The hungs become engorand and heavy; the blood vessels are distended, but the air cells still contain an. This stage of the disease is soon followed by a more alarming one in which the lungs become the color of liver tissue. This is because there is exaded into the air cells and tissues of the lung a thick and sticky mass, which soon hard-ens and causes the affected parts to become firm-ly consolidated. The air cells are now entirely closed. The blood vessels are presed upon by this viscid mass and the lung substance, being sublidified, becomes brittle and sinks in water. The proper way to treat pneumonia is prevent its development. Have a care that you are sufficiently clad to meet inclement and changeable weather. See that the wet feet and exposure to draughts do not re-sult in cold. If a cold is contracted check it at ones before pneumonia is developed; for it is a well known fact that a protracted cough may suddenly develop into pneumonia, with a slight additional cold. Don't let the discuss make any headway. Fortify the system against it by rich, nutritions, liquid food, This can be accomplished in no other way so well as by the liberal use of Ozomulsian, an ozonized preparation of Cod Liver Oil will Guained, which can be obtained of Kuhn & Co. Omnha, Taken can't when the first symptoms of the cold appear, it cures it prompily and preveats the development of pneu-monia. It is a rich, nutritions, liquid food, and it is a well known fact that strong food is the most formidable foe of pneumonia, it keeps the blood well nourished and puts the tissues in such a condition that they are able to throw off the cold. This scientific preparation is charged with ozone and thus supplies the oxygen necessary in the promets of the strong food is the promet. general. These, then, in general congrega-tion held on Wednesday, June 20, 1894, con-firming a decision previously made as to the aforementioned societies, decreed that all the ordinaries throughout the United States must in every way strive to keep the faithful from becoming members of any of the said societies, and must not fail to adthe said soleties, and must not fail to ad-monish their people to that effect, and that any thus admonished must be debarred from the sacrament should they fail to abandon or keep aloof from the same societies. This decree his holiness confirmed, and gave it complete effect. It is therefore communicated to your excellence, that through you is may

GENERAL DENNIS DEAD.

Passed Away at Boston Yesterday-Sketch of His Career.

General John B. Dennis, formerly of this city, and for a long time connected with the United States internal revenue department, died at Boston yesterday, to which place he went some months ago, hoping that the climate and the scenes of his boyhood days might be beneficial to his health, which had been failing for some years. Although the general was more than 60 years of age, the immediate cause of his death was heart trouble, complicated with rheumatism and dropsy, originally incurred by exposure durog the war. General Dennis was a native of the Bay state and was one of the first men to re-spond to Lincoln's call for troops, he having gone out as a private in the Sixth regiment from that state. But he did not remain in the ranks for any great period of time, as he received promotion after promotion until he was commissioned as a brigadier general. After the close of the war he returned to his native state, eventually going to Yankton, S. D., as collector of internal revenue, a po-sition which he held for some years, and un-til the Yankton office was abolished, when that state was consolidated with Nebraska that state was consolidated with Nebraska in one district and the office removed to this city. At that time General Dennis was made chief clerk of the Omaha office, a position which he held until his health failed. He was a member of Crock post, Grand Army of the Republic, of this city, and was one of the three members who last spring were too feeble to take part in the memorial ex-ercises, although he was there baying been taken out in a carriage by Dr. Stone. The other two were "Father" Keppler and Captain Gardner.

The general carried several scars as mementoes of his army service and at the time of his death he was receiving a pen-sion of $72 per month, it having been in-creased from $29 per month through the efforts of his old comrades in this city.

Blakely for Fijl, put into port this after-noon in distress. She encountered the re-cent terrific storm off the northern coast. On the loth inst., when forty miles south-west of Cape Flattery, she ran into a hur-ricane, which hung on for three days. It carried away her foretop gallant mast, with all attachments, and her jibboom and sails. Her deck load was also shifted. The Court-ney Ford reports that yesterday, when off the Farallons, she sighted the schooner John F. Miller, with her sails apparently blown away. It is believed that within the com-ing week the real damage done at sea by the recent gale will be known. Election Corruption at St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 26 .- The grand jury to day made its final report to Judge Edmunds of the criminal court. The report, which is in relation to the recent election, is of a sensational character. In the batch of 173 true bills returned over fifty are for elec-tion crimes. Included in these are indict-ments charging Bherlff-elect Henry Troll and his son, Charles, who is a deputy in Collector Seiglenheim's office, with bribery. These two politicians, together with James Haggerty of the house of delegates, are the most prominent ones against whom true bills were found. The other indict-ments are against unimportant persons. day made its final report to Judge Edmunds nents are against unimportant perso.

Big Failure at Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 26.-The big notion and fancy goods store known as the Fair was closed by the sheriff this afternoon was closed by the sheriff this afternoon. The foreclosure of three mortgages amounted to $22,500. This represents the home indebtedness only. The other claims against the firm outside of the city are not known, but are probably large. Sam-uel Thanhauser, who with his sons, Frank and Abraham, composed the firm, was ap-pointed consul to Matamoras, Mexico, by President Cleveland, but resigned six months ago. months ago.
