CORN OPENED IN SYMPATHY WITH WHEAT

Receipts of that Cereal Were Even Smaller Than the Small Estimate of Tuesday -Receivers and Elevator Men Were the Sellers.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.-Liberal selling and discouraging foreign markets weakened wheat today, May closing 1gc lower. May corn and oats closed unchanged and provisions declined moderately. There were still some fag ends of long wheat for sale when the market opened. They came out of many hands and were not wanted, ex-cept at a reduction of 1/4c from yesterday's close. The Liverpool market was reported as opening from 1sd to 1d lower. Minneapolis and Duluth receipts were 608 cars, compared with only 368 cars on the corresponding day last year. Another considera-tion of a weakening character was the government report on the amount of wheat fed to stock by farmers from harvest to December 1, which it was ascertained would be issued from Washington at 4 p. m. It was claimed to be ascertained that the amount so fed was 40,000,000 bu. New York wired that foreigners were selling some wheat at the opening there and exporters there and at St. Louis wired that there was a reduction on yesterday's bids for exportation of from to to 2c per bu. Ar-gentine was selling July wheat in New York. The opening price for May was from 60%c to 60%c, compared with from 60%c to the opening figures for about fifteen minutes, after which buying orders gradually worked prices up again until about 11:39 a. m. 60% was realized for two or three 5:00-bu. lots. The southwest sent buying orders. New York increased its export business of the day before to seventy boat loads taken there and sixty-three at out ports. The closing cables reported a great advance at Berlin, amounting to the equivalent of 1½c per bu, but the French and English markets were easier. New York sent selling orders on their insight into the weakening foreign feeling. Probably for every foreign order for 10,000 bu, received there New York sold 100,000 bu, here. The market became very weak on that selling and twenty minutes from the close the price was down to 59%c. It railled slightly, closing at 60%c.

The receipts of corn were even smaller than the small estimate yesterday. Notwithstanding the small receipts, the market opened off ½c in sympathy with the weakness in wheat at the same time. Receivers and elevator men were the sellers and the market continued to sag until the estimate for tomorrow's receipts was given at only 200 cars. From that time the price had an advancing tendency, shorts being the buyers, until the extreme closing weakness of wheat influenced some additional selling. The opening for May was 49%c, and it sold at 49%c before it commenced to retrace its steps. It touched 50c and closed at 49%c.

A very little business was transacted in 60% at the close yesterday. It kept around opening figures for about fifteen trace its steps. It touched soc and closed at 49%c.

A very little business was transacted in cats. Fluctuations were confined to a narrow range and entirely in sympathy with the movements of corn. May started at from 32½c to 32%c, sold at 32½c to 32%c, closing at 32%c.

Hog receipts numbering 52,000 head, against estimated yesterday of 44,000 head, gave the provision market a weak send off and the limpness of the wheat market kept the tone of the provision market heavy during the entire session. The declines in the speculative articles since yesterday are: January pork, 2½c; May, 5c; lard, 2½c in January and 5c in May, and 5c in both January and May ribs.

On the common and canning stuff the market was slow and prices barely steady. There was a better demand and a decidedly stronger market for fair to good veal calves. Bulls, oxen and stags, when fat, sold freely at a shade higher prices, but thin and rough stock showed no improvement.

The stocker and feeder market was active and stronger on fair to good stock, without much regard to weight, but slow and lower on poor stock cattle. Slop feeders were good buyers and yard traders displayed considerable activity, but the demand from the country was somewhat slack. Representative sales:

HOGS—Receipts today were somewhat heavier than dealers were anticipating, the supply being fully 2,000 heavier than 3 week ago. The quality of the offerings was very fair as a rule, receipts containing lots of good heavy hogs and not an excessive proportion of. light stuff and pigs. Buyers had the best of The situation from the start. Supplies were sample and other markets lower, so that sellers were generally prepared to concede the loc decline that the packers usually demanded, and trading was mostly on that basis. There were a few early scratch sales of good heavy hogs at from $4.50 to $4.60, but packers prices for fair to good heavy and heavy mixed hogs were from $4.25 to $4.40, and it took very good hogs to bring the latter figure. The market for light and light mixed stuff was like the hogs themselves, decidedly uneven. Common to choice stuff weighing from 160 to 200 ibs. brought from $3.90 to $4.30. Pigs were in rather limited supply, very fair demand and sold at from $2.55 to $1.75, according to weight end quality. The market weakened off for a time after the first round or two, but the xlose was firm. Fair to good hogs weighing around 200 ibs. and over sold largely at from $4.25 to $4.40 teday, as against from $4.40 to $4.50. Tuesday and $4.50 to $4.40 to $4.50. There Was More Vitality in the Cattle Trade Yesterday Than Usual. CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—There was more vitality in the cattle trade today than on yesterday or the day before. Receipts did not come up to ex-pectations. Good to prime steers sold strong to 19c higher than yesterday. The medium class of steers was not more than steady. Cows and steers was not more than steady. Cows and heifers were strong. There was also a good demand for stockers and feeders; prices ranged from $1.25 to $1.50 for rubbish to from $6.25 to $6.60 for extra quality Christmas steers. The market closed firm.

The hog market continued weak, with fresh receipts of something like $5,000 head. Opening prices were from 5c to 10c lower than yesterday's close, and the feeling was heavy throughout. Packers bought common to prime heavy hogs at from $4.25 to $4.65, and paid from $4.15 to $4.55 for common to choice light weights. There was a sale or two of fancy broad backs at $4.70, but sales at better than $4.60 were few and far between. From $4.40 to $4.45 hought most of the 200-lb, hogs, and from $4.55 to $4.65 the bulk of the heavier weights.

Activity and firmness continued the features of the sheep market. The receipts were liberal, but sellers were enabled to promptly dispose of those that had merit. Good to extra sheep were salable at from $2.55 to $4.60, and poorer qualities at from $2.50 to $4.60, and poorer quality were fair at from $2.50 to $4.60, and poorer quality were fair at from $2.50 to $4.60, and poorer quality were fair, and the prices $610c lower; supply in exceess of estimates; aloud 12.000 head; sheep, 15.000 head; left over, about 12.000 head; market moderately active, but prices $610c lower; supply in exceess of estimates; sales range at $3.0004.20 for light, $4.1507 for mixed, $4.350 to $2.50, and shipping lots, and $2.4074.00 for plays.

CATTLE—Receipts, 16.000 head; very fair demand at unchanged prices.

SHEEP—Receipts, 16.000 head; very fair demand; prices fair, and in some instances slightly leigher.
