Isn't any man a fool who devotes all his time to the acquisition of wealth at the expense of the cultivation of the mental and spiritual capacities?"

Dr. Dougherty spoke at considerable length on the especial folly of church members claiming to be sanctified to the work of Christ and then devoting their energies to the pursuit of worldly wealth. It was, he said, as if a church that had been dedicated to the services of Almighty God were turned over to some one as a place to keep store in, or as though the baptismal font were to be used in the kitchen during the son of Robert R. Harvey, who posed as swindling operations under no less than twenty aliases in different sections. Under the name of H. D. Baer he bought a small fruit farm at Vineland, N. J., where he took his wife a year ago, and from which point he operated. He broke jail at Bel-laire, Md., October 7, where he was detained on two charges of forgery, securing $3,600 from the Hartford National bank of Bellaire. He served two years for embezzl-ment in Santa Clara prison, California, and three years in the Albany penitentiary for several forgeries at Washington, D. C. The detective has been on his trail since his ea cape from Bellaire, going to Nebraska, back to New York, thence here, where he found him living quietly under the above allas, He is not known to have committed depredations here, but assumed to be a pro-hibition orator, and canvassed for advertise ments in a religious hymn book.

Loaded Too Heavily with Flour. Joe Peterson, Willie Haley and Reed Yates are the names of three young toughs Yates are the names of three young toughs who were arrested last night. Their ages range from 12 to 15 years, yet they have each been in jail a number of times. They were arrested last night for having in their possession two sacks of flour which they were trying to sell. They said that they obtained it from some other boys, but the police think they stole it from Evans' grocery store near Twenty-fourth and Seward streets, which was robbed of $10 worth or flour a few days ago.

OUEER HALLUCINATION.

Son of a Holdrege, Neb., Lawyer Loses Hi Mind in Denver. DENVER, Nov. 25.-Walter E. Hall, stenographer in Judge Gilpin's court, after tak-ing the Keeley cure, relapsed into his forr bibulous habits, and his friends have noticed of late that his mind seemed to be effected. One of his hallucinations is that ae is a single man, although he has a wife and child living at Holyoke, Colo. He became engaged to Miss Mattle L. Millar in this city and the marriage was to lar in this city and the marriage was to have taken place last night. Judge Glynn got wind of the affair and arrived at the house of Mrs. Millar just as Rev. Mr. Kerr B. Tupper was about to pronounce the words that would have made Hall a bigamist. The ceremony was stopped and Hall was arrested. He is a son of W. P. Hall, a prominent lawyer of Holdrege, Neb., and is a college graduate.

HELP FOR A GOOD CAUSE

Where Men Find a Defease From the Perils That Threaten Them.

Keen observers say that the practice of hard drinking is growing steadily less among intelligent, self-respecting men, who, while not posing as aposties of reform, see the folly of excess, and govern themselves accordingly. Yet the time when people can get along without an occasional stimulant is as distant as ever.

It may come when disease is banished from the earth; when the body worn with work and exposure, and threatened by insidious perils, shall need no help in getting back all the old-time chasticity and vigor. It will not come before.

The season of snew and slush and icy winds is not far away. It is the time when the human system is cruelly tried by changes of temperature from overheated rooms to the piercing outer air. Whatever braces the body, tones the stomach and keeps the blood stirring naturally will do better than cure colds. It will prevent them. Keen observers say that the practice of ard drinking is growing steadily less

In Duffy's Pure Mait Whiskey are found the qualities necessary to produce this result. It has kept many a man on his feet and at his work when, without it, he would have been prostrated and helpless, Nobody familiar with the properties of Duffy's Pure Malt ever confounds it with the whiskey in common use, for it is not a beverage, but a medicine.

As such, it has a place on the bouse-keeper's shelf of family remedies, and the broad-minded physician orders it for the patient whose store of vitality is low, Where disease is accompanied by a waste of tissues, a stimulant is always recommended, for it gives the body a chance to build up, Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey does this work perfectly.
