PITTSBURG, Jan. 4 .- Ives, the billiard expert, arrived in the city today. In speak-ing of his match with Vignaux, he said: ing of his match with vignaux, he sain: "No man has a right to order Vignaux any such odds as 1,000 in a 6,000 point game. Still, I'll carry the bluff through and Abe Levy, my backer, says he will back me up in whatever I see fit to do. I'm going to New Orleans now for a white. I will not go on a tour with Schaeffer, for people would think it was a hippodrome."

Heavy Nominations for Hawthorne. CHICAGO, Jan. 4 .- The Hawthorne stakes up to last night had re-ceived nearly 1,300 entries, which really means 3.535, as the stallion stakes is by sires, of which U5 are represented, with an average of some twenty each, the aver-age really being the product of about thirty mares per sire.
