

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

COUNCIL BLUFFS.

OFFICE - NO. 12 PEARL STREET.

Delivered by carrier to any part of the city.

H. W. TILTON, Lessee. TELEPHONE - Business office, No. 42; night editor, No. 22.

MINOR MENTION.

Grand hotel, Council Bluffs, reopened Oct. 1. Mayne Real Estate agency, 539 Broadway.

Mrs. and Mrs. Frank W. Loomis are moving into their new home at the corner of Washington and Oakland avenues.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to J. H. Burns, aged 27, and Mary Lynch, aged 24, both of Pottawattamie county.

The funeral of Alderman Spetman's little daughter, Blanche, will take place this afternoon at the residence 122 Bluff street.

The Ganymede Wheel club will take a run out to Elk lake this evening and go skating.

Etchings council, Degree of Pottawattamie, issued invitation for a social to be given at the hall, 102 Pearl street, Thursday evening, January 17.

The funeral of Mrs. G. W. Snyder's little daughter, Blanche, will take place this afternoon at the residence 122 Bluff street.

Sam Haworth of Milo, in Warren county, passed a $5 counterfeit gold piece at his home and was indicted by the United States grand jury at its last session.

A pleasant social affair took place at Burns hall last evening.

A meeting of the butchers of the city will be held at 101 Main street January 22, for the purpose of incorporating the local butchers' union.

Inventions are being issued by Clan Stewart for a big celebration of Bobbie Burns.

Alexander Hansen, who used to be employed by Charles Huber, fell against a stove in the Arcade last evening.

It is said that the passage of the ordinance by the city council last Monday night.

G. F. Chase had his house burglarized about two or three weeks ago, and a lot of articles of value were stolen.

The sixth annual ball of Union Pacific Local Assembly No. 1,300, Knights of Labor.

Big reductions in dress goods. Big reductions in blankets and comforts.

Big reductions in underwear. Big reductions in ladies' coats.

White Buying Implements. For the farm do not forget your home.

Ground oil cake $1.30 hhd. at Morgan & Co's drug store, 124 Broadway.

J. J. Armstrong is seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lunger left last evening for Chicago for a few days' stay in the big city.

Miss Rhel Smith, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Bland Hinton, for the past year, left last evening for her home in Michigan.

Miss Williams, who was formerly a democratic lawyer in this city, is now said to be editing a dyed-in-the-wool republican paper in New Mexico.

W. S. Baird of the law firm of Carson & Baird was married Wednesday afternoon to a Miss Wood at Logan, Ia.

Remember January and Shoes. And Sargent, for Sargent sells shoes cheap always.

The laundry uses Domestic soap. Trains to Menasha.

Manawa trains will be running Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Gas cooking stoves for rent and for sale at Gas Co's office.

NEWS FROM COUNCIL BLUFFS.

Ex-County Attorney Organ Advises the Supervisors to Settle the Tax Cases.

INTENDED TO FORESTALL FURTHER SUITS

County Has Already Arranged to Pay Judgments in the Matter and Should Favor People Who Have Not Time to Sue.

Ex-County Attorney John P. Organ filed a paper with the board of supervisors yesterday with reference to the payment of the claims for excessive taxes levied in the years 1888, 1889 and 1890.

As already stated, the amount of the claims that have already been paid is a little over $21,000, and there are still claims to the amount of nearly $60,000 which have not been paid in, or at least not acted upon.

Here is the way the ex-county attorney expresses himself upon the subject:

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Jan. 10.—To the Honorable Board of Supervisors of Pottawattamie County, Iowa: Gentlemen:—At the last meeting of your honorable body I had the honor to present to you a paper in which I stated that the county should repay to the various plaintiffs in what was known as the "tax case" matter, the amount of the judgments for the years 1888 and 1890.

Every large corporation in this county, excepting the Northwestern Railway company, has received back its share of the excessive taxes levied in the years 1888 and 1890, and it is now being paid to the various plaintiffs in what was known as the "tax case" matter, the amount of the judgments for the years 1888 and 1890.

As you have already recognized the justness of the tax case, and the fact that the means of payment of those in judgment, the situation of all taxpayers for said years being equal, and the fact that the amount paid for court costs in the cases being referred to.

Therefore, prays that you take steps to provide for the repayment of the excessive taxes levied in the years 1888 and 1890, upon demand of the various plaintiffs, provided that such demand be made upon the county auditor within one year or more of the date of such demand.

When it came to selecting the county physicians the board found itself under the painful necessity of appointing a republican for Kane, Lewis, Garner, and Keg Creek.

The board has taken no action on the matter so far.

Things have not been running smoothly between the city council and the police department for some little time past.

It has been the custom for the officers to report any lights that may be off on their respective beats, and the city council has at times ordered them to be put on.

After the repairs at the police headquarters the company's representatives claim the police have not been keeping their beats.

Arrangements Being Made for a Great Winter Carnival at Lake Manawa.

SLAUGHTER IN THIS CARNS

How the Receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway Will Operate the System.

FRANK LITTLE MAY BE RETAINED

City of Lincoln, A. S. Ide & Son and Caylor, Morgan & Co. the Heaviest Creditors of the Insolvent Company.

LINCOLN, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Bred D. Slaughter, who supervises Frank W. Little as receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway company, returned to Omaha early this morning.

He is quoted as having said that if he found Little to be a practical street car man, and is to be engaged, he will cheerfully retain his services for the company under the receivership.

LINCOLN, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Brad D. Slaughter, who supervises Frank W. Little as receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway company, returned to Omaha early this morning.

He is quoted as having said that if he found Little to be a practical street car man, and is to be engaged, he will cheerfully retain his services for the company under the receivership.

LINCOLN, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Brad D. Slaughter, who supervises Frank W. Little as receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway company, returned to Omaha early this morning.

He is quoted as having said that if he found Little to be a practical street car man, and is to be engaged, he will cheerfully retain his services for the company under the receivership.

LINCOLN, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Brad D. Slaughter, who supervises Frank W. Little as receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway company, returned to Omaha early this morning.

He is quoted as having said that if he found Little to be a practical street car man, and is to be engaged, he will cheerfully retain his services for the company under the receivership.

LINCOLN, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Brad D. Slaughter, who supervises Frank W. Little as receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway company, returned to Omaha early this morning.

He is quoted as having said that if he found Little to be a practical street car man, and is to be engaged, he will cheerfully retain his services for the company under the receivership.

LINCOLN, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Brad D. Slaughter, who supervises Frank W. Little as receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway company, returned to Omaha early this morning.

He is quoted as having said that if he found Little to be a practical street car man, and is to be engaged, he will cheerfully retain his services for the company under the receivership.

LINCOLN, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Brad D. Slaughter, who supervises Frank W. Little as receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway company, returned to Omaha early this morning.

He is quoted as having said that if he found Little to be a practical street car man, and is to be engaged, he will cheerfully retain his services for the company under the receivership.

LINCOLN, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Brad D. Slaughter, who supervises Frank W. Little as receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway company, returned to Omaha early this morning.

He is quoted as having said that if he found Little to be a practical street car man, and is to be engaged, he will cheerfully retain his services for the company under the receivership.

LINCOLN, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Brad D. Slaughter, who supervises Frank W. Little as receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway company, returned to Omaha early this morning.

He is quoted as having said that if he found Little to be a practical street car man, and is to be engaged, he will cheerfully retain his services for the company under the receivership.

LINCOLN, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Brad D. Slaughter, who supervises Frank W. Little as receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway company, returned to Omaha early this morning.

He is quoted as having said that if he found Little to be a practical street car man, and is to be engaged, he will cheerfully retain his services for the company under the receivership.

LINCOLN, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Brad D. Slaughter, who supervises Frank W. Little as receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway company, returned to Omaha early this morning.

He is quoted as having said that if he found Little to be a practical street car man, and is to be engaged, he will cheerfully retain his services for the company under the receivership.

LINCOLN, Jan. 10.—(Special.)—Brad D. Slaughter, who supervises Frank W. Little as receiver of the Lincoln Street Railway company, returned to Omaha early this morning.

He is quoted as having said that if he found Little to be a practical street car man, and is to be engaged, he will cheerfully retain his services for the company under the receivership.

MONEY IS NOT WEALTH

It is only good for what Comforts and Necessities it will exchange for.

How foolish people are. They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years.

They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

They will drive an old knock-kneed horse for years. They get along with dilapidated furniture; faded and shabby carpets; bare windows; and quite likely an old stove which cuts up more fuel in a year than a new and economical consumer would cost them.

Advertisements and notices at the bottom of the page.