

STOOD OFF THE OFFICER

Mrs. Alfred Omer Takes Deputy Hoxie for a Barglar.

RESISTS HIS EFFORTS TO ENTER HER HOUSE

Her Husband Appears on the Scene and Prepares to Take a Hand in the Affair When the Intruder Makes Explanations.

LINCOLN, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—A comedy of errors was the result of Deputy Sheriff Hoxie's attempt this morning to serve a writ of replevin for a piano in the possession of Mrs. Alfred G. Omer. The lady conducts the Palace restaurant at 1123 N street and lives in rooms above that number. Action was begun in the county court some time since by Julius Manger to secure possession of a piano valued at $350 from Mrs. Jeanie McCargar. Suit was defended on the ground that she had never given a mortgage on the instrument and that it was a gift from her father. In the lower court she won. On appeal Manger was awarded the piano. Mean while Mrs. McCargar had disposed of her right and title in it to Mrs. Omer, who took possession of it and has since refused to give it up to Manger. This morning the latter filed suit in replevin and Deputy Hoxie served the writ. When the officer knocked at the door Mrs. Omer appeared and immediately tried to close the aperture, but Hoxie was persistent and placing his foot on the door sill threw the door open and entered the room. Mrs. Omer, a large woman, attempted to prevent him from laying hands on the piano, and a scuffle ensued. The appearance of Mr. Omer on the scene was opportune and mutual explanations followed, which resulted in Hoxie's obtaining possession of the piano. The affair is explained by Mrs. Omer, who says: "My husband and I purchased a piano from Mrs. McCargar for $300. We had no knowledge of a mortgage resting on it. When in my room this morning some one knocked on the door. As we had considerable money on hand I was afraid of burglars, and I opened the door cautiously. Thinking it was a day-light robber I screamed and tried to close the door. When I found the man was an officer, I made no further attempt to eject him from the rooms. His silence at first created the trouble."

TO STRAIGHTEN SALT CREEK.

Salt creek is to be straightened. So, at least, says a gentleman who enjoys the confidence of the commission had thought of running the new channel along the west edge of his property, nearly its whole length, merely cutting off a small corner near the southwest. The only parties demanding a money consideration for the right of way in that section are Burns and Manger. The railroad land is at the disposal of the commission for the purpose of straightening the channel. The commission, it is believed, will secure the condemnation of the channel needs through the Burns property, and it is satisfied it can pay more per acre for it and it needs no further money. The present plan, as it will take less land. The first of next week this scheme will be ready for inspection and discussion.

LINCOLN LOCALS.

Judge Tibbets, whose illness has been a matter of grave consideration by his friends, is reported to be worse today, and fears are entertained for his life. It is said that today he suffered another hemorrhage and is very weak and exhausted. Nicholas Eberly has secured judgment in Justice Gould's court against the Missouri Pacific for failure of its engineers to ring bells at a railroad crossing. The suit was brought for $150, half of which goes to the state and half to Eberly. There are a number of similar cases pending in the supreme court, and it is claimed that one case has been brought against the Burlington company in Valley county involving something over $22,000 for failure to whistle or ring, at the rate of $50 for each offense. The Merchants Insurance company of Newark made, practically, no defense to the suit of J. A. Buckstaff on a $1,000 policy, simply admitting that a judgment be rendered in their favor. The jury gave Buckstaff a verdict for $1,688.46, the full amount claimed. Judge Stordey today entered judgment in the case of the German National bank against McIntire et al. against the defendant on five different liens, aggregating $31,500. An order of sale against property at Eleventh and M streets and a farm in Grant precinct was made. Attendants upon Justice Gould's court this morning attest that the building was shaken by an earthquake, although no such seismic disturbance was felt in any other portion of the block. Justice Gould, however, says: "I have been right in the crater of Vesuvius when it was in a state of partial eruption and I want to say it felt just like that. I thought it was a shock of earthquake."

DR. STILES COMMITS SUICIDE.

While Under the Influence of Liqueur He Takes a Dose of Morphine. WAHOO, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—Dr. George K. Stiles, a member of the Mohawk Medicine company, was put off the train in this city Tuesday morning for want of money to pay his fare. He found friends enough during the day who were willing to treat him to whiskey and late at night retired at the Merchants hotel, considerably under the influence of liquor. This morning he was found by the hotel clerk in the agonies of death. A physician was called, but despite all efforts he died at 11 o'clock. An identification card in his trunk looked like his father, Colonel I. L. Stiles, at Milan, Ind., who was notified and is expected here in the morning. The deceased was a Mason and a Knight of Pythias. Coroner Way held an inquest and the verdict of the jury was "Died from the effect of morphine administered by his own hand."

THE SUICIDE LEFT A NOTE ON THE TABLE IN HIS ROOM, STATING THAT FOLLOWS HIS OWN TAKE HIS LIFE, AND GAVE DIRECTIONS AS TO WHOM TO NOTIFY. A BOTTLE OF THE DEADLY DRUG WAS ALSO FOUND IN HIS ROOM, NEARLY CONSUMED.

NEWCASTLE, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special.)

The store of Chris Nelson at Limegrove, a little postoffice eight miles west of this place, was entered by burglars last night and had the stock stolen. The thieves entered the store by cutting one of the panels out of the back door and removing an iron bar that fastened it. They carried the goods to a wagon, which was in waiting a few rods from the store. The goods stolen consisted of boots, shoes, groceries and dry goods. Three pairs of candy and all the tobacco and cigars were taken. There is no clew to the robbers.

SIDNEY, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special Telegram.)—W. J. O'Brien, assistant superintendent of the state hatcheries at South Bend, was here today with the fish carp, and distributed bass, carp and crappies to a large number of people. Mr. O'Brien is an enthusiast upon the piscatorial question.

APPEAL TO THE GRAND ARMY.

Aid for the Destitute Union Veterans in Western Nebraska Requested.

LINCOLN, Nov. 28.—(Special Telegram.)

Headquarters Department of Nebraska, Grand Army of the Republic, has issued the following circular letter, addressed to the different posts throughout the state: "Comrades: The department commander takes this method of informing you of the great need of aid for our old and destitute soldiers and their families in the western part of the state, and much desires that immediate action be taken looking toward their relief. Many of them are in great destitution and distress for the common necessities of life, and winter is no nearer at hand unless relief is given them at once much real suffering toward them. I therefore appeal to all those posts located in the sections that have not been benefitted by the distribution of food and clothing to the needy, to call a meeting of their members for the purpose of raising food, clothing and other necessities for the needy. When collected and ready for shipment, if reported to these headquarters, free transportation will be furnished and a careful distribution made and reported upon. The commander also suggests that each post join with its relief corps in this great effort. Hold fairs, give social entertainments, and ask the cooperation of all loyal people in your neighborhood outside of your own ranks. A good advertisement do something. If you can't fill a car in your vicinity, fill a box. What are we here for? Appoint special committees from some of the most active and energetic members to make such a plan in two or three days. Time each post can have a good carnival for shipment. A cartload of coal from each post and its friends would be most acceptable. Comrades, get down to business, and let us render the possible assistance to our destitute union veterans and their dependent families. By command of the department commander, GENERAL CURTIS HOWE, Department Commander. A. M. TRIMBLE, Assistant Adjutant General."

TROUBLE WITH INDIANS.

One White Man Knocked Down and Clubbed Severely.

DECATUR, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—For some time past Mr. McClure, a white man who resides in the Indian reservation, has been annoyed by other people's horses grazing in his corn fields. He got tired of it and shut two of them up, belonging to Johnson Edwards, an Indian. Tuesday McClure went away and left the place in charge of Frank O'Clay, his son-in-law. Some of the Indians came after the horses and Frank refused to give them up unless they were willing to pay damages, which they refused to do. They knocked him down and clubbed him severely. The incident happened not to be loaded, and they clubbed him down again and took the gun away and went off with their horses. Frank has gone to Fremont to have them arrested for assault and battery.

YESTERDAY A GAME OF "BLUFF" WAS PLAYED ON THE reservation at the Hilderbrand farm, between Joe Hilderbrand, Lefe Davis and a couple of Indians. Joe had tied up some of the ponies belonging to the Indians which had been grazing in his corn fields. They came after the horses yesterday and Joe refused to give them up. They proceeded to take them. Joe and Davis entered the house and armed themselves with a Winchester and a revolver. One of the Indians came after his knife and the other grabbed a hatchet and Davis and Hilderbrand thought it better to seek refuge in the house. The Indians got their ponies.

Dodge County Justice.

FREMONT, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—W. T. Johnson, who robbed the residence of J. N. Pollock in Elkhorn township Sunday night, was yesterday brought back from Norfolk, where he was captured a few hours after his escape. He is charged with the robbery. Being in session, he was arraigned and pleaded guilty to grand larceny. Judge Hildner gave him one year in the penitentiary, the minimum sentence under the law. Only about forty hours elapsed between the robbery and the sentence, which is the swiftest time on record in Dodge county. Johnson stole a gold watch, $27 and horse and saddle, all of which were recovered.

At the meeting of the city council last night a proposition was made to sell the beautiful Chautauqua grounds to the city for a public park. The nominal price asked is $12,000, which is much less than the cost. The proposition was received and filed for future consideration.

Solomon Gayton has commenced a contest case in county court against George Hindmarsh. Both were candidates for member of the County Board of Supervisors from Elkhorn township, and the returns showed Hindmarsh elected by a plurality of two votes. Gayton claims illegal voting and error in that Hindmarsh acted as clerk of election.

Mr. Belknap, a gardener, was the object of an attempt to holdup after dark last night. He had just driven to his stable when a man appeared and asked him to "give up." Belknap jumped out on the other side of his wagon when the stranger fired two shots. Belknap pulled a gun and also commenced shooting, when the fellow skipped out in the darkness.

York Death List.

YORK, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—John P. Burk, an aged and respected citizen of this county, died Monday as a result of brief sickness. Soon after his death word was received of the death of his brother-in-law, Charles Linstrom, who resided in Deuel county, this state. The family had expected him here this Thanksgiving and had received no word of his illness. Instead of the merry Thanksgiving time there will be a sad funeral, both being buried at the same hour at this place. Samuel Cato died of lung fever Saturday. Some time ago Mrs. Thomas Stevens, a sister-in-law of Mr. Cato, died, and she came here to attend her funeral. Shortly after her death her husband also died. Since that time he has been lying at the home of his daughter, suffering with the disease that caused his death. His wife died a month or so ago.

Births and Deaths.

HILDRETH, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Marr celebrated the eleventh anniversary of their wedding Saturday evening. A few of their friends met at the pleasant home and enjoyed a sumptuous supper, after which the time was pleasantly passed till 2 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Stuffer of the Methodist Episcopal church is conducting a successful revival at this place. A number of conversions are reported. A. T. Campbell's fine new residence is nearing completion and is one of the neatest dwellings in the city. Samuel Freeman, an old resident of this county, died in Indiana, whether he had gone in hopes of regaining his health.

Grafton Brevities.

GRAFTON, Neb., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Mrs. John Hinckley went to Ashland Tuesday to spend Thanksgiving. Rev. Mr. Smith of the Methodist church, assisted Rev. Mr. Thompson of Fairmont, is holding protracted meetings at Ashbury. Rev. Mr. Murphy of Doane college has been engaged to preach for the Congregationalists the coming year. The doctors report several severe cases of typhoid fever in the neighborhood. Misses Lulu Lytle and Maud Cobbs attended the Christian Endeavor convention at Shickley Friday and Saturday.

Wedded at Nebraska City.

NEBRASKA CITY, Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Harry Morgan and Miss Emma Smith were married this evening at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. Father Nugent officiating. The groom is principal of the Sixth street school, and the bride one of Nebraska City's most popular young society ladies and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Smith. The newly wedded couple left for St. Louis this evening.

Last August while working in the harvest field I became overheated, was suddenly attacked with cramps and was nearly dead. Mr. Cummings, the druggist, gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which completely relieved me. I now keep a bottle of the remedy handy. A. M. New Phase of Political Map Making Brought Out Forcibly.

REPUBLICANS SWEEP NINETEEN STATES

Only Thirteen Democrats in the House from Above the Mason and Dixon Line and Five of These from New York.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Not until today have the officials felt sufficient confidence in their unofficial list of representatives in the Fifty-fourth congress to send it to the printer. As finally prepared the list shows 244 republicans, 104 democrats and six populists, one silver representative and one seat vacant.

The republicans will constitute more than two-thirds of the house membership. Sectionally the republican majority will be divided as follows: New England states, twenty-six; old middle states, sixty-six; middle western states, ninety-two; far western states, twenty-eight; southern states, thirty-two.

The democrats secure only thirteen members in the northern states; California and Massachusetts contribute one each; Illinois, Ohio and Pennsylvania two each, and New York five. The democrats secure six solid state delegations, those of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi and South Carolina; the republicans secure nineteen solid delegations, those of Connecticut, Delaware, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Maine, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, Washington, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

In all twenty-eight contests may be made from the southern states, and a majority of them are to be contested by republican candidates against democrats, and there now appears a probability that there will not be so many. Mr. Myers, who it was expected would wage a contest for the seat from the Sixth Arkansas district, is now quoted as saying that he will make no effort to secure the seat in the face of the fact that his opponent is credited with 3,000 majority. Late advices also indicate that Lee Crandall will abandon the contest against General Wheeler for the Eighth Alabama district.

CHARGE GROSS FRAUDS.

Defeated South Carolina Populist Sling Mud at Senator Irbly and Gov. Tillman. COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 28.—In a petition to the general assembly asking for an investigation of the recent election which Dr. Sampson Pope, the defeated independent candidate for governor of South Carolina, has filed charges are made that United States Senator Irbly and Governor Tillman instigated frauds to secure the election of John Gray Evans, the Tillman candidate. The petition asserts that the polling places were barricaded and obstructed so that thousands of Pope voters were prevented from voting, that managers unlawfully rejected many Pope votes, that managers fraudulently abstracted Pope votes from the boxes and substituted Evans ballots. The petition declares "These frauds, intimidations and acts of violence committed by supervisors, managers and partisans of John Gray Evans were committed in very many cases at the instigation of certain county chairmen of the democratic party, who, in turn, received their instructions and orders for such action from John L. M. Irbly, chairman of the democratic state committee, and from Benjamin R. Tillman, governor of the state of South Carolina."

Accompanying this petition was a concurrent resolution that Dr. Pope be heard before each body of the general assembly, that he have witnesses summoned to prove his allegations and that the committee return for governor shall not be opened and tabulated.

AN APPEAL FROM MAYOR BEMIS.

OMAHA, Nov. 28.—To the Editor of the Bee: Information has come to me within the past few days from the most reliable sources—from politicians of integrity, who speak from actual observation—that the suffering among the farmers in the drought-stricken districts of our state is exceedingly severe. Families are on the verge of starvation; mothers have nothing in which to wrap their babes and have no clothing for themselves except dresses made from gunny sackings, underwear and shoes are almost unknown and fuel is a luxury only to be dreamed of. One of my informants, a clergyman, informs me that he has partaken of meals among these farmers where greens of potato tops and mouldy bread constituted the only food. I am fully aware that there is a great deal of suffering among our own people, but I believe that our citizens are entitled to a special effort to extend all possible assistance to the sufferers in our state outside of our own city. It would be a fitting manner of giving thanks for the blessings we are given, and descriptions and food of all sorts received for our citizens to contribute toward relieving the sufferings of these people. What is needed is a clearing of all kinds and descriptions and food of all sorts received for our citizens to contribute toward relieving the sufferings of these people. The governor has very wisely appointed a state relief commission, which is doing good work, and I suggest that our citizens work through our churches and schools by concentrating their contributions of all kinds of supplies at these points, and notifying the president of the state commission, Mr. W. N. Nason, who will give them the articles and see to their distribution. Let our people contribute liberally toward this object as a Thanksgiving offering. It will be a most substantial manner of giving thanks for the blessings we are given, and it will be in no way impoverish the giver. Any article would be appropriate, no matter how small. Let us remember that "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

GEORGE P. BEMIS, Mayor.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 27.—To the Editor of the Bee: Our commission has to date forwarded for relief purposes over twenty-five carloads of clothing and provisions, and yet the existing distress among western agriculturalists is far from being relieved. We know over 500 families who must be aided. Many of them are without fuel, shoes or sufficient clothing. It has been suggested that we call for contributions as a special call, to all the churches and citizens generally, to make a special Thanksgiving offering for this charity, every one bringing something—shoes, clothing, provisions of any kind, or money, to their respective places of worship, and let the pastor have some one receive their offerings, which will be sent for by a representative of this commission, and distributed in a manner that must be satisfactory to every citizen contributing to this worthy object, and prove a great blessing to the hard-working, honest farmers, and their families, who have become destitute by the unusual drought of this season. We solicit your hearty co-operation in efforts that will make Thanksgiving day, 1894, long to be remembered for the generosity of our citizens. Teachers of the public schools can also aid in this work. Yours very truly, W. N. NASON.

LIUTENANT WELSH RETIRED.

Adjudged Incapable from Nervousness and Allowed Three-Quarters Pay. CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—President Cleveland has approved and the War department issued an official order carrying into effect the finding of the army board in the case of First Lieutenant B. C. Welsh of the Fifteenth Infantry, United States army, who is ordered to be placed on the retired list on three-quarters pay on account of physical disability. According to the report of the retiring board convened to consider the action of Lieutenant Welsh in slapping the face of Colonel Crofton, his commanding officer during the field maneuvers at Evanston, Illinois, Welsh was pronounced to be sane, but found to be suffering with a severe nervous affection, which under any undue excitement would, in the opinion of the board, absolutely prevent his commanding troops successfully. He will engage in business, probably in Chicago.

SCHOOL THANKSGIVING.

Entertainment by the Children at the Leavenworth Building.

An ante-Thanksgiving program was carried out at the Leavenworth school yesterday afternoon which delighted a large crowd of parents of the pupils and other visitors. The pupils from the different rooms were assembled in the large hallway of the first story and they held excellent literary and musical exercises, reflecting great credit on the methods adopted by the principal and her efficient corps of assistants. Among those seeming to deserve especial mention in this connection were Eddie Bureh, who played a piano solo, Gracie Dursh and Florence and Minnie Miller. The vocal music by the whole school was really grand as the large chorus of voices filled the building.

The pupils of this school will eat their Thanksgiving dinners today with the zest of little people filled with the knowledge of having cast their bread upon the waters. Each of the pupils brought a contribution to school yesterday afternoon, from meat and bread to the most interesting part of the school. The teachers saw that the poor parents of some of their pupils were supplied with enough for a big dinner. The remainder of the contributions were turned over to Secretary Laughland of the Associated Charities, to be distributed among the deserving poor today. The teachers having charge of the general exercises at the Leavenworth school yesterday were: Mary A. Fitch, principal; Mary E. White, Louis B. Mann, Annie L. Gillis, Helen Thompson, Mabel Jensen, Mima C. Doyle and Margaret K. Boyd.

It is in the basement of this building is the most interesting part of the school. It is the kindergarten, under Director Minnie S. Jourdan, assisted by Edith Ous, Carrie Althous, Maggie Forgan, Georgia Parks, and Fannie Tibbitts. The children here are sixty-two bright, intelligent little ones, 5 and 6 years old, who have been studying in a practically illustrated manner the pilgrim's "our forefathers" after their landing on American shores until the first Thanksgiving or harvest feast. The little ones have thoroughly learned the story, and yesterday they enjoyed the harvest feast as a sort of preliminary to their feast of Thanksgiving turkey today. They were seated at a long, low table, arranged in banquet form, and before them were little plates filled with sandwiches, fruits, nuts and cakes, with which they were enjoying themselves, having no fear of dyspepsia and other kindred ailments. Lighted candles shed a soft radiance over the scene, lighting up their bright faces and causing their eyes to sparkle. At a signal from Miss Jourdan their voices were uplifted in a simple song of thanksgiving to Him from Whom all blessings flow. Then they made the good things disappear with interesting rapidity. These little people have been learning of the changes of the seasons and the preparations made by men, beasts and insects for winter. With their blocks and toy buildings they are able to repeat the whole story, and their work shows a thoroughness of instruction. A large number of visitors came to look in upon the kindergarten.
