WHAT MORE NEED BE SAID!

Read what Gen. John A. Halderman, Ex-United States Minister to Siam, writes about Paine's Celery Compound.

GEN. JOHN A. HALDERMAN

NEW YORK CITY, September 24, 1894.

I am glad to recommend Paine's celery compound to all wha feel the need of a prompt and efficacious remedy for nervous disorders, including the debility that follows prolonged work under high pressure. My experience justifies me in saying this:

When in consequence of the demands made upon my strength by official and personal business, my nerves were so weakened that I could not sleep, I took Paine's celery compound according to directions, and the results were more than satisfactory. I was enabled to sleep all night and instead of awakening tired and feeble I found myself refreshened and invigorated.

1 have discussed the merits of Paine's celery compound with some of my friends, and I am informed thay they have been cured by it of indigestion, rheumatism and kidney trouble. I know of no medicine so thoroughly entitled to the confidence of debilitated people, and I am not surprised to learn that the compound is a household remedy in every part of our country (General) JOHN A. HELDERMAN. Very truly yours,
