

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE

Published every morning. Terms of subscription: Daily (without Sunday), One Year...

MUST THE BOARD GO?

A new reason why the Board of Transportation cannot be dispensed with at this time is now the subject of discussion. The maximum rate law recognizes the board as an important factor...

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Includes entries like 'Total', 'Less deductions for unpaid and returns', 'Daily average for the month', etc.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION

George B. Tschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of the Daily Bee during the month of November, 1894, was as follows:

THE ONLY REGET OF THE SOUTH DAKOTA

The only regret of the South Dakota treasury looters seems to be that they failed to operate in a state with more funds to be stolen.

THE SOUTH AND PENSIONS.

It would seem from what happened in the house of representatives on last Friday evening that some northern democrats are becoming weary of the persistent hostility of the southern democrats to pensions for union soldiers...

REGARDLESS OF THE MERITS OF THE CLAIM

Regardless of the merits of the claim to a pension of General McClelland, who was undeniably a brave soldier and did valuable service as such, this incident is worthy of attention as an illustration of the feeling that quite generally prevails among southern democrats...

INCREASED GOLD SUPPLY

There is not much comfort for those who have argued that the comparatively small yield of gold makes it impossible to use it as a currency basis for the business of the world in the statistics showing the increase in the production of the yellow metal...

MORE SOUTH DAKOTA STEALS

The more that is learned about the looting of the South Dakota state treasury the worse is the light in which the affair stands out. Later developments disclose the unmistakable evidence of a gigantic conspiracy...

VOICE OF THE PRESS.

Cedar Rapids Commercial: Governor Holcomb takes the right view of the case in recommending that the maximum freight rate be applied...

DAVID CITY PRESS.

Despite the forebodings that "the election of Holcomb would ruin the state," the new governor's course thus far has evinced a very wise and conservative, level-headed and statesmanlike...

LINCOLN NEWS.

There are some reasons for justifying the appointment of committees in the legislature by the corporations. There is no one who seriously questions that the legislative committees this year were made up more or less at the dictation and under the influence of the corporations...

SENIATORIAL CONTESTS.

Several contests for the United States senate which have been carried on with great earnestness will be settled within the next week. One of these is in Minnesota, where a successor is to be chosen to Senator W. D. Washburn...

SENIATORIAL CONTESTS.

Several contests for the United States senate which have been carried on with great earnestness will be settled within the next week. One of these is in Minnesota, where a successor is to be chosen to Senator W. D. Washburn...

PEOPLE AND THINGS.

Senator Quay has suddenly developed a wholesome disgust for corporate tools. Repre has it again that Bill Cook is dead. Now pressure for a wool cooked rail in a new quarter.

THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

The Atlanta Constitution waves joyful over the defeat of Senator Carey and winning over re-election, and congratulates the state on "showing a goldbug."

THE UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.

The United States circuit court of appeals decides that theatrical wardrobes are "tools of trade," and therefore exempt from duty. This will give smugglers much satisfaction, for the goods they import are tools of their trade.

MEMBERS OF THE AUSTRALIAN LEGISLATURE.

Members of the Australian legislature are phenomenal rollers. They have actually reduced their own salaries. Australian ideas are popular in this country, and the last cannot be imported and put in operation any too soon.

MAYOR STRONG OF NEW YORK.

MAYOR STRONG OF NEW YORK, desiring reliable information about crooks from first to confer with newspaper reporter Mr. Byrnes will presently learn more than he would like to know.

DETROIT FREE PRESS.

DETROIT FREE PRESS: "Jargules" wife he chased him with failure to support her. "Them so?" But was she running "rum?"

ALBANY JOURNAL.

ALBANY JOURNAL: A man in Bay City, Mich., has written 700 poems to be published after his death. Long life to the poet!

WASHINGTON STAR.

WASHINGTON STAR: Prisoner—Your honor, this policeman shot me for no reason.

THE SCOTLAND TRIBUNE.

THE SCOTLAND TRIBUNE: Everet West—Lady! I have four little children cry at home for bread. Mrs. Potts—For goodness sake! You don't have a penny on you? Stand it. You don't live in a flat, do you?

SOMEVILE JOURNAL.

SOMEVILE JOURNAL: The average man can usually find out just how many true friends he has when he is being outwitted. He knows to borrow much-needed $20 bill.

ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

ATLANTA CONSTITUTION: "Queer people, this," said a rural editor. "In what way?" "Can't understand English. Merely advised to give up smoking. He had plenty of rope, and, bless my soul, he snatched himself!"

JUDGE TOBBY.

JUDGE TOBBY: Sister will be down in a few minutes. Mr. Sotby; she's upstairs hearing. Mr. Sotby (who has come prepared)—"Bobby-I don't know just; but she's standing in front of the mirror and blushing and saying: "Oh, Mr. Sotby—this is so sudden!"

THE SKATER.

THE SKATER: Boston Courier. She starts, she moves, she seems to feel the ice drop from her skates of steel. And then she cuts, by strange device, A pretty figure on the ice!

HIS CONROR PIPE.

HIS CONROR PIPE: George H. Conrad in Chicago Tribune. Just a plain 'ol' cob, that's all; But got the pith all holler'd out To 'ut the backy in; An' he's a sort 'o' tapered some, 'An' 'uttilted down a few; 'An' he's a sort 'o' tapered some, 'An' he's a sort 'o' tapered some.

WHEN I'VE BEEN WORKIN' HARD ALL DAY

WHEN I'VE BEEN WORKIN' HARD ALL DAY: An' all the chores is done, Stock is fed, an' supper's et, Like to take my pipe an' set 'An' smoke an' drink, An' feet copped up on a mantel shelf An' 'back log glowin' bright!

BOYES AND HIS PLANS.

Memphis Avianches: Horace Potes wants a western man for president, but he will gamble on it that Horace could put his finger on the very man.

DUBUQUE TELEGRAPH.

DUBUQUE TELEGRAPH: The distinguished democratic ex-governor of Iowa would re-establish bimetalism by making token money of every silver dollar now in existence and by providing that all coin certified on the deposit of silver money or bullion shall be redeemable in gold at the option of the holder.

DENVER REPUBLICAN.

DENVER REPUBLICAN: Governor Boies spoke at Omaha last night. We wonder if he thought of a previous January 8 when he spoke at the Graton banquet in the Broadway theater, and failed to say anything for free coinage. That was the opportunity of the governor's lifetime, and he let it slip by. Had he declared in favor of silver for the money of the constitution, gold or silver, it would have been a political masterpiece.

LEGISLATURES ARE ALWAYS FRAUDS.

Legislatures are always frauds and delusions—particularly in Nebraska. And the more they say, the more they lie, and the more they lie, the more they say. It is a great honor to be elected to the legislature, and it is a greater honor to be elected to the legislature when the republicans are in control.

A HUMBUG SESSION.

A HUMBUG SESSION: Legislatures are always frauds and delusions—particularly in Nebraska. And the more they say, the more they lie, and the more they lie, the more they say.

THE SOUTH OMAHA COUNCIL.

THE SOUTH OMAHA COUNCIL: The men who want a vindication can secure it in other quarters.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

CHICAGO TRIBUNE: Chairman Wilson's prediction that the country will be ruled either by the truth or the democratic party stamps him as the worst capitalist in the world.

A STARKING INNOVATION.

A STARKING INNOVATION: The women of Colorado assembled in convention at Arapahoe have proposed a startling innovation and reduction of special seats for demand for senator from that state.

THE THEORY AND THE FACT.

THE THEORY AND THE FACT: Sherman is right in saying that the senate has no authority to originate legislation on a question of revenue; and yet that was what the president did in sending the house to accept the present tariff law.

DISTINCTION AND DIFFERENCE.

DISTINCTION AND DIFFERENCE: Governor Cronan has retired from the office of governor of Nebraska with the respect and well wishes of all, while the Iowa college professor who he made famous by the denunciation of making money on the lecture platform.

HARMONY OF THE HOPEFUL.

HARMONY OF THE HOPEFUL: The same day ex-Governor Boies declared in Omaha that free silver was the sole issue which promised to secure success.

LAMENTATIONS OF THE COAL BARONS.

LAMENTATIONS OF THE COAL BARONS: The Reading railroad's annual report chronicles with regret that "lack of harvest in the price of coal amounting for the year to $1,384,710.49. Good so far as it goes. It means simply that a coal monopoly has been compelled to leave with the people nearly two million dollars which it would otherwise have taken without rendering any return.

FOREST PRESERVATION.

FOREST PRESERVATION: Forest preservation is a subject to which all persons should give more or less attention. It is closely related to the agricultural prosperity of the far west, where irrigation is essential. Forests are the main source of water in the flow of streams, which has a beneficial effect on irrigation.

THE GOOD LIVES AFTER HIM.

THE GOOD LIVES AFTER HIM: Whatever other faults ex-Governor Davis had, he was not a crook, and he was not a weak man. He was a man of honor and integrity, and he was a man of good character.

NEBRASKA AND NEBRASKANS.

Dawes county hopes to reduce its expenses for the coming year to $28,578. O. P. Perley of Broken Bow has a 2-year-old steer that weighs 1,725 pounds. An immense wildcat was caught by a trap-line near Benkeman the other day.
