

TOOK UP CURRENCY AGAIN

BLACK OF GEORGIA DEFENDS THE BILL

Hauger Makes Some Pointed Comments on Springer-McCreary Says Bonds Must Be Issued If Something Is Not Done Soon.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The house presented an animated scene when it was called to order by Speaker Crisp today after the holiday recess. The galleries were crowded and over half the members were in their seats. In the diplomatic gallery were the Japanese minister and his secretary and many prominent persons looked down on the forensic arena from the reserved galleries.

Accordingly the house went into committee, Mr. Richardson, democrat of Tennessee, in the chair and Mr. Black, democrat of Georgia, a member of the banking and currency committee, took the floor in favor of the bill.

The debate ensued slightly. Mr. Black declared that he considered the currency committee had heard only national bankers while considering the pending measure and had turned a deaf ear to all others.

Mr. Black's advocacy of state banks of issue was denied, but he concluded by expressing, amid approval of the speaker, the only real function of the government was the coinage of gold and silver.

Mr. Hauger, democrat of Wisconsin, who followed, opposed the measure. He described the bill as an erudite, ill-considered measure, fraught with dangers to the country, and expressed the opinion that it was by his reference to Mr. Springer's position last summer when he (Springer) antagonized the repeal of the state bank tax.

Mr. Springer, republican of New York, attempted to offer a resolution relating to salaries in the New York postoffice, but Mr. Springer, who is in charge of the currency bill, cut him off.

OFFICERS ELECTED AT NEXT MEETING

Annexation Is One of the Questions to Be Considered at a Meeting to Be Held Tomorrow Night—Magic City Gossip.

The annual meeting of the South Omaha Democratic club takes place next Saturday night. In addition to the election of officers there will be other matters of importance discussed.

The question of annexation will also be brought up in the form of a resolution, asking the mayor and city council to take appropriate ordinance submitting the matter to a vote of the people.

When the senate reassembled at noon today, the house of representatives was in session. Vice President Stevenson called the body to order and more came in during the reading of the journal.

The speaker read before the senate a letter from the secretary of state transmitting a dispatch from the United States ambassador at Paris, saying that he had delivered to the widow of the late President Carnot engraved copies of resolutions of sympathy of the American congress relative to the death of President Carnot.

Mr. Morgan had the floor to make a speech on the canal bill. He made a general statement in favor of the canal, and also asking for information as to whether the two Japanese were put to death after being tortured.

Slack Was Tried in the School Buildings, but Did Not Fill the Bill.

A new theater for Omaha is an assured fact since yesterday. Heretofore the talk of a new opera house has been largely of the irrepressible kind, but at a meeting of the Interstate Hotel company decided to change the name of the corporation to the Interstate Improvement company.

Mr. Paxton said that a theater was absolutely certain, the changing of the name of the company having signified a desire on the part of the directors to change the name of the work.

The new theater will seat 2,000 people, exclusive of standing room, and will be perfectly modern throughout. It will front on Fifteenth street, with an exit running through the rear of the building.

Slack was tried in the school buildings, but did not fill the bill. The school board has been successful in their efforts to secure a better fuel for the schools.

pay the grocer's bill for the whole family. The editor of the Morning Oregonian, who has lived in Oregon for 25 years, writes of it as follows in his paper of December 25th: "Who who look upon Oregon now cannot but be struck by our early admiration for the state. The same may be said of all our Pacific states. We are having a very wintry Nature is making amends for the mistakes of man. The tides of human life come and go, and they are up and down in the business, but Oregon is always right. It is the same incomparable country that has been the scene of our early admiration. No one who has lived in it can ever leave it. Every newcomer, no matter what a winter climate, in a country so productive of all resources, is surprised and delighted. Yet there is no ill-luck in these mountains, the gorgeous greenery of our forests, contribute to the effect upon the eye. This simply is the ordinary fact which nature has done more for any other on the earth, and they who know Oregon love it."

Every Oregonian feels that way and you will find it if you take advantage of our offer. We go there and go to work with half the vim you put in against this climate of drought and uncertainty. Yours truly, STEARNS FRUIT LAND CO., 101 Bee Building.
