supreme court convened today pursuant to adjournment and a number of cases were argued and submitted. The habeas corpus case of Attorney VanSceiver of California, the man wanted badly in that state was reviewed by the court and submitted on a brief filed by his attorney. Sheriff Auble of Los Angeles is firm in the conviction that his patience will be rewarded with victory and that he is destined to enjoy the company of Van back to California. A decision is expected tomorrow morning, to which time the court adjourned. One of the alleged victims of C. Bertram, the missing saloon keeper, who suddenly shook the dust of Lincoln from his feet last Saturday, is a young man named Rosenstock. He says that Bertram borrowed from him $160 as a short time loan. This happened to be all the money possessed by him at the time. It is Rosenstock's candidly expressed opinion that he was quite fortunate in not having more than the same of the control of the co oxpressed opinion that he was quite fortunate in not having more cash by him at the time Bertram negotiated the loan. As a sort of security and to reassure Rosensteck, Bertram requested him to take charge of the receipts of the place until he relieved and to keep the same in his pocket. But the conscientious Rosenstock deposited them in a bank, and now finds himself let in for the whole amount of the loan because hing in sight, bank account and all.

Shields, wife of the absconding dentist, to the effect that she has discovered her recreant spouse in Denver, and that they have mutually agreed to kiss and make up. Shields, it is understood, is the man who a short time since sent his wife to a neighboring town to use her good business judgment in selecting a location for him, and subsequently took advantage of her absence to depart from the city, leaving a note advising her to return to her parental home in Illinois, as they could no longer live together.

The sheriff of Lawrence, Kan., conveys the pleasant information to Lincoin's police officials that a man calling himself by the euphonious name of Bill Duly, but who is in reality James Jones, has broken jail at that point and is now headed toward this state. It is believed that Mr. Jones once lived in Lincoin.

United States Commissioner Billingsley

United States Commissioner Billingsley me time since continued the case of Tom-Carr, charged with selling liquor without a government license. Today the case was on the carpet in the commissioner's room. Carr, it is alleged, sold a pecultarly bad quality of whisky one Sunday a short time ago. Whether or not the atrocious brand of this liquor was to blame for what followed is not developed, but at any rate at the time a man named Griffin was seriously stabbed. This morning Carr waived exstabled. This morning Carr waived ex-amination and was bound over in the sum of $500 for his appearance for trial in the federal court. On giving the bond he was presented with his liberty, and now strenuously claims that ha is a victim of persocu-tion at the hands of parties whom he declines to name.

The intelligence was received today of the auticide at the Norfolk insane asylum of Mrs. Shaw, mother of Mr. Arthur W. Shaw of this A fair and apparently healthy specimen of A fair and apparently healthy specimen of the heloderma horridum, or "Gila monster," was received today at the geological department of the State university. This is the largest and ugitest lizard found in the United States. Its bite is deadly and its favorite menu consists principally of boiled eggs. The monster reptile was enclosed in two thicknesses of wire netting as a probable precedution againt inquisitive postal clorks, excaution againt inquisitive postal clerks, ex-press messengers and baggage men. As a further precaution the box was attached to upright supports by which it could be safely handled. Its colors are marked and brilliant, this particular specimen having adopted the well known insignla of Princeton college, orange and black. In experimenting with this orange and black. In experimenting with this reptile Prof. Shuefeldt was once bitten. In describing its venomous nature he says that it is only by the most skilled medical assistance that a person once bitten can be saved. A new wire cage has been built at the university for the reptile, and he will be kept on exhibition at the state museum.

Mary Sturey is suing the Rock Island Rail-road company for $3.000. The trial is before road company for $3,090. The trial is before a jury in Judge Tibbet's court. She alleges in her petition that the company has dam aged her property that amount, said property consisting of a lot in Houtz Place addition. She avers that if the road would only kee its track in one place she might endure the annoyance with some degree of complacency, but it is being continually shifted from one point on her land to another. Defendants claim that the lot is not worth over $1,500. They also say that she has taken advantage of the siding on her lot to start a coal yard, and has never removed from the place, but continues to reside there and enjoy the bene-fits of the location. The Modern Woodmen Accident association The Modern Woodmen Accident association is being sued in the district court by Celia V. Shyrock for a claim against the company for his death. The defendant association answers that the decedant's death was not caused by accident, and also that he misrepre-sented his physical and mental condition when as applied for a policy.
