

$300,000 DRY GOODS FIRE BOSTON STORE SPECIAL SALE

Jeffrey's Six-Story Dry Goods House on Fire in New York.

Two Floors in a Blaze Before the Firemen Could Begin—Two Lower Floors and Contents Saved by Hard Work.

The annex to E. S. Jeffrey & Co.'s big dry goods establishment, 210 Broadway, New York, caught fire at 9:30 at night, and silks, dress goods, hosiery, underwear and other goods and merchandise to the value of $300,000 were in the flames...

The shaft carried the fire up to the sixth floor very quickly, and soon that was ablaze. Flames then burst from every window in the upper stories, and the fire spread to the second floor, but leaving the basement, first, and second floors, in pretty good condition...

The loss on the upper floors was almost total. The goods in the basement, first floor and second floor were, however, but slightly damaged by smoke and water.

TOLD FROM CHURCH PULPITS

Rev. Leard of Knox Church Talks on Practical Thoughts.

DUTIES OF CHRISTIAN MEN AND WOMEN. The Wisdom of the Serpent and the Harmlessness of the Dove Are Things Which Are Needed—Forecasts of the Pulpits.

In a recent discourse entitled "Practical Thoughts," Rev. Asa Leard, the pastor of Knox Presbyterian church, dwelt at length upon the duties of Christians, after which he devoted some time to detailing the work which fell to the lot of the twelve apostles.

For their names are recorded. Here they are for their names. I wonder if they would stand the test before the church for ordination today. I think somebody would say: "Why that Judas is thief, and Peter will disgrace the church with his denial and profanity."

What are we to preach about? The kingdom. All about the kingdom; its subjects, its laws, its conditions and above all its King. This is the true philosophy of benevolence, and that which should be the basis of our lives.
