Our Special Dress Goods and Silk Sale for Friday.

SEASON'S REMNANTS OF DRESS GOODS

Best Calling, 3 1-2; Canton Flannel, 3 1-2; Cello, 3 1-2; a Yard--Milinery Sale--Read Their Advertisement on This Page.

Friday is looked on as a dull day in a dry goods store. We're going to make it a busy day today.

The hard times of the last year or so have taught shrewd people the value of a dollar. It will pay you to keep an eye on Hayden Bros' advertisements.

Recent heavy cash purchases from New York auction houses and their contracts with mills since the great reduction by the tariff bill enables them to give bargains never before approached in this country.

STAMPED LINENS.

Friday we open our full line of Christmas novelties of STAMPED TRAY CLOTHS, SPLASHERS, SCARFS, etc.

Nothing like these prices ever dreamed of for such fine goods.

7 1/2 inch stamped dresser scarves, 19c. Moccasin splashes, 10c; tray cloths, 8c. We retail working silks, crocheted silks, silk goss, etc., as cheaply as other stores buy them.

MILINERY DEPARTMENT.

Ladies' trimmed hats, latest new fresh styles, made and trimmed of new materials in the prevailing winter shades, at paralyzing prices.

Ladies' $1.50 trimmed hats, 95c. Ladies' $2.00 trimmed hats, $1.45. Ladies' $2.75 trimmed hats, $1.75. Ladies' $3.00 trimmed hats, $1.95. Ladies' $5.00 trimmed hats, $3.50. Feathers, wings, tips, etc., from 1c each.

HARVEST EXCURSIONS SOUTH.

On November 20, December 4 and 18, the Wabash will sell tickets at one fare, with $3 added. For tickets or a copy of the Homeowner's Guide call at Wabash office, 1502 Farnam street, or write G. N. CLAYTON, N. W. P. Agt., Omaha.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The street railway employes will give their first annual ball at Washington hall Thanksgiving night. John Nelson was arrested last night on a warrant charging him with assaulting Sarah Peterson. He was released on bail. Some of the sports have scheduled a dog fight for Thanksgiving day, to be pulled off in East Omaha, providing the authorities do not interfere. A steam pipe in W. M. Preston's flour mill, 508 Pierce street, burst about 9 o'clock yesterday morning and caused an alarm of fire. There was no loss. The chilly November air talks of stoves and ranges and sends the people to Dickey's stove store, where they find what they need. 1405 Douglas street. Married--At the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Charles Cope, Edward Samner and Miss Florence E. Cope, on Tuesday, November 20, Rev. J. M. Wilson, D.D., officiating. Married--At the residence of Mr. James Wyness, Tuesday, November 20, by Rev. J. M. Wilson, D.D., Mr. John Forbes of St. Joseph, Mo., and Miss Elizabeth Wyness of Omaha. Detectives Johnson and McCune of the Des Moines police force arrived in the city yesterday and left in the afternoon with Harry Lang, who is wanted in Iowa for burglary. Officers arrested Lang Wednesday. Mr. Daniel W. Croussman and Miss Annie Carey were married on Wednesday evening, November 19, 1894, by Rev. Charles W. Savidge of the People's church, at the residence of Mr. E. T. Reilly, 1903 Leavenworth street. The trustees of the Associated Charities have intimated to the county commissioners that an influential deputation of friends and taxpayers will wait upon the board at the meeting next Saturday afternoon to confer on the relief work for the winter. C. M. Patton of Woodbine, Ia., who is visiting friends at 2530 South Seventh street, while walking on the street at noon fell and broke his thigh. The patrol wagon was called and removed him to the Methodist hospital, where his injuries were cared for. The cereal mills in East Omaha, which were burned in the summer, have been rebuilt and will be in operation in a couple of weeks. These mills have been enlarged and the company by which they are owned will manufacture all kinds of cereal products. Trinity Methodist church, Rev. F. H. Sanderson, D.D., pastor, will be closed next Sunday, as that church is undergoing repairs. All the services will be withdrawn. The regular meetings will be held in the lecture room next week, and services will be resumed the following Sunday. Max Freeman, the young man brought back from Lincoln by Detective Dempsy, was arraigned in police court yesterday on a grand larceny charge and pleaded not guilty. The complainant, H. Schmitz & Co., allege that Freeman stole a fur cape from them and pawned it. The case is set for hearing this afternoon. D. T. Mount was acquitted in police court yesterday afternoon of the charge of giving short weight. He had been arrested a few days ago at the instance of Weight Inspector A. D. White. The load of coal in question was 150 pounds short. The driver swore that he had received the correct weight, but had thrown off several huge lumps at the residence of a poor family that was without coal. PHILLIPS' "ROCK ISLAND" EXCURSION Through Tourist Sleeping Car to San Francisco and Los Angeles. Parties having warrants to sell call at his office, 1506 Dodge street. Our Italy. Time was when the "glorious climate of California" did not attract tourists. But year after year the tide of travel sets in stronger and stronger every fall and winter toward this favored region. There is no climate like it on this continent for a winter resort, and the usual fine service of the Union Pacific system has this season been brought to a degree of perfection which leaves nothing to be desired. For further information call on your nearest ticket agent or address H. P. DEUEL, City ticket agent, 1302 Farnam st., Omaha, Neb. New Omaha Limited Train.
