Rev. R. L. Wheeler Describes What is the Highest Reach of Humanity.

IT IS TO FULLY PUT ON JESUS CHRIST

Revolution that Would Be Wrought in the Church of Today if it Should Secure More Men of the Kind Paul Was.

"The Highest Reach of Humanity" was Rev. Robert L. Wheeler's topic at the Presbyterian church yesterday morning, the text being, "I am crucified with Christ, never theless I live."

To be crucified with Christ, said the preacher, is to stand with him, and for him, in the cultivation of rightcousness and the resistance of evil, without regard to the dic tation of the regulators of society or the lash of public opinion.

The cross of Christ is the sign of the holy One, spurned Him in whose face shown Mocked His call to a better righteous-God. ness, hated His purity, jealous of His regard for women, His love for children and sympathy for the burdened common people took Him up Mount Calvary and slew Him. The sign of that tragedy is the cross. The highest reach of humanity is to put on Christ in our attitude toward truth and obedience to God, and resist even unto martyrdom all appeals from world flesh or devil to compromise or surrender. Self-living of whatsoever sort is the essence of sin, and selfism is the lowest plunge of sin, and selfism is the lowest plunge of the human soul toward total depravity and is the genesis of idolatry. The man who is self-sufficient and lives only for himself—the woman whose highest aim is to be petted and pampered by modern society without regard to the evil influence and effects on other lives, are both satanle and re-echo the sinful Pride of the story of Eden. Paul found the unselfish Christ life when he lost his selfism and became possessed of a supreme and passionate love for men. It was to him one of love's transformations. He looked out of love's eyes deep in human sew-erage and saw a lost one for whom Christ died. He rescued the outcast from society; he preached a gospel of hope for the prodigal and found in him a brother blood-redeemed. own rich and proud church disowned him, public opinion cursed him, but his love or men and Christ was triumphant over all. Nevertheless I live."

The modern church calls loudly for mer of Paul's stamp, willing to be crucified for Christ, to stand against the introduction of that false idea that the church is to be a religious club for the socially fortunate and the Mammon-blessed ones, while the children of poverty and the neglected ones find the church receding from the slums, to be in-trenched in the aristocratic suburbs, and the street arab, the less fortunate and socially ostracised find no voice or hymn of call to God but the rattle of the drum of the Salvation army or the street prayer meeting To be crucified with Christ means for us to stand in stubborn resistance to the sins of the day. Why is society shocked at the expose of gambling and gamblers, when this same society demands a knowledge of high five and a deck of cards as a passport into its ranks? The parlors of the morally dis-posed, even professed Christian ones, are turned into kindergartetns for recruits for gambling hells.

"Crucified with Christ" would, as the motto of the great church of Christ, cause her followers to seek with passionate love all lost ones and to shun the very appearance of evil and by the sacrifice of love of Chrst to men and for men mammon would be de-throned, selfism crucified and the Christ of Gallilee reign triumphant.

He claims that all of his transactions with Hunter and the other members of the in-corporation in which they were jointly interested were perfectly legitimate. He says that Hunter and others forced the matter into the civil courts some time ago and were defeated, so they have adopted this manner of trying to force him to accede to their terms. Dr. Davis alleges that he has lived in and about Omaha for several years and will be abundantly able to clear himself of these charges. Yesterday the feast of the holy name of Jesus, patron saint of the Jesuits, was celebrated at St. Johns Collegiate church. The services consisted of the singing of solemn high mass and a sermon by Rev. John Pahls, the president of Creighton college, upon the power of Jesus' name.

The singing was exceptionally fine. Haydn's second mass was sung by the choir to an

In view of this Father Pahls said that In view of this Father Pahls said that there were certain duties that every one owes to the name, and mentioned the two most important. One was the duty of respect. It is the greatest of all names, the name of the greatest personage that has ever appeared on earth, the name of God, and the co pre-od "Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord, thy God, in vain" should be strictly obeyed. The other pre-eminent duty is that of in-vocation to the name. As it is the only name under heaven by which we can be saved, it should be kept continually in our hearts, and we should call upon it in every affletion. "Let the holy name of Jesus be everything."
