

FIRE ON STRIKERS

Dread Attacked a Car a Short Distance from the Ridgeway Depot.

MILITIA RESPONDED WITH A VOLLEY About Two Hundred and Fifty Rounds Were Fired by the Troops.

AS POOR MARKSMEN AS FRENCH DUELISTS With All the Shooting There Are Reports of Casualties.

TWO POLICEMEN SHOT BY A MOB Wounds of One of Them Are Serious—Soldiers Were Kept Busy During the Day Suppressing Minor Disturbances Throughout the City.

BROOKLYN, Jan. 21.—Violence and bloodshed constitutes the record of the eighth day of the electric street car operatives' strike.

Three militiamen are in hospitals with broken heads, two having suffered at the hands of riotous men or women, while the third was the victim of his own carelessness, having fallen out of a second story window.

Several men are suffering from bullet wounds or contusions of the head and body, disabling them for the time being.

To what extent the strikers have suffered cannot be conjectured. If they escaped punishment it was not the fault of the militiamen, who, in accordance with orders, fired as directly at their assailants as a dense fog which completely obscured objects at thirty yards' distance would permit.

The strike is not ended and order is not restored. Seven thousand national guardsmen and 1,500 or 1,600 policemen have not today been strong enough to make the resumption of the street railway traffic in Brooklyn possible.

In fact, the gain over Saturday is hardly perceptible. The calling out of the first brigade, composed of New York City regiments, has seemed rather to add to the tension than to bring a solution of the difficulties.

The task of restoring peace and order, almost nearly 200 miles of street car lines is a vast one. The new levy numbered not far from 4,000 men. They were moved across the great bridge early in the day.

The various companies were by elevated trains wherever it was possible to the points where they had been ordered to assemble.

Generally speaking, the salutes and greetings they met with on the streets were far from friendly. A Scotch mist settled down on all the city, increasing in density as the evening approached, and added to the difficulties.

ROSTER OF THE INJURED. Following is a list of injured thus far as known:

Dennis Bush, policeman, contused wounds on face, caused by a stone.

Collins, private, Company H, Seventh regiment, head cut open with a brick, not seriously hurt.

Patrick Coillihan, policeman, nose broken by a stone.

Patrick Calligan, policeman, of the Second precinct, shot in the arm.

James Deegan, policeman, shot in the head.

Campan, policeman, head cut open.

Joseph Dunny, conductor, knocked senseless while running a car.

Ennis, private, company H, Seventh regiment, head cut open by a stone; seriously injured.

William Goldenberg, motorman, badly cut about the head.

Valentine Kussler, hurt in collision at Bath Junction.

Kipp, major of the Seventh regiment, severely wounded in the leg.

Ryan, private in Seventh regiment, Company F, struck in head.

Frank Ryan, hurt in collision at Gates Junction.

George Shackleton, policeman, face cut open.

Elmer F. Van Dyke, private in Twelfth regiment, compound fracture of the skull, broken jaw and fractured leg. Will probably die.

Wilson, policeman, hurt in chest.

Josephine Ziegler, Brooklyn, struck by a car, condition precarious.

Unknown man, fell from an elevated station, will die.

Two unknown men, suffering from slight gunshot wounds.

THEIR LIVES IN UNCERTAINTY. A car started from the Ridgeway station of the Brooklyn Heights company a little after 5 o'clock and was assailed with volleys of stones and bricks before it proceeded far.

A private soldier was struck in the head with a stone and disabled. The officer in command ordered his men to shoot, and two soldiers were fired towards the rioters and wounded.

The soldiers' aim, however, was rendered uncertain by the dense fog. Policemen also did some shooting into the point, with what effect is as uncertain as in the case of the militia men. It is ascertained that the militia officers who only ordered their men to fire, while the violence of the mob made it necessary on the same line a car started out an hour after the first shot.

The police escort was in Stuyvesant avenue. The police escorted it as they drove off the rioters, and while striking were fired upon from a house. Five policemen were wounded, but none were seriously injured.

Another in the hand, and three others received painful injuries by being struck with stones.

The Halsey street line also was the scene of several lively encounters. In one of them Private Ennis of the Seventh regiment, was knocked senseless with a stone. Several shots were fired into the crowd and rumors say that four men were seen to fall. If the car was wounded were carried away by their friends.

At the Halsey street depot a car was pelted with stones and sticks, the windows were broken and the crowd rose, smashed. Two police officers fired their pistols into the crowd, which dispersed. Whether or not any one was struck is not known. Under such conditions it is deemed advisable to abandon for the night attempts to run cars on any of the tied-up lines and by 4:30 o'clock all the cars were housed.

Men to take the place of strikers are being engaged in other cities and from the unemployed of Brooklyn. The ranks of the strikers will probably be recruited tomorrow by the 600 militiamen who have remained in the employ of the company. They have it is understood that tomorrow they will go out to repair cut lines even at the risk of dismissal. They will not strike, they say; they will merely refuse to perform the work, required of them and put upon the companies the onus of discharging them.

In the board of aldermen this afternoon a resolution was introduced by Mr. Cohen which proposes to oblige corporations operating street railways by electricity to employ as motormen only such persons as shall have passed a satisfactory examination as to their qualifications.

WILL TAKE ACTIVE MEASURES. The board voted without dissent the approval of a memorial signed by about sixty property owners, which calls for measures which shall compel the street railway companies to operate the usual number of cars upon their lines or else request the attorney general to bring proceedings for the enforcement of their charter.

The depot of the Third avenue railroad at Third avenue and Fifty-sixth street was garlanded by companies F, G and K of the company B. The commander of the detachment numbered 250 men. Companies H and I were quartered in the power house at Second avenue and Fifty-second street.

The strikers, to the number of a couple hundred, held a continuous meeting at their headquarters. A committee of citizens, appointed last night, called on all the storekeepers in the vicinity of the depot for donations of groceries. The Pequot club resembled a large grocery store, and the citizens' committee kept a list of the contributions.

The men claim they are in a position to hold out for six months. Before daybreak this morning the street was quiet. The day train track was cut. Three repair wagons worked on the scene at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and after an hour's work the wire was put in working order. The company had expected that no effort to make a trial would be made tonight. Rioting had been expected at the stables of the Atlantic road at Fourth avenue and Fifty-second street.

HATCH IS HURRYING HOME

Hawaiian Minister of Foreign Affairs Sailed for Honolulu.

JAPANESE ARE BECOMING TROUBLESOME Coming Into the Islands on Every Steamer and Are Beginning to Think Themselves All-Powerful—Royalists Are Mostly English.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—E. M. Hatch, minister of foreign affairs of the Hawaiian republic, sailed for Honolulu today.

Mr. Hatch is rushing home to lend his assistance to his government. He deplores the condition of affairs at Honolulu and declares that Hawaii has many important questions to deal with in its coming history.

Incidentally, it was learned from friends of the minister that the Japanese question is becoming a serious one, and that the provisional government has not only had the royalists to deal with, but it has also had to use its force to suppress an uprising of Japanese laborers on the plantation of Ewa.

Ewa is a 20,000-acre grant, situated fifteen miles back of Honolulu. Several days before the revolution headed by Wilcox several hundred Japanese on the plantation made an attack on the overseer, who was nearly killed.

Several white men were pretty badly beaten by the rioters, and the police had to be called on for protection.

The Japanese minister will overrule the country," said the minister. "Every vessel from Japan brings in a large number of laborers, and the Japanese are commencing to think that they are the most powerful. They are quarrelsome and violent.

"Regarding the rebellion, I think it will be short-lived. The provisional government is amply strong enough to cope with the malcontents, and I expect to find the whites in complete control on my arrival at Honolulu."

"Wilcox has been stirring up strife for a long time. It is true that a great many of the royalists are English subjects. This may lead to complications, but an Englishman, who is sensible enough to know that there is no other course to pursue but to punish conspirators, whether the offenders be English, German or Americans."

PERIER LEAVES THE ELYSEE. Makes His Formal Exit from the Palace of the President in Paris.

PARIS, Jan. 21.—Ex-President Casimir Perier formally vacated his apartments in the Elysee palace at 11 o'clock today.

By order of President Faure military honors were rendered to the ex-president. As he appeared in the court yard the drum corps rolled out a salute and the guard of honor presented arms.

All the members of the ex-president's civil and military households assembled to bid him good-bye. He was dressed in a black frock coat and it was noticed that he did not wear the ribbon of the Legion of Honor. With his wife, who was accompanied by her two daughters, he entered a landau, drawn by two horses, and drove to his private residence.

Only a small crowd of people witnessed his departure, but nearly 100,000 people lined the route to cover their heads as Casimir-Perier drove away, a courtesy which he acknowledged quickly by bowing.

President Faure lunched at the Elysee palace for the first time today. He will take up his official residence there permanently tomorrow.

MURDERED FOR THEIR MULES. Americans Killed in Guatemala by Men Who Are Expecting a War.

The men were killed by a party of Chinese, who were waiting upon a committee of twenty-five white miners, who were given fifty dollars by the Chinese to go to the mine and get the mules.

COMBINED AGAINST BURTON

Kansas Senatorial Candidates Put the Santa Fe Attorney Against the Field.

LUCIEN BAKER THEIR CHOICE AT PRESENT Ministerial Union of Topeka Holds a Mass Meeting Which Two Thousand People Attend and Discuss the Situation.

TOPEKA, Jan. 21.—The anti-Burton caucus at 7 o'clock tonight nominated Lucien Baker, state senator from Leavenworth, for United States senator to succeed John Martin, general.

The fight, ever since the first general caucus last Wednesday, has developed into a bitter struggle between J. R. Burton of Dickinson county, who receives his support from forty-seven votes, seven short of the required number to nominate—and the field, with Major Hood of Emporia and Senator Thacher of Douglas county the next candidates in point of strength, with any number of dark horses mentioned for the anti-Burton people to unite upon.

Ever since then the anti-Burton men have been trying to combine on some one to best Burton, but no agreement has been reached. The question has been the sole topic of discussion in the hotel corridors, at the capital and on the streets.

Sunday the ministers in three leading churches preached on the subject of the selection of a United States senator, and a mass meeting under the auspices of the Ministerial union of Topeka was also held at the city hall, where over 2,000 people were present, where strong resolutions were adopted.
