

INVESTING OF PORT ARTHUR

Mail Advice Concerning the Operations Against Chinese Stronghold.

LANDING EFFECTED WITHOUT DIFFICULTY

Chinese Offer but Feeble Resistance to the Advance of the Japanese in Manchuria—China Hailing Vast Sums of Money to Carry on the War.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—The steamship Peru arrived tonight bringing the following advices to the Associated Press: YOKOHAMA, Oct. 29, 1894.—General Oyama's army left Japan October 18. The number of troops was estimated at a little more than 20,000. They filled nearly fifty transports and 500 flat-bottomed boats accompanied the flotilla to facilitate the landing. On October 24 the east coast of the Liautung peninsula was reached. A considerable part of the army was put on shore at a point supposed to be some forty miles north of Port Arthur and a little north of the fortified town of Lain-Chao or Chin-Chi on the opposite coast. The remainder of the army passed around the extremity of the peninsula into the gulf of Pe-chi-li and toward a destination not yet positively known to the public in Japan. The fleet under Admiral Ito moved simultaneously upon the station at Port Arthur and Taku-tsun. The purpose was to herd all the Chinese garrisons in the southern part of Liautung and compel their surrender, as well as that of Admiral Ting's squadron. The native troops defending these positions were believed not to exceed 8,000 in number. These facts are telegraphed from Shanghai.

The scene of operations is so remote that no direct intelligence has been received by the Japanese government from the strongholds which command one side of the entrance to the gulf of Pe-chi-li will give a powerful advantage to Japan and the possession or destruction of the ships sheltered at Port Arthur will secure her undisputed control of the Chinese waters. The capture of a large body of soldiers would be only a burden which would be gladly avoided were it possible. General Yamagata's army has signaled its advance into Manchuria by the seizure of the walls of Kow-Low and Chiu-Liu. The attack was so feebly met that the encounter could hardly be called a battle. The crossing of the river was completed on the morning of October 26 and was followed by a succession of skirmishes in which the Japanese killed 170 and wounded 100.

SPOLLS WERE VALUABLE. New-Leon fell October 28. The defending force was estimated variously from 10,000 to 15,000, all of which ran away at the first assault. The Japanese casualties were twenty killed and thirty wounded. Of the Chinese 200 were reported killed. The spoils were of great value, including the thirty large cannon, thousands of small arms, abundant ammunition, tents and quantities of provisions and fodder.

Particulars of the movements in Manchuria are obtained with difficulty owing to the restrictive nature of the Japanese authorities to the charges of disseminating false news which have been brought against them abroad. From the beginning of the war they have steadily refused to issue bulletins until after receiving official assurances of the accuracy of every fact announced. The Japanese government in Tokyo can testify to the extreme caution exercised and now that the government has been accused of circulating false news it is not impossible to elicit any intelligence whatever.

Before leaving Hong Kong on her homeward trip the Empress of China signified her readiness to take the express train to the necessity by shipping her guns from the stores of the Canadian Pacific. Advances from Tien-Tsin announce that the Chinese have secured a loan of 10,000,000 taels and Shanghai bank a loan of 10,000,000 taels at 7 per cent. With this money several ships of the Chinese navy are to be purchased, if the present intention is to purchase. It is reported that two wealthy Tien-Tsin men have united to make up a fund of 1,000,000 taels, the repayment of which, with interest, is secured by the customs of the province. The viceroys of several provinces are said to have declared their readiness to supply the amounts at which they have been variously assessed, ranging from 4,000,000 to 10,000,000 taels. For the first time in Chinese history, it is stated, these sums are eventually to be refunded and the money is to be used for the provincial rulers have been compelled to fill the imperial treasury without hope of other remuneration than the bestowal of increased rank upon the officials who furnish the money. The circumstance that the new venture demands that these advances be considered loans instead of gifts is significant of the central government's financial straits. However obtained, the Tsung-tsi-Yamen is elated at the prospect of amassing 125,000,000 taels before the end of the year—that being the promised amount.

FOREIGNERS LEAVING PEKING. The exodus of foreigners from Peking continues. The British minister has preemptively ordered his countrymen to leave, and if any are retained they will be without the sanction of their diplomatic representatives, who do not undertake to guarantee their safety.

English newspapers in China state positively that the wounded who returned to Port Arthur from the battle of Taku-Kasan have received absolutely no assistance. One of the Taku-Tsun is reported to have arrived at the arrival of the ships, and though he signified his willingness to start at once the authorities refused to provide the medicines and stores and supplies which he required. As without these his services would be of no avail he did not go.

The captain of a foreign steamer engaged to carry on to Port Arthur reported that scores of injured men are lying exposed and uncared for and surrounded by unburied dead. While he was discharging his cargo a panic was caused by an announcement that the Japanese were approaching, and the exhibition of cowardice that ensued is thus described: Every bit of space was taken by Chinese soldiers and men both on a fleet and from the land who came on board and insisted on being taken to Taku whether they were or not. The Japanese post captains, lieutenants and petty officers and men from the fleet hustled and jostled with generals, colonels, majors and captains, and every grade of officers and men were taken away from the place which they momentarily expected to be the scene of the arrival of the officers from the forts had their wives and families with them and paid for their passages with diamond rings and valuables.

JAPAN'S ATTITUDE TOWARD AMERICA. Several American newspapers express the opinion that the proposition to open the United States to Japan is delayed by the unwillingness of the latter power to agree to restrictions upon the immigration of her subjects. This is an error. The imperial government regards the question as of no importance for the reason that few Japanese show any disposition to leave their native land. The country is not at all overcrowded and more than half of the land capable of cultivation is still uncultivated. The only immigration has been of some 15,000 laborers to Hawaii and the conditions which tempt the poorer classes of peasants to cast their fortunes there for a while did not exist elsewhere. There is not the slightest likelihood any considerable number of Japanese will seek a home in America, but if the United States authorities desire to introduce restrictive clauses in the treaty Japan will make no opposition to any reasonable provision.

BOYD AND THE POSTOFFICE

Washington People Think the Governor Will Succeed Major Clarkson.

HE HAS NOT MADE FORMAL APPLICATION

Friendly Relations with President Cleveland and High Standing in His Party His Recommendation for the Position.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—The appointment of a postmaster for Omaha will be made before the close of this week, and it may be made tomorrow. The room, but he has not yet recovered from the attack of pneumonia that he may be able to go to the department tomorrow or Thursday. There is no application from him on file, nor any recommendation from any source, but it is in the air that ex-Governor James E. Boyd will be appointed. An old official of the Postoffice department today said: "Governor Boyd is a warm friend of President Cleveland. All Nebraska appointments were made during the former Cleveland administration upon the recommendations of Governor Boyd and Dr. Miller. The president knows him well and his standing at the white house was such that we used to appoint fourth-class postmasters whenever Governor Boyd called here and asked for them. He has recently been recommended by Omaha. Besides, he has recently made a strong campaign for his party in the Omaha congressional district, and is entitled to recognition for his services. He has no papers on file in his behalf. If he is appointed, as seems likely, it will probably be done upon the personal recommendation of Secretary Morton at the white house."

BOND CALL ISSUED.

Conditions of the Call Similar to that of Last February.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Secretary Carlisle late this afternoon issued his call for bids for $50,000,000 of 5 per cent, ten-year bonds, intended to be paid in coin, which is interpreted to mean gold.

The only material changes made in the present call from that issued January 14 last are the omission of the upset or minimum price which would be accepted, and the notice that the proposals for the present issue will be sealed. It is confidently expected at the Treasury department that an amount of $25,000,000 will be realized. This expectation is based on the fact that there are exceptionally large amounts of money now seeking investment in the government securities. The further that the February issue is now quoted at $118.50, or about 2 per cent above the price which would yield 3 per cent. From the last issue the Treasury has realized $52,917,000, of which amount $32,850,264.24 was in gold coin, $5,310,429 in gold certificates, and $23,339 in other money which the sub-treasuries were compelled to accept in settlement of all accounts. The gold and the sub-treasuries were in the same amount, and the Treasury department has a record of all deposits of legal tenders made in change for gold and the names of the firms or persons calling for the same.

The following is the secretary's circular calling for bids: "THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 13, 1894. By virtue of the authority contained in the act of Congress entitled 'An act to provide for the redemption of specie by the Treasury department,' approved January 14, 1875, the secretary of the Treasury hereby gives notice that he will receive at the Treasury department, office of the secretary, until five o'clock on the 15th day of November, 1894, for United States 5 per cent bonds in either registered or coupon form, the following: First, the amount of $25,000,000, at the rate of 5 per cent per annum, interest payable quarterly in coin at the rate of 5 per cent per annum, to be paid in full at the expiration of ten days thereafter until the whole is paid; but they may be paid at any time when notified of acceptance or at any time when an installment is payable. The first payment is to be made not less than 20 per cent, must be made when the bidder so desires. The denominations of the bonds will be $50 and upwards, and bidders may bid for the whole or any part of the amount desired, whether registered or coupon, at prices which the bidder proposes to pay. The bids, when received, will be opened in public and the offer, whether that of the bidder or the United States, will be the one which will be most advantageous to the bidder. The bids must be deposited with the secretary of the Treasury at the Treasury department, office of the secretary, on or before the 15th day of November, 1894, in order to make the proposed issue uniform as to date with the existing issues. The bids will be received until November 1, 1894, and bidders will be required to pay 10 per cent of the amount of their bids on or before the 1st day of November, 1894, and the balance of the amount of their bids on or before the 1st day of December, 1894. The bidder must be prepared to pay the amount of their bids on or before the 1st day of December, 1894, and the balance of the amount of their bids on or before the 1st day of January, 1895.
