NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS

Citizens Express Themselves Plainly Concerning the Seventh Street Matter. DEMAND THAT MAYOR CLEVER VETO IT

Committees Appointed by the Mass Meeting at the Court House Last Night Will Watch the Fight to the End Tonight.

A meeting of the city council is to be held this evening, at which Mayor Clever will, it is said, present his veto to the ordinance vacating South Seventh street in favor of the Rock Island Railway company.

There was only one standing order in the south wing of the court house last night when the citizens gathered to protest against the action of the city council in closing South Seventh street and giving it to the Rock Island railroad.

Until you see what you can buy with a little money in the shoe line, it is not worth the price as they are tempered to the shoe pocket-books.

Men's cork sole shoes, for street wear, for $1.50, $2, and $3. Stacy-Adams men's cork shoes, $4. All styles men's good shoes for $2.50.

W. B. Proctor, who lives at 229 South Seventh street, was placed under arrest yesterday by an officer from Omaha, and is now in the city jail awaiting requisition papers in order that he may be taken to Butler county, Nebraska.

Mr. Everett thought that a committee should also be appointed to wait upon some of the local newspapers and torture them into an expression of opinion on the subject.

Remember the Brownie entertainment at Dehany's church parlors. A good program is provided and dainty refreshments will be served. The women are especially invited to see how well the men can keep house.

At yesterday's meeting of the County Board of Supervisors a lot of back taxes were cancelled off the books of the county treasurer.

the florist, divides attention with the finest flowers on exhibition. The display is confined to the west window, and the narrow limits, it is a most remarkable exhibition of beauty, skill and magnificent plants.

Frank Guandella's petting show was brought to the city yesterday morning, and all day long held a levee in a vacant store building on Main street.

Some uncharitable people have even gone so far as to speak of the fact that Frank Guandella is the cement business as well as the sand bank business, and hint that it is as easy to make a cement man as a cement curb.

Men's felt boots and overs, $1.25. Boys' felt boots and overs, $1.25. B. M. DUNCAN, 28 Main and 27 Pearl sts., Council Bluffs, Ia.

WILSON HAD MONEY TO BURN

Iowa Horticultural Society's Treasurer Resents the Imputation of Dishonesty.

PRUDCES THE FUNDS UNEXPECTEDLY. Hands the Presiding Officer of the Convention a Roll of Greenbacks and Demands a Receipt and Exonerates.

DES MOINES, Dec. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—The treasury of the State Horticultural society convention was relieved today by a sensational incident. Silas Wilson of Atlantic, their retiring treasurer of the organization, arose and, placing a solid pile of greenbacks as large as a paving brick on the chairman's table, said in a voice trembling with emotion that the amount of the money was $2,500.44; that it represented in cash every unexpended dollar of the funds which had come into his hands, including the money that he had unfortunately lost in a bank robbery; that from what had been said by certain enemies of his in regard to the committee report on his management of the fund and the subsequent action of the society, his connection with it must cease until it expressly and formally vindicated his honor as the Iowa horticultural treasurer, and proceeded to pass resolutions in accordance with Wilson's demands. The remainder of the session was devoted to discussion of papers on horticultural topics.

IOWA SHIPPERS VICTORIOUS.

Railroads Required to Make a More Complete Showing of Their Tariffs. DES MOINES, Dec. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—Messrs. Smith, Campbell and Frouty, representing the Iowa shippers, appeared before the railroad commissioners today to discuss the question of the date of the final hearing of railroad rates. After some discussion December 27 was fixed as the date. The attorneys for the shippers submitted the situation. The commissioners have required the companies to submit the indictment against the freight tariff that was at first made, and the tariff, so far as examined, show numerous places where the rates were in violation of the schedule. Thus they are able to meet the railway men on their own ground and prove that no advance is properly demanded.

Van Leuven in Hot Water.

DURQUE, Dec. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—Without waiting to hear from the government, and after an elaborate argument by Erwin, Judge Shiras overruled the motion to dismiss the indictment against Pension Agent Van Leuven for conspiracy with John Rankin to bribe the board of examining jurors at Cresco, Iowa. The board of examining jurors, for the defense, dwell on the national obligation to the soldier and the severe policy adopted by Commissioner Lochren. Then Van Leuven took the stand and denied the story wholly. Mr. E. O'Connell of Fort Dodge secured the pension agent's testimony in the opening argument, and the verdict was largely condoned by the special examiners and an appeal to the soldier settled.

Collided with a Head of Cattle.

SIoux CITY, Dec. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—A remarkable railway accident is reported from Sloan, thirty miles southeast to the Sioux City & Pacific, last night. The St. Paul and Kansas City limited, while running at the rate of fifty miles an hour, ran into a herd of twenty-five cattle and killed twenty-two of them. The train plowed right through and the passengers only felt a slight shock.

Supreme Court Decisions.

DES MOINES, Dec. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—The following decisions were handed down by the supreme court today: Frank M. Bethel against W. E. Otley, appellant, and Edith Otley, defendant, reversed. W. H. Grove, appellant, against L. G. Allen, defendant, affirmed. Sarah E. Dunning, plaintiff, against John H. Kramber et al, appellants; Levereite Dunning against John Kramber et al, appellants; Sylvia Dunning Thayer against John H. Kramber et al, appellants, Allamakee district, reversed. State of Iowa against M. Pennington, appellant, Johnson district, affirmed. L. Knebel and J. J. Tracy against O. D. Wilson, appellant, Harrison district, affirmed. State of Iowa against Guy Helm, appellant, Keokuk district, appeal from conviction of murder in second degree of the Walter Clark and from sentence to state's prison for twenty years. The murder was committed near Fremont, October 1, 1892. The accused was refused bail after said conviction. Reversed. Amount of bail now required was fixed by the supreme court at $500.

Avoided Judge Lynch.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Dec. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—Officers of Fayette county passed through here today going to Marion, where they placed Will Smith and Frank Dorland in the county jail for safe keeping. Tuesday night, during a drunken quarrel near West Union, the men killed a young fellow named Nelson, stabbing him in fifteen or twenty places, and seriously wounded his brother. There was great indignation in Fayette county where the men lived, and threats of lynching were freely made. Fearing the men might be mobbed the officers striking them to the city as a precaution against such a procedure.

Poland Chinas Bring Good Prices.

SHENANDOAH, Ia., Dec. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—Woodford Bros., proprietors of the Maple Leaf Stock farm, held today their annual sale of Poland China hogs. Many breeders were present from other states, as well as different portions of Iowa. Two hundred hogs were sold, and the average was $83 per head, while one brood sow brought $205.

State Several Hundred Dollars.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Dec. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—W. I. Black, who has charged the monthly magazine published by the Children's Home Society, admitted today that one of the general agents, who lives in Philadelphia, is an embezzler to the extent of several hundred dollars, the exact amount not being known.

Killed by a Flying Sash.

PERRY, Ia., Dec. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—A fatal accident occurred this evening in Harper's saw mill. A piece of a sash caught in the saw and was thrown quite a distance, striking Harry Hethcox, aged twenty-four years of age, killing him instantly. Charles Harper was badly injured by the same timber.
