The game of foot ball between the High School Juniors and Council Bluffs Juniors yesterday afternoon resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 14 to 8. The playing by the High school boys was mainly through the line against a much heavier team.

At St. Paul's church this morning Mrs. O. H. Simons will sing the offertory solo. At 4 o'clock service the choir will render A. H. Mann's service, "A Fiat, and the Dudley Buck quartet will sing the hymn "This is the Lord's Own Day," by Kreutzer.

Preparations on a large scale are being made for the poultry and pet stock show, which opens in the Elmsman building this week. Over 100 coops of the newest and most improved type have been set up, and stock fanciers and owners are assured of a show that will be well worth seeing.

Mrs. C. A. Atkins will give a thimble tea at her home, 927 Second avenue, next Thursday from 2 to 6, for the benefit of the Christian home. She invites all ladies to come with their thimbles and a dime. During the evening a musicale and Gipsy cake will be given for the same purpose.

Conceivably, who is awaiting a trial in the district court on the charge of stealing $400 from Andy Rolan's safe, has entered into an agreement with the latter, by which Rolan's attorney, John M. Galvin, is to have that part of the money which Rolan failed to spend. Up to the present time the money has been in the custody of the city marshal.

Considerable complaint is being indulged in because of the alleged neglect of certain physicians to report cases of contagious diseases as promptly as they are required by law. The statutes in this regard are strict, and yet some of the doctors do not report cases of scarlet fever sometimes until forty-eight hours after they have found out the nature of the disease.

Charles Goff, a second-hand man, sold Mrs. Kelsey of Streetsville a stove. The stove turned out to be worse than the purchaser had anticipated, and a quarrel arose over the subject of the stove. Mr. Kelsey whacked him over the head with the broom and Goff retaliated. She then had him arrested for disturbing the peace. Goff gave bonds for his appearance in police court tomorrow morning.

Harvard and Pennsylvania could have gotten a good many pointers on scientific foot ball playing by watching the championship game, which took place yesterday morning at the corner of First avenue and Seventh street, between picked elevens from the Washington avenue and Bloomer schools. After a couple of hours of hot fighting and athletic criticism movements, the game was pulled in by the Bloomer school eleven, with a score of 12 to 4. The members of the Bloomer team were as follows: Captain, Ernest Rutherford; Earl Ingram, George Daily, Roy Hazen, Egbert Aylsworth, Rod Lanzendorfer, Edgar Harkness, Gilmore McCarval, Frank Hapale Harold Pardey and Aaron Lyman.

We have two nice six-room cottages on Avenue G, near Twenty-ninth street, which we will sell at a bargain. They have a bay window, good cellar, water in yard, large lot. Small payment down and balance in installments. Lounge & Towle, 235 Pearl street.
