

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS. OFFICE, - NO. 12 PEARL STREET.

Delivered by carrier to any part of the city. H. W. TILTON, Lessee. TELEPHONE-Office, No. 43; night editor, No. 2.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Erra Kendall comes to Dohany's theater next Monday night in "The Saboteur". The thirteenth annual ball of the Bluff City Typographical union will be given at Hono's hall Tuesday evening, December 25.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Rockman entertained a party of friends Tuesday evening at their residence on South Seventh street.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to Bert F. McCune, aged 22, and Frances Synge, aged 22, both of Council Bluffs.

The jury in the case of V. J. Drecholl against John Lindt, returned a verdict yesterday morning in favor of the plaintiff for the sum of $150.

The marshal's department arrested Charles and Kittle Lawson, Alexander Enix and Josie Long yesterday in the charge of keeping a house of ill repute.

Members of Auxiliary No. 17, U. V. L., are requested to meet the relief committee at the home of Mrs. Sherwood, 126 East Broadway, Friday at 1 o'clock.

The Council Bluffs High school foot ball team has just had its picture taken. For masculine beauty of the chrysanthemum top variety, it is hard to beat.

At Mrs. C. A. Atkins' musicale this evening for the benefit of the Christian home, Gypsy Madge will receive all who are anxious to penetrate the future.

Augusta Grove, Woodmen of the World, will give a masquerade ball to-morrow evening at Woodmen hall. Four prizes will be awarded those having the best masks.

F. R. Beck & Co. have filed a motion for a new trial in the case in which Peter C. Miller has just received a judgment of $500 against them for damages for late attachment.

Alva North, who was charged by his mother with stealing a horse belonging to a man named Collins, had a hearing before Justice Vign yesterday. The boy was discharged.

Ethelbert council No. 3, Degree of Pocomahs, will kindle the council fire at the seventh run and thirtieth breath in their temple, 103 Pearl street, on the sleep of sixth run, hunting moon, G. S. D. 403.

Judge Smith granted Clara Hankins a divorce yesterday from Marion Hankins, together with the custody of three children and $100 alimony. Both parties live at Underwood. The grounds upon which the divorce was granted were drunkenness and cruelty.

Charles Goff was fined $15 and costs in police court yesterday morning for using profane and obscene language while making a sale of a second-hand stove. A. C. Ellisworth, who used the same sort of means in collecting a bill for services he had rendered another man, was fined $10 and costs.

Yesterday Judge Smith issued an order for the county to provide an implement of code for court use. So far the county has had to be dependent on the charity of some of the lawyers, and the bailiff has had to submit to a great deal of wear and tear on his temper and foot gear while making his daily borrowing trips.

Thomas Opper commenced replevin proceedings in Justice Field's court yesterday for $50 worth of goods, an implement of code sent to a Denver man to be dressed. There was a difference of opinion as to the price to be paid. It was only a difference of $3, but that was enough, and the case will be tried a week from today.

Friends of the Conservatory of Music will be glad to hear that the first pupils' recital drew a crowd that completely filled the recital hall and both parlors of the residence, while dozens were unable to get into the house at all. The management have accordingly decided to repeat the program Saturday evening.

The funeral of James Kimball Fenner will take place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from his late residence, 744 Mill street, Rev. Stephen Phelps, D. D., officiating. He was born in Hartwick, Ohio county, New York May 1, 1836, and was married in Cedar Rapids, October 6, 1871, to Della Frances McDermott. He and his family moved here five years ago from their former home. He was a member of the Commercial Pilgrims of America and the Ancient Order of United Workmen. Three children are left, Dean K., Della F., and Channing G.

We have two nice six-room cottages on Avenue G, near Twenty-ninth street, which will sell at a bargain if taken at once. Bay window, good cellar, water in yard, large lot. Small payment down and balance in installments. Lougee & Towle, 235 Pearl street.

Last August while working in the harvest field I became overheated, was suddenly attacked with cramps and was nearly dead. Mr. Cummings, the druggist, gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy which completely relieved me. I now keep a bottle of the remedy handy. A. M. Bunnell, Centerville, Wash.

Library Party. Friday evening in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church. Sweet songs. Refreshments served. Admission only 20c. Come and bring your friends.

Sues for $5,000 Damages. Malcolm McKenzie is right after A. T. Rains, who has just issued a term of thirty days in the county jail for assaulting him. Both the men live in Silver Creek township, and there has been a feud of long standing between them. Last June McKenzie claims Rains met him and assaulted him with a club, and kept him confined in his bed for two months. He alleges in a petition which was filed in the district court yesterday that the injuries will be permanent and he wants a judgment of $5,000 against Rains.

Tombola sociable at Mrs. John T. Stewart's Thursday evening, December 6. All are invited. Members of St. Paul's please send packages Thursday morning. Admission, 25c.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Presbyterians Find a Balance Sheet that Pleases Them Immensely.

PROSPEROUS IN SPITE OF HARD TIMES.

Annual Meeting Reports Show the Church to Be Free from Debt and a Little Money Left in the Exchequer.

The First Presbyterian church held its annual meeting last Tuesday evening in the church parlors and heard reports from all the various societies connected with it. The report of the treasurer showed that the collections during the past year have amounted to $4,700. All the debts have been paid, including a debt of $450 that was left over from last year and there is a balance of $9 in the treasury. January 1 the church will enter upon the new year without owing a cent.

The Ladies' society has collected $640 by means of entertainments and the like. The Ladies' Missionary society has raised $150 which goes to the mission house in New York. An interesting report was read from the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, which is contributing largely to the support of Rev. P. L. Hayden, a missionary in Utah.

A new board of trustees was appointed to have charge of the church property, and is composed of F. H. Key, F. J. Day, S. B. Snyder, F. H. Hill, F. B. Warner and R. P. Officer. J. M. Flagler was re-elected treasurer and F. E. Hoagland secretary; the latter having held that position for more than twenty years. The newly elected deacons, whose duty it is to look after the poor of the church, are W. P. Officer, J. H. Love and W. S. Marshall.

Lutheran Convention. An interesting service was held yesterday at the rooms of St. John's English Lutheran church, 17 Pearl street, it being the second day of the convention of the western Iowa conference. Among the well known clergymen from out of the city who were present were: Rev. S. B. Barnitz, D. D., of Des Moines; Rev. A. J. Turkle, Rev. Luther M. Kuhns and Rev. J. N. Zimmer, of Omaha; Rev. A. B. Schrader of Nevada, and Rev. J. C. Jacoby of Newton. An address was delivered on "Christian Activity—Its Incentives," by Rev. J. C. Jacoby, and another on "Christian Nurture," by Rev. A. J. Turkle. In the evening Mr. Jacoby preached again. Today's session will close the conference. Rev. A. B. Schrader will speak on "City Evangelization," and Rev. Luther M. Kuhns on "Church Loyalty," at the afternoon session, and Mr. Jacoby will preach in the evening.

A. E. Kilpatrick of Fillmore, Cal., had the misfortune to have his leg caught between a cart and a stone and badly lacerated. Ordinarily he would have been laid up for two or three weeks, but says: "After using one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm I feel better, and in three days was entirely well. The peculiar soothing qualities which Chamberlain's Pain Balm possesses I have never noticed in any other liniment. I take pleasure in recommending it." This liniment is also of great value for rheumatism and lame back.

Cops Cheer and Herb Tonic. Can be purchased only of the G. R. Wheeler Bros. company, Wheeler & Herold, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Brother and Sister Dead. A letter received by Dr. Phelps tells of the death of a Council Bluffs young man, Mr. Andrew Donahay. He died at Phoenix, Ariz., on November 19, and was buried among the flowers at Los Angeles, Cal., where the family now are. A telegram closely followed the letter, announcing the death on Tuesday last of his sister, Miss Helen M. Donahay, one of Council Bluffs' choice young ladies, a graduate of the high school, a popular teacher in the Bloomer school, greatly beloved by her pupils and her large circle of friends. The family have the heart-warm sympathy of all in this new and double sorrow.

"Snow Bound" Fair. To be given by the ladies of the Congregational church at 18 Pearl street, December 6 and 7, is a new and novel affair. The only drawback is the small room. It is the best we could do, so we have been compelled to limit our ideas, but come and see our landscape views taken from "Snow Bound" and painted by our own artist, Mrs. C. P. Ralbeck. Then tarry awhile beside our open fireplace.

Or run the new knit stocking heel." If, perchance, you decide to dine with us, look well for the "elder sister" as she sits beside her and gives her needle her evening task to fulfill, and with her leave your quarter. Mrs. Haverstock, Mrs. Strook, with Mrs. Sawyer at the coffee table, will give you a turkey dinner Thursday noon. Chicken pie dinner Friday noon, with a good supper at 5 o'clock. The fancy work booth, under the skillful fingers of Mesdames Simons, E. E. Hart and Edmondson, is a "thing of beauty," while the confectionery booth with Mrs. Mary Waite and May Davenport is a "sweet and tasty spot." Come and see us.

Dry pine kindling for sale. Cheaper than cobs. H. A. Cox, 37 Main street. Telephone 48.

Eagle laundry, 724 Broadway, for good work. Tel. 157.

Farewell Party. Last evening the boarders of St. Francis' academy gave a farewell banquet to Miss Pat Fitzgerald, who leaves this evening for Dubuque to enter the novitiate of the Sisters of Charity of the B. V. M. All the class of '94, of which she was a member, were present, as well as several young ladies from the city. A very pleasant evening is reported.

Miss Jessie Clark, formerly with Mrs. Niles, is pleased to announce to her friends that she has started in business with Miss E. Wetzel at 337 Broadway. Will be stamping and take orders for art needle work.

Typewriter supplies at Findley's, 337 B'd'y.

Found a Wheel Thief. S. M. Williamson & Co. received notice yesterday of the capture of a young man named Frank Fred, who stole a bicycle from them September 21. He rented a wheel, and promised to bring it back the following day.

CAREER OF DOVIE COMSTOCK

She Began Social Existence at the Top and Ended it at the Bottom.

SAD AND BAD LIFE OF A BEAUTIFUL WOMAN

Was Twice Married and Once Divorced and Died in a Jail in Kansas—Some of the Men She Had

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—The death of Mrs. Edith Armstrong, better known as "Dovie" Comstock, in a Kansas jail ends a strange career of a beautiful but notorious woman.

She was the daughter of D. C. Forney, founder of the Washington Chronicle, and a niece of John W. Forney.

All those who knew "Dovie" Comstock in her childhood speak of her dainty beauty.

The fact—and all facts are popular—of the day is the razor-toed shoe for ladies. They will be still more popular when the ladies know that Byers is giving away the finest $5.00 shoe for $2.50.
