The Ganymede Wheel club held a meeting last evening, and elected Ed L. Duquette to the office of treasurer, to take the place vacated by O. G. Drew.

Rev. E. W. Allen announces that stories entered in the "Mirror" prize competition may be handed in as late as January 5, two weeks later than the time originally set.

At the 4 o'clock service at St. Paul's church this afternoon the following music will be sung: "Cantate Domino" and "Deus Miserateur" in C, by Goss, by the choir; offertory tenor solo, "Comfort Ye," from Handel's Messiah, by I. M. Treynor.

The Girls' Industrial school has secured permanent quarters in the old Danebo hall at the corner of Main street and Broadway. The sewing school will be conducted there regularly, commencing next Saturday. To-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the third annual Christmas entertainment will be given

There was no citizens' meeting at Grand hotel yesterday afternoon to hear the report of the committee to which was referred the question of accepting the proposition of James Allingham relating to location of a boiler works here. The com-mittee has decided to let the matter rest with Kimball Bros., and no action further than this will be taken by the citizens.

Thomas Crow of Underwood was before the commissioners of insanity yesterday for an examination. He is suffering from a mis-taken impression that he is heir to a large estate near Philadelphia, and at times is very violent. He caused a great deal of trouble when first taken to the county jail Friday evening, but yesterday was more quiet. He was ordered taken to St. Bernard's hospital for treatment.

The Granite Monthly, a magazine published at Concord, N. H., in its December issue con-tains a writeup of Kingston, N. H., in which appears a photograph of Charles Burr Towle, one of the well known business men of this city. Mr. Towle was born in Kingston, which is a typical New England village more than 200 years old, and paid a visit to his old home last summer, finding everything much the same as when he left it years be-fore.

The annual report of the city schools of Council Bluffs has just left the printers and is now being circulated over the country. It is a pamphlet of 120 pages, well getten up, typographically and otherwise. Besides con-taining the reports of the superintendent, president of the board and committees, it gives a list of the teachers and the graduates from 1871 to 1894. It also contains photogravures of a number of the city school buildings.

A team belonging to "Dandy" Dunn with a hack attached ran away yesterday morning about 5 o'clock and landed in a ditch on East Pierce street near the Canning cut. The pole of the hack was broken off short and the vehicle otherwise damaged. A report was circulated all over the city that a man was lying dead underneath the hack, and a numdles, worth $2.50, for Monday, $1.89.
