

SHE WILL BE A KEEL BOAT

Designer Watson Turns Down the Center Board Scheme for the Challenger.

DETAILS ABOUT LORD DUNRAVEN'S YACHT

Secrecy Being Maintained as Far as Possible by Some Males Leaking Out in Spite of Precautions—Metal for Her Bottom.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Evening Post today says: Secrecy is likely to be maintained as long as possible as to the actual character of the yacht that will be sent to this country next year for the America's cup, except that at least one of her dimensions will be made public on the receipt of the challenge next week.

MONROE SALISBURY GET BACK

Order of Expulsion of the Fleetwood Club Changed to a Fine of $100.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—At the conclusion of the boat race today the Salisburies-Fleetwood tangle and the Hare-Detroit Driving club middle were decided. Following was the board's decision in the case of the Driving Club of New York against Monroe Salisbury. Nothing, in the judgment of the board, occurred to authorize or justify the removal of the mare Expressive from the grounds before the conclusion of the race. It was held that the fact that the offense, which is of the gravest character, participation of turf law by the association, the expulsion is removed and a fine of $100 imposed, the defendant Salisbury, is suspended until it is paid. Salisbury had removed the mare Expressive from the grounds before the conclusion of the race. It was held that the fact that the offense, which is of the gravest character, participation of turf law by the association, the expulsion is removed and a fine of $100 imposed, the defendant Salisbury, is suspended until it is paid.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

HAVE FIXED UPON HAWARD

Business Confidant of Miss Ging and His Brother Arrested.

EVIDENCE AGAINST THEM UNEARTHED

Two Men Found Who Claim to Have Seen the Murderer and His Victim on the Night of the Murder.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—The Catherine Ging murder mystery is still unsolved. The newspapers and the police have followed up every clew with unremitting energy only to find themselves up against the stone wall of mystery that hides the identity of Miss Ging's companion. The work of piecing the torn note together with Miss Ging received and tore to fragments on the morning of the day she met her death, has progressed, but is not yet done. The waste basket contained the fragments of a number of business communications, and the puzzle is an intricate one. It has, however, been partially fitted together on which the words "I will not marry you" are discernible. These words lead confirmation to the theory that the murder was due to passion or quarrel rather than robbery, and that the money on her person at the time that she was shot was $7,000 to $10,000, was taken as an attempt to obscure the motive for the deed.

RAMACCIOTTI WILL CASE

Testimony in Court of the Ordinary and Extraordinary

The contents of the will of Mrs. Mary E. Ramacciotti, being heard in Judge Amos's court. The testimony is attracting considerable attention, particularly among the attorneys of the city, as there are some new features connected with the case.

Witnesses have been called to show that the deceased underwent an entire change in character and disposition during the last few years of her life. She was a modest and retiring woman, who took no action upon inhibition against American cattle for foreign countries, especially Germany. Chicago leads in the number present, and every one of her delegates is aggressive upon the export matter. The exchange was called to order a little after noon by President W. H. Thompson of Chicago, and the preliminary work of greeting, appointment of committees, etc., was soon disposed of.

The question of the war upon American life by foreign countries came early to the front by the introduction of a memorial to congress with relation to the existing state of affairs. Its reading was met with manifest signs of approval by the entire delegation, and, from outward appearance, seemed to express the consensus of opinion of the delegates. The reading of the paper was preceded by an explanation of its purpose, viz: "The obtaining of relief through congress from the unfortunate embargo placed upon a few American products, notably live stock, dressed beef and hog products, by a tariff act upon raw and refined sugars from Germany, France, Belgium, Denmark and Austria, thus practically closing the market to a continuance of which means disaster to the farming and live stock interests of this country."

The paper goes on: "From 1890 to a very recent date have enjoyed a large business with those countries, particularly Germany and France. This was undoubtedly because up to the enactment of the United States tariff act upon raw sugar. Under those conditions those countries could well afford to devote their farm lands to their efforts to produce raw sugar for exportation and depend almost entirely upon us for their animal food supply. Heretofore we have been enabled to send out products to them, which are sold at a profit to us, and refined sugar to us. The recent placing of a tariff on raw sugar has destroyed this commerce, and it is an unjust and arbitrary act to impose these duties upon us. The tariff measures in relation to the exportation of sugars, and in general, have been a great injury to our people, and so long as our present tariff law on sugar remains in force. The excuse which is given for this foreign tariff is that their action in excluding our animal products is on account of Texas fever, but this is understood to be a mere subterfuge. From the fact that the countries of Germany, France, Belgium and Austria have not discovered an unhealthy animal among all the cargoes which we have exported, it is a fair inference that the disease, if it existed, the right inspection in this country which is given to all such products before shipment abroad is sufficient guaranty of their purity and healthy condition of the animals and products, especially when coupled with the fact that only the best grades of cattle and dressed beef are exported. The motive of this claim of the foreign countries mentioned is found in the fact of our placing this prohibitory tariff upon raw sugar, and in the fact that this tariff is being removed or modified at once, we know that there would be no further fault found with our cattle and hogs. We urge that the action of congress in removing this tariff be repealed and that on raw sugar, and the modifying of that on refined sugar, thus restoring our pleasant commercial relations with these countries, and the industries of this country will be very greatly benefited, as our home consumption is not sufficient to absorb the surplus, small percentage annually of what we raise. Millions of dollars worth of cattle and hogs and their products have been exported annually to Germany, France, Belgium and other countries, and unless the existing embargo is raised promptly from our live cattle, dressed beef and hog products, the loss to our people means great and irreparable injury to us."

The paper, as well as numerous others, was referred to the proper committee.

NEW THEATER CERTAIN

Mr. Crawford Says it is Only a Question of Time Before the New Theater is Begun.

Mr. L. M. Crawford, leasee of the Crawford circuit of theaters, was found in Manager Burgess's office at the Empire theater last evening. Mr. Crawford emphatically stated: "We are going to have a new theater in Omaha. I am negotiating with a number of parties and will decide as soon as I can make up my mind as to which proposition and location is the best. My idea of a theater in Omaha is that it shall be modern in all its appointments and with a large seating capacity, not less than 2,000. This will enable us to cater to the masses and give them entertainment at prices within their reach. It will be a grand thing for the city and I am sure that the people will be able to secure the very best attractions. My business in Omaha, under the able management of Mr. Burgess, has been remarkably successful, and I am convinced that with a new house we would do a larger business than ever."

Mr. Crawford controls what is known as the Crawford circuit which embraces Kansas City, Leavenworth, Atchison, Lawrence, Topeka, Wichita, Denver and Omaha.

Death of a Deadwood Miner

SIoux FALLS, S. D., Dec. 6.—(Special.) Word comes from Deadwood of the death of a miner. Whitehead, a cave-in in the Holy Terror mine. Whitehead was at work about thirty feet down in a new tunnel, and without warning he was struck by a heavy timber about twenty feet above. Other miners went at once to work, and urged on the miner to get out, but he refused to leave. He was completely buried, and the men fled for their lives. This time the unfortunate miner was completely buried, and the men fled for their lives. This time the unfortunate miner was completely buried, and the men fled for their lives.

Chief and Detectives Sent to Jail

SAL LAKE, Dec. 6.—For refusing to furnish the grand jury with names in connection with a certain scandal published some time ago involving some society women in the city, the police department and Detectives Sheets and Ferguson were today committed to the jail. They will be held until the names are given or until the further order of the court. The case was continued to tomorrow on the corpus proceedings.

Fortune Hunted Him Up

GUTHRIE, Okl., Dec. 6.—C. A. Handes, the Boston man who has been in the territory for the past fortnight in search of his brother, Henry, who had fallen heir to $100,000, was today reported to have been where he was working for a cattle man. He had been some from home ten years ago, and during that time served as a section hand, dishwasher and barkeeper. He will immediately return to Boston.

Cannot See the Books

STOCK MEN ASK FOR RELIEF

Europe's War Against American Meats Having a Serious Effect.

ASK CONGRESS TO REMOVE THE CAUSE

Meats from This Country Have Had a Large Sale in the Countries which Now Shut Them Out and the Market Must Be Recovered.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 6.—The delegates to the meeting of the National Live Stock exchange arrived today prepared for a session of hard work. The main purpose of the delegates to this meeting, judging from the nature of the proposals which they take action upon, inhibition against American cattle for foreign countries, especially Germany. Chicago leads in the number present, and every one of her delegates is aggressive upon the export matter. The exchange was called to order a little after noon by President W. H. Thompson of Chicago, and the preliminary work of greeting, appointment of committees, etc., was soon disposed of.

The question of the war upon American life by foreign countries came early to the front by the introduction of a memorial to congress with relation to the existing state of affairs. Its reading was met with manifest signs of approval by the entire delegation, and, from outward appearance, seemed to express the consensus of opinion of the delegates. The reading of the paper was preceded by an explanation of its purpose, viz: "The obtaining of relief through congress from the unfortunate embargo placed upon a few American products, notably live stock, dressed beef and hog products, by a tariff act upon raw and refined sugars from Germany, France, Belgium, Denmark and Austria, thus practically closing the market to a continuance of which means disaster to the farming and live stock interests of this country."

The paper goes on: "From 1890 to a very recent date have enjoyed a large business with those countries, particularly Germany and France. This was undoubtedly because up to the enactment of the United States tariff act upon raw sugar. Under those conditions those countries could well afford to devote their farm lands to their efforts to produce raw sugar for exportation and depend almost entirely upon us for their animal food supply. Heretofore we have been enabled to send out products to them, which are sold at a profit to us, and refined sugar to us. The recent placing of a tariff on raw sugar has destroyed this commerce, and it is an unjust and arbitrary act to impose these duties upon us. The tariff measures in relation to the exportation of sugars, and in general, have been a great injury to our people, and so long as our present tariff law on sugar remains in force. The excuse which is given for this foreign tariff is that their action in excluding our animal products is on account of Texas fever, but this is understood to be a mere subterfuge. From the fact that the countries of Germany, France, Belgium and Austria have not discovered an unhealthy animal among all the cargoes which we have exported, it is a fair inference that the disease, if it existed, the right inspection in this country which is given to all such products before shipment abroad is sufficient guaranty of their purity and healthy condition of the animals and products, especially when coupled with the fact that only the best grades of cattle and dressed beef are exported. The motive of this claim of the foreign countries mentioned is found in the fact of our placing this prohibitory tariff upon raw sugar, and in the fact that this tariff is being removed or modified at once, we know that there would be no further fault found with our cattle and hogs. We urge that the action of congress in removing this tariff be repealed and that on raw sugar, and the modifying of that on refined sugar, thus restoring our pleasant commercial relations with these countries, and the industries of this country will be very greatly benefited, as our home consumption is not sufficient to absorb the surplus, small percentage annually of what we raise. Millions of dollars worth of cattle and hogs and their products have been exported annually to Germany, France, Belgium and other countries, and unless the existing embargo is raised promptly from our live cattle, dressed beef and hog products, the loss to our people means great and irreparable injury to us."

The paper, as well as numerous others, was referred to the proper committee.

Verdict of Not Guilty

The jury in the case of Estelle and T. J. Mahoney returned a verdict of not guilty for the plaintiffs for $600. The attorneys claimed $900 for defending Barney McGinn and George Dodrill, two men charged with the murder of Mahoney. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty for the plaintiffs for $600. The attorneys claimed $900 for defending Barney McGinn and George Dodrill, two men charged with the murder of Mahoney.

Verdict of Not