They Oppose the Movement, Regarding It

Just at this time the wholesale and retail iquor dealers of the state are being flooded with circulars from an Indiana concern which styles itself as the Brewers' and Saloon Keepers' Mutual Aid and Benefit Associaton of America, with headquarters in South Bend. An agent of the concern manages to secure the names of the liquor dealers, and then follows a lot of circulars, soon as follows, and is signed by the secretary: "The grand lodge having taken under adsement the string at laws against the liquor traffic in your state, have concluded to organize the entire liquor trade, and have ssued a special fee for Nebraska.

"Those desiring a policy, as shown in our printed circulars, shall take the local medical examination papers to a reputable physician, pay him not exceeding $1.50 for examination, and leave with him 50 cents more for the grand medical fee, and forward $1 policy fee, with application properly filled out.
