

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

OFFICE, NO. 15 PEARL STREET.

Delivered by carrier to any part of the city.

H. W. TILTON, Lessee.

TELEPHONE—Business office, No. 4; night editor, No. 2.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Council Bluffs & Lake Manawa Motor Line Has Struck a Snag.

TERMINALS AT THE LAKE THE TRUCBLE

Ben Marks and the Company Unable to Agree on the Price of the Land Owned by the Former and Wanted by the Latter.

MINOR MENTION.

Grand hotel, Council Bluffs, reopened Oct. 1. Mayne Real Estate agency, 539 Broadway.

Grace Sunday school will have their Christmas tree decorated this evening in the guild room of the church.

Miss Matheson has received word of the death of his sister, Sherman Jewett, at Hartford, Conn. The remains will be buried there at Monday.

The "Charity Ball" is the attraction for this evening at Dobany's opera house. This is one of Frohman's best plays, is presented by an excellent company and the opera house should be crowded.

Harmony Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, held a public installation of officers last evening, followed by a supper and dancing. Quite a number of friends of the order were present.

Chief Hough used a lot of profane and obscene epithets on the street last evening in expressing his scorn for the officers.

John Short went to Omaha Monday afternoon and is sitting in a crowd of people on a street corner with one of his harangues when the police gathered him in. He was released after considerable trouble in hustling him to the station.

A number of drunken rowdies upset a five-gallon can of gasoline in front of P. Gunnada's store on Lower Main street last night. The damage was slight. The fire department had to be called out in order to prevent the frame buildings in the vicinity from being ignited. The damage was slight.

The champion players of the Council Bluffs Whist club will go to Sioux City next Tuesday to take part in the interstate tournament. Some of the "stay at homes" are getting a good deal of practice on the fact that within the past few days some of them have succeeded in winning some of the champions, who have been doing a good deal of practicing.

Rev. E. W. Allen returned yesterday from a trip of ten days to Buffalo, N. Y. He has received a call to become the pastor of a church in that city.

Some of the members of the church who were tempted on to an ambitious young man, as he would have a wealthy church backing him in his efforts. Council Bluffs will afford to pay the salary of the pastor, hoping of his congregation and friends is that he may decide to remain here.

We have $400,000 to loan upon improved farms in Iowa and will take all the gilt-edged loans offered at low rates. We do not want any other security. Write to us at Omaha. Lougee & Towle, 235 Pearl street.

Domestic soap breaks hard water.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

J. S. Halbert has gone to Lincoln to spend the winter.

Mrs. Dr. Hearty of Dunlap is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Neppel.

Miss Thos. W. McMillan is in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. E. Mayne.

D. L. Garrison expects to leave shortly for a southern trip, accompanied by Ed McKee.

Miss Werdna Keller of Hot Springs, S. D., is visiting in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Meiss.

Mrs. W. P. Sapp has returned from an eastern trip, accompanied by Mrs. Nellie Bangs Shelton of Chicago.

Chief Nicholson of the fire department is a grandfather, a ten-pound son having arrived at the home of the chief yesterday.

J. Lee, who has until recently been doing reporter work on the Globe, has gone to Chicago and his place is now filled by Fred M. Loomis, lately of the Lincoln News.

Justice H. H. Field has received a letter announcing the election of his son-in-law, Mayor W. M. Geddis of Grand Island, to a position of clerk of the Nebraska house of representatives.

J. E. Barstow has returned from Huntington, Ore., and is a guest of his brother, Dr. J. M. Barstow, for a few days. He has been having much trouble with his eyes, and it is feared that another amputation will be necessary.

B. Curtis of Chicago, representing the firm of Camp Bros. of that city, is the guest of Dr. P. J. Montgomery and family.

Last evening a number of music lovers were invited in to hear a singing. He has a fine baritone voice, and the songs he sang were greatly enjoyed by those who heard him.

Bouricis' music house has few expenses; high grade pianos are sold reasonably. 116 Sutsman street.

Ground oil cake $1.20 hhd. at Morgan & Co.'s drug store, 134 Broadway.

Second Assembly.

The grand hotel was the scene of a brilliant affair Monday night, the second assembly of the season. A large crowd of the select gathered there and danced the hours away merrily to the music of a fine orchestra.

The ladies were charmingly gowned, the decorations of ferns, holly, red and white chrysantheums, and a trim, all the arrangements so well planned that the evening was one of rare enjoyment from the first dance to the "home" waltz.

The following were present: Messrs. and Madames Don Macrae, Dr. L. Ross, Frank Wright, J. N. Baldwin, E. J. Gilbert, Graves, C. T. Stewart, E. W. Hart, Will Wyman of Omaha; Messadmes Lyman, Will Wyman of Omaha; Messadmes Montgomery, Babcock, Butts, Casady, Wickham, Patterson, Bennett, Gleason, Keilar, Wardlaw, Stewart, Dewey of Omaha; Clark of Iowa City, Messrs. Evid, Smith, Casady, Wickham, Fenlon, Reed, Patton, Zimmon of Boston; Messrs. Shepley, Wright, Woodbury, Dawson, Metcalf, Griffith, Mayne, Hays, Garner, Murphy, Whitelaw, Brown, Paxton, Wood, Ogden, Thomas, Boston, Fisher, Stinson, Clark, Grieco, Smith, Deane and Garman of Omaha; Bliss, Dick Stewart, Barnes of St. Paul.

Telephone No. 45 for A. D. T. messengers, wagons or carriages. No. 23 Main St.

Bicycling on Ice.

The latest thing in the way of amusement is bicycling on the ice. For the past few days a number of wheelmen of the city have been making trips to Lake Manawa, where the ice is smooth, glass, and covered with a layer of dust just thick enough to keep the tires from slipping.

Yesterday about 100 pleasure seekers spent the day there, some of them taking others riding their wheels over the smooth surface. It is described as great sport. The road between the city and the lake is now in first class condition.

Marriage Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were issued by the county clerk yesterday:

Name and address. Age. Albert A. Adams, Council Bluffs, 23; Mary E. Adams, Council Bluffs, 20; H. H. Prior, Omaha, 23; Castella Singer, Council Bluffs, 21; Morris Parker, Pottawattamie county, 21; Mary A. Redden, Pottawattamie county, 17; D. L. Williams, Pottawattamie county, 23; Ed. Moss, Pottawattamie county, 23.

Burial of Mrs. Amelia Bloomer.

The burial of Mrs. Amelia Bloomer will take place at St. Paul's church this afternoon at 2 o'clock. At the house a brief service will be held at 2:30 o'clock. It is requested that all persons who wish to view the remains will come to the residence between 11 and 1 o'clock on Monday afternoon.

A Big Calculation in Water.

The ocean sea and lake surface of our planet is estimated at something like 145-

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1895.

WEST OF THEO. SW. GORDON.

Some History of the War Against the Mahdi.

FACTS TOLD BY ONE WHO WAS AT FRONT.

CLEANING FEATHERS.

A Satisfactory Way to Clean and Polish Hat Plumes.

An Interpreter Who Was with the British Army in the Campaign of the Sudan.

Some Days ago, and while he was on a journey from ocean to ocean, Elias S. Farah, a young Syrian, stopped off to rest and learn something of the customs of the Americans.

While he was at one of the hotels in the city he met a man of the name of Farah, who was a member of the Arabi Pasha, which was suppressed by Lord Walseley, who turned his attention to the campaign of 1884, when an army was sent out to rescue Gordon.

In relating incidents, Mr. Farah said: "I find that most Americans have a wrong impression of the country along the Nile. When I speak of it as a desert they imagine it as there is on one of your asphalt streets.

To dye white or cream feathers, it will be found that they take easily to all dyeing materials. Safflower and lemon juice for blue and well for yellow. It is safer to bleach them before dyeing. The proper treatment is the same as that for cloth.

A wide receipt to follow in preparing feathers for beds is this: Water is saturated with quinine, the feathers are well soaked and stirred for four or five days, they are taken out, drained and washed in clean water, dried on nets or dry cloth, shaken occasionally while drying, and finally they are expel any dust. This is for amateur treatment; the most efficient method is to have them steamed by machines.

Navigation has been closed on the Ohio river by ice.

The Pennsylvania legislature met yesterday, but was adjourned because of the snow.

Another slight earthquake was felt in the city of Mexico yesterday.

The Michigan state officers were inaugurated at Lansing yesterday with elaborate ceremonies.

The republican caucus of the New York legislature has nominated Hamilton Fish for speaker.

Some of the traveling men are supposed to have perished in the Miller hotel fire at Lancaster, Ky.

The body of a young girl from the Lawrence, Kan., cemetery.

John H. Hunt, treasurer of Lyon county, Nevada, committed suicide Monday night. He was shot.

The three Wessneck brothers afloat on Lake Michigan were rescued in an almost frozen condition yesterday.

The negroes throughout North Carolina celebrated the anniversary of the emancipation proclamation yesterday.

John McBride yesterday assumed the duties of president of the Federation of Labor, succeeding Samuel Gompers.

The supreme court of California has rendered its decision regarding the famous Murphy will case.

It is reported that fish are being found in large numbers along the coast, caused by the recent cold weather.

The grand jury at Dallas, Tex., refused to indict the county sheriff for the robbery of a Lehigh passenger train at Geneva, N. Y.

An immense throng gathered in New York Monday night to listen to the speech of the old year out and the new one in.

Two little children named La Tour were fatally burned at the water works at a mangle in the barn. Young Hubert last week was arrested for stealing some goods from the Boston store.

Judge McGee gave an afternoon session of the county court yesterday, mentioning the school, whereupon young Hubert burst into a symphony of boo-hoos that shook the windows.

An explosion of dynamite at the penitentiary at Nashville yesterday six negro prisoners were killed and the building greatly damaged.

The creditors of J. Lichtenstein & Sons of New York, who had been in possession of the firm's property, they allege fraud.

A posse of determined men has started out from Livingston, Ala., to hunt down the train robbers who are said to be in the neighborhood of that place.

A resolution will be introduced in the Texas legislature requesting Senator Mills to resign from the ground that he no longer represents the state.

It is reported that Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe is to build a branch into the coal fields of Jackson county, Kansas.

The body of William Schroeder, who has been missing for some time, was found in the woods near Knoxville, Tenn. It is thought he was murdered.

Tom Blair, accused of assault with intent to kill, and who had been recently acquitted on a murder charge, was lynched at Mount Sterling, Ky., last night.

Governor Morton has announced that he will nominate John H. Hancock, of Rochester to be superintendent of public works. The position pays $6,000 a year.

E. L. Riegel of that city, who was wounded in a duel at that place, has had his adversary, William E. Hibler of Portsmouth, arrested for murderous assault.

Miss Katherine Patton was killed and Miss Jennie Harvey was seriously injured at Bath, Me., yesterday by a train running into a buggy in which they were riding.

Daniel Tromley of Bay City, Mich., went crazy over politics and murdered his wife and child and then attempted to drink himself to death.

He cut his own throat, but did not make a good job of it.

While attending a social entertainment at Casalia, Miss, New York's eve, George Sanford was shot and instantly killed by an unknown party.

The shot was fired from outside the house.

Execution was at fever heat at the First Methodist church in Abilene, Tex., Sunday on account of a band of sanctificationists desecrating the pastor to "Come out of the pulpit, you devil."

Governor Turney of Tennessee has requested the schools to observe the centennial anniversary of the birth of George Peabody, the philanthropist.

Five inmates of the jail at Pittsburg, Kan., dug out on New Year's eve, went to the neighborhood of the jail, and after their return voluntarily to serve out the remainder of their sentences.

Joseph Roundtree, a colored man, yesterday murdered his wife, literally chopping her to pieces with an axe. He then cut fire to the house.

J. C. Caldwell, postmaster at a small town in Lincoln county, Oklahoma, yesterday rested on the charge of making false returns of stamp cancellations. Inspectors are investigating a number of others in the territory.

The planters of the Mississippi delta had a meeting yesterday and agreed to pay 50 cents per day and board to the best male help applied for to stand fast against the state.

Captain H. R. Seeley, formerly of the Sixth New York Infantry, died at Chillum, Mo., yesterday. He was at one time a member of General Hancock's staff. After the war he entered the ministry and was one of the best known Methodist ministers in Missouri.

With the beginning of the new year the banking firm of Drexel, Morgan & Co. of New York was reorganized. The late partner of Robert Bacon, formerly of E. Robinson, son of J. Morris Robinson, who was a member of the original firm.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1895.

WEST OF THEO. SW. GORDON.

Some History of the War Against the Mahdi.

FACTS TOLD BY ONE WHO WAS AT FRONT.

CLEANING FEATHERS.

A Satisfactory Way to Clean and Polish Hat Plumes.

An Interpreter Who Was with the British Army in the Campaign of the Sudan.

Some Days ago, and while he was on a journey from ocean to ocean, Elias S. Farah, a young Syrian, stopped off to rest and learn something of the customs of the Americans.

While he was at one of the hotels in the city he met a man of the name of Farah, who was a member of the Arabi Pasha, which was suppressed by Lord Walseley, who turned his attention to the campaign of 1884, when an army was sent out to rescue Gordon.

In relating incidents, Mr. Farah said: "I find that most Americans have a wrong impression of the country along the Nile. When I speak of it as a desert they imagine it as there is on one of your asphalt streets.

To dye white or cream feathers, it will be found that they take easily to all dyeing materials. Safflower and lemon juice for blue and well for yellow. It is safer to bleach them before dyeing. The proper treatment is the same as that for cloth.

A wide receipt to follow in preparing feathers for beds is this: Water is saturated with quinine, the feathers are well soaked and stirred for four or five days, they are taken out, drained and washed in clean water, dried on nets or dry cloth, shaken occasionally while drying, and finally they are expel any dust. This is for amateur treatment; the most efficient method is to have them steamed by machines.

Navigation has been closed on the Ohio river by ice.

The Pennsylvania legislature met yesterday, but was adjourned because of the snow.

Another slight earthquake was felt in the city of Mexico yesterday.

The Michigan state officers were inaugurated at Lansing yesterday with elaborate ceremonies.

The republican caucus of the New York legislature has nominated Hamilton Fish for speaker.

Some of the traveling men are supposed to have perished in the Miller hotel fire at Lancaster, Ky.

The body of a young girl from the Lawrence, Kan., cemetery.

John H. Hunt, treasurer of Lyon county, Nevada, committed suicide Monday night. He was shot.

The three Wessneck brothers afloat on Lake Michigan were rescued in an almost frozen condition yesterday.

The negroes throughout North Carolina celebrated the anniversary of the emancipation proclamation yesterday.

John McBride yesterday assumed the duties of president of the Federation of Labor, succeeding Samuel Gompers.

The supreme court of California has rendered its decision regarding the famous Murphy will case.

It is reported that fish are being found in large numbers along the coast, caused by the recent cold weather.

The grand jury at Dallas, Tex., refused to indict the county sheriff for the robbery of a Lehigh passenger train at Geneva, N. Y.

An immense throng gathered in New York Monday night to listen to the speech of the old year out and the new one in.

Two little children named La Tour were fatally burned at the water works at a mangle in the barn. Young Hubert last week was arrested for stealing some goods from the Boston store.

Judge McGee gave an afternoon session of the county court yesterday, mentioning the school, whereupon young Hubert burst into a symphony of boo-hoos that shook the windows.

An explosion of dynamite at the penitentiary at Nashville yesterday six negro prisoners were killed and the building greatly damaged.

The creditors of J. Lichtenstein & Sons of New York, who had been in possession of the firm's property, they allege fraud.

A posse of determined men has started out from Livingston, Ala., to hunt down the train robbers who are said to be in the neighborhood of that place.

A resolution will be introduced in the Texas legislature requesting Senator Mills to resign from the ground that he no longer represents the state.

It is reported that Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe is to build a branch into the coal fields of Jackson county, Kansas.

The body of William Schroeder, who has been missing for some time, was found in the woods near Knoxville, Tenn. It is thought he was murdered.

Tom Blair, accused of assault with intent to kill, and who had been recently acquitted on a murder charge, was lynched at Mount Sterling, Ky., last night.

Governor Morton has announced that he will nominate John H. Hancock, of Rochester to be superintendent of public works. The position pays $6,000 a year.

E. L. Riegel of that city, who was wounded in a duel at that place, has had his adversary, William E. Hibler of Portsmouth, arrested for murderous assault.

Miss Katherine Patton was killed and Miss Jennie Harvey was seriously injured at Bath, Me., yesterday by a train running into a buggy in which they were riding.

Daniel Tromley of Bay City, Mich., went crazy over politics and murdered his wife and child and then attempted to drink himself to death.

He cut his own throat, but did not make a good job of it.

While attending a social entertainment at Casalia, Miss, New York's eve, George Sanford was shot and instantly killed by an unknown party.

The shot was fired from outside the house.

Execution was at fever heat at the First Methodist church in Abilene, Tex., Sunday on account of a band of sanctificationists desecrating the pastor to "Come out of the pulpit, you devil."

Governor Turney of Tennessee has requested the schools to observe the centennial anniversary of the birth of George Peabody, the philanthropist.

Five inmates of the jail at Pittsburg, Kan., dug out on New Year's eve, went to the neighborhood of the jail, and after their return voluntarily to serve out the remainder of their sentences.

Joseph Roundtree, a colored man, yesterday murdered his wife, literally chopping her to pieces with an axe. He then cut fire to the house.

J. C. Caldwell, postmaster at a small town in Lincoln county, Oklahoma, yesterday rested on the charge of making false returns of stamp cancellations. Inspectors are investigating a number of others in the territory.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 2, 1895.

Beauty and Purity.

Go hand in hand. They are the foundation of health and happiness.

Health, because of pure blood.

Happiness, because of clear skin. Thousands of useful lives have been embittered by distressing humors.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT Is the greatest of skin purifiers As well as blood purifiers.

Because of its peculiar action on the pores.

It is successful in preventing And curing all forms of Skin, Scalp, and Blood humors, When the best physicians fail.

Entirely vegetable, safe, and palatable.

It especially appeals to mothers and children.

Because it acts so gently, yet effectively.

Upon the skin and blood, as well as the Liver, kidneys, and bowels.

Its use at all times Insures a clear skin and pure blood, As well as sound bodily health.

Sold everywhere. Price, $1. Putnam Dispensary, 115 Broadway, Boston.

"How to Cure Skin and Blood Humors," free.

Facial Blemishes, falling hair and simple blemishes relieved by Cuticura Soap.

Nervous Instantly relieved by a Cuticura Pilement, because it vitalizes the nerve forces, and hence cures nervous pain, weakness, and numbness.

W. L. DOUGLAS'S $3 SHOE IS THE BEST. $3.50 FINE CALF KANSAS. $3.50 POLICE, 3 SOLES. $2.97 BOYS SCHOOL SHOES. $3.50 LADIES' BEST DUNGLO. $3.50 FINE CALF KANSAS. $3.50 POLICE, 3 SOLES. $2.97 BOYS SCHOOL SHOES. $3.50 LADIES' BEST DUNGLO.

Over One Million Pairs of W. L. Douglas's $3 & $4 Shoes.

All our shoes equally satisfactory. They give the best value for the money. They cut custom shoes in style and fit. Their wearing qualities are unsurpassed. They are made in the U. S. A. Sold by A. W. B. & Co., 151 1/2 St. S. W. W. F. 107, Park and Leavenworth Sts.

John W. Morrison, 424 S. 13th st. Kohlrigor Co. Far 1st & 1st 1/2 Sts. T. S. Crosey, 25 1/2 N. St. S. Omat.

Stockholders Meeting. Office of Lee-Clarke-Anderson Hardware Co., Omaha, Neb., Dec. 27, 1894.—Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lee-Clarke-Anderson Hardware Company will be held at the office of the said company, 1219, 1221 and 1223 Harney street, in the city of Omaha, in the state of Nebraska, on Tuesday, January 3, A. D. 1895, at 3 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing a board of directors for the ensuing year to serve during the ensuing year, and to transact such other business as may be presented at such meeting.

Attest: J. H. LEE, President. W. M. GLASS, Secretary. 07 M to J 5 Sun.

Willing to Give In. Washington Star: "Josiah," said Mrs. Costonel, "don't you think that woman is kinder kep' down more than they order be?"

"I dunno," was the reply. "Mebbe they don't allow set ter do all they're capable of. But, looky here, Mandy, you ain't hankerin' ter be a manipulated woman, ar' ye?"

"No—but I don't see why we shouldn't do everything the men do."

"We don't? Well, mebbe they ain't no different from you. You start in by raisin' whikers and throwin' a stone straight, I'll grant ye any other 'compliment ye choose ter lay claim to."

Geo. P. Sanford, A. W. Rickman, President, Cashier.

First National Bank

of COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa. Capital, $100,000. Deposits, $1,000,000.

One of the oldest banks in the state of Iowa. We solicit your business and collections. We are prompt in all our payments. We will be pleased to see and serve you.

MONEY TO LOAN—CHATELLETS. GRINDING.

SIMS & BAINBRIDGE, Attorneys-at-Law, and Federal Courts, Rooms 767-7-8, Shuqart Block, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

Special Notices

Council Bluffs.

CHIMNEYS CLEANED; VAULTS CLEANED. Ed Burke, at W. S. Homer's, 63 Broadway.

WANTED, GOOD COMPETENT GILL TO DO EMBROIDERED, 29 Oakland avenue.

A $4,000 STOCK OF GOODS AND FIXTURES to trade for Iowa or eastern Nebraska land. Greenhills, Nicholson & Co., Council Bluffs.

He Sings!

OF COURSE And his song is one of HE joy. SO would yours be if you knew what he knows—that 919 Main street is stocked with more bargains in Shoes, Hats, Underwear and Furnishings Goods than any other store in Council Bluffs and Omaha. He uses but few notes, you perceive, and you will need but few notes—bank notes or coins—to get possession of stylish, handsome and comfortable things. Expenses of doing business at 919 are 50 per cent less than further uptown, and this is one of the many secrets of the immense success of

T. B. HUGHES, The Leading Downtown Merchant.

NOW IS THE TIME TO BUY