A meeting of the managers of the western roads was held today at the office of Chair-man Midgely of the Western Freight association to discuss plans for the extension of the territory in which the division, as at present formulated on freight traffic, shall apply. The territory was extended to cover Omaha and Council Bluffs, and the proposition to include St. Paul territory was under discussion when the meeting adjourned. It is intended to extend the territory in which the leading divisions shall be made to all the leading points east of the Missouri river, and ultimately go beyond that line.

Representative of Foreign Central Pacific Shareholders Coming Here. LONDON, Nov. 20 .- Sir Charles Rivers Wilson, ex-comptroller of the national debt office, who sails tomorrow for New York on board the White Star line steamship Majestic as representative of the shareholders in this country of the Central Pacific road, said in an interview today: "I do not go to the United States with plenary powers to take action in case Mr. Huntington and his friends refuse to carry out my recommendations. It is difficult to get widely scattered stockholders to act in concert, but I am within the facts in saying that 60 per cent of the $68.-000,000 of the stock held in England, Holland and the United States are behind me. These holders of stock bought at 75 and upwards and for several years dividends clared. Now their stock is quoted at about 15 and there are no dividends. These share-holders are sending me to the United States in order to ascertain why this is the case.
"I shall go to Washington and stay at Sir Julian Pauncefote's and have an interview with the government, if I can, about the intended government action in January next. Decide Upon a Line of Action.

The next few days will decide whether the canal project is to be taken up again or dropped entirely. A general meeting of the stockholders will be held in the latter part of the present week at which a scheme for the complete reorganization of the company will be taken up for discussion. If the plan is adopted the promoters of the enterprise hope to submit a new proposition at a special election, complete the final survey during the winter months and be ready to commence active work on the canal by March 1. One of the leading movers in the canal project expressed his regret over the general apathy of the public toward the cuterprise and stated that many of the 250 stockholders in the company were rapidly becoming dis-gusted and wished to draw out. These stockholders were many of them engaged in the retail business and only contributed their money with the view to improving the business of the city along every line. They did not expect to get their money back from the canal itself. They wished now to either draw out of the enterprise or see it placed on .
