They are a gate, the nearest military post. They are a peaceful and industrious tribe, but ignorant of all matters outside of their own little villages. It is even said they believe that they are the only people in the world, with the exception of the four companies of the United States cavalry that appeared on the occasion of their last outbreak. Governor Solomal obtained some progressive ideas from a visit to Washington with two Moquis about ten years ago. On his return he described the immense numbers of people, the railroads and gigantic buildings he had seen. The Canadian Cutter Makes a Raid on Lake Indians, thinking he was crazy, placed him in confinement for some time. The hostiles numbered about two-thirds of the tribe and they are led by one Lomahungyoma. They were op-posed to progress of any kind and wanted to follow in the steps of their forefathers. After Solomal had finished his speech their chief rose to reply. He substantially argued against the truth of Solomai's statements, saying that he and his followers did not want to be civilized or have their children go to school, or to wear white men's clothing, or to eat white men's food. They had selzed the fields at Mencopee because they had belonged to them in former years and had been unlawfully taken away. In the spring he intended to take away more of the fields of the followers of Solomai. He also said the difficulty could be settled in no other way than by the coming of the United States troops. Therefore, Captain Williams said he had deemed it necessary for two troops of United States cavalry to be sent there. It is believed that the trouble will be over in a few days, but it will take some time for the news to arrive, as the Indians are at a considerable distance from any town. then says that just after the election this year Kolb issued an address and stated he had been elected, shortly after which his leaders held a conference. As a result of this conference meetings were called in every county for the purpose of ascertaining the wishes of the people. A convention was also called for Montgomery for November 12, at which resolutions were adopted to the effect that Kolb was elected by the qualified electors; that the will of the people was set as de through the agency of election managers and county officials, added and abitted by a corrupt judiciary. Kolb then says that last Sat-urday, when the legislature convened in joint session to count the votes for state officers. Senator Goodwyn arose to file a protest, signed by forty-four members of the legislature against counting the vote of certain ounties where it is alleged frauds were ommitted, when Speaker Clarke of the house made Goodwyn out of order and ordered him to take his seat, calling upon the doorkeeper to seat him. The address then concludes:

HEDSPETH GAVE IT AWAY.

Late tonight Chief Harrigan consented to talk concerning Howe's arrest and the part he had in unearthing the plot to defraud the Philadelphia concern. Said he: "Marion C. Hedspeth, the famous Glendale, Mo., train robber, now a prisoner in the city jail, has told me of Howe's efforts to smuggle him keys and tools on various occasions to ald him in attempting to escape. Howe is a brother of McDouald's partner, and McDon-ald is Hedspoth's attorney. The first intimation was from Hedspeth. His letter to me and the statement which followed, written by him at my request, tell the story of the discovery of the plot. They are as

gan, Chief of Police: Dear Sir-There has been a $10,000 swindle worked upon a Philadelphia life insurance company, and pos-sibly a murder committed in working it. Senevty-five hundred dollars of the money has already been paid, and $2,500 is yet in the bank, owing to a squabble over the fee that Howe is wanting for his part in it. I can give some interesting information regarding it, and perhaps save the insurance company something if they are notified at once. MARION C. HEDSPETH.' "

J. C. Armstrong, a jail guard, in a sworn statement also in the possession of Chief Harrigan, swore that he was approached by J. D. Howe for the purpose of getting his assistance in securing Hedspeth's escape. The statement of Hedspeth before mentioned as follows:

"CITY, Oct. 12, 1894.-Major Lawrence Har rigan, Chief of Police: Dear Sir-When H. f. Howard was here some months ago

After we go acquainted he suid that he had a scheme by which he could make $10,000 and that he needed some lawyer who could be trusted, and said that if I could introduce him he would give me $500. He then told me that P. F. Pitzel's life was insured for $10,000; that Pitzel and he were going to work the insurance company for that sum. He told me just how they were going to do it. He said he was an expert at it-that he had worked it before and that being a druggist he could easily deceive the insurance ompany by having Pitzel fix himself up according to his direction and make it appear ciation convened here this morning. Nearly those present by special invitation were a score of delegates representing Nevada, Oretana. When Prof. J. H. Neff had called the homes read from Governor-elect Budd, who is too ill under to attend; Governor Richards of Montana, ator White and Congressman Bowers of Call ornia. Governor Markham was then introduced and, in a felicitous address, dwelt upon the importance of the mining industry and the part it had played in the building up of Cal-fornia. J. A. Barnham, congressman-elect from the First California district, delivered a brief address, promising that, as a member of congress, he would champion the cause of the miners, and that in particular he should urge appropriations sufficient to build dama for the impounding of all of the heavier debris created through the operation of draulic mining, and that the muddy water which should flow over barriers he would have conducted into the tule swamps along the Sacramento river. He believed hydraulio mining could be thus carried on and much valuable land reclaimed.

HAVE THE COOKS SURROUNDED.

Cherokees Waiting for the Ammunition Train Before Opening Hostilities.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., Nov. 19 .- War with the Cooks is going on in the vicinity of Verdigris river, about twenty miles from here. The bandits are massed in force there and have more than their match in a squad of Cherokees, who have been rounding them up for several days. No open battle has yet taken place, but there has been a great deal of skirmish fighting, and both sides are preparing for a death struggla. Fully fifteen of the Cook gang are together, and Bill Cook is leading them in person. His young while or sweetheart is with him at the rendezvous. The Cherokees would have forced the fighting before now were it not for their fear of running short of ammunition before the battle was over. If it comes to a question of allowing the Cooks to slip away from them or fighting as best they can, then the Cherokees will fight, and they are not afraid of getting the worst of it. It was thought, however, to be good gener-alship to keep the Cooks where they have them now until all is in readiness for a heavy and prolonged attack. The Cherokees subsequently dispatched Sheriff John Brown to this city for a full supply of ammunition, and he arrived here tonight, bringing the information already given. The sheriff will leave here in the morning with all the supplies needed and a strong guard.

MANIAC'S FRIGHTFUL CRIME.

Murdered His Nother, Sister and Brother with an Axe.

MONTGOMERY, Mo., Nov. 19 .- A terrible tragedy was committed this morning about two miles from Wellsville. At that place lived Thomas Portercheck, his mother, two sisters and a brother, Bohemians, appears that Thomas Portercheck complained yesterday evening that his head was hurting him and said that he believed his neck was broken and refused to go to bed. At 5 o'clock this morning he secured an axe and killed his widowed mother, his sister and his brother.

While he was murdering his mother, sis-ter and brother, his other sister, Mary, made her escape by jumping through the window. She stood on the outside and looked through the window and saw her maniac brother saturate the room with coal oil, set it on fire and then gash himself with a knife in the throat. He mank down and all four bodies were consumed in the burn-ing house. By the time the neighbors got to the unfortunate man the house was all ablaze, too late to rescue the bodies. This morning the four hodies could be seen still burning in the ruins. The mother was an invalid, and had been confined to her bed for twelve years. The murderer suddenly became insane.
