

MEXICO IS LIKE PULLMAN

Says There is Nothing on Which to Base an Arbitration.

MUST HAVE HER TREATIES RESPECTED

Differences Were All Settled by Convention in 1852 and Guatemala Must Respect the Agreements Entered Into at That Time.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 29.—It is probable that Mexico will decline with thanks the attempt of the United States to interfere in the Guatemalan affair. The reception in this capital today of a telegram from Washington...

"In all such cases settlement of the matter at issue must depend upon the consent of the parties directly concerned," said General Diaz. While giving no hint that Mexico will not listen to a proper extent to the voice of the United States in the matter...

The two Republics of today contain an editorial on the intervention of the United States in the Guatemalan dispute which may be considered as indicative of the general feeling in Mexico. It is as follows: "The telegraphic announcement from Washington that the United States had agreed to Mexico, mediate in the Mexico-Guatemalan question, created no little surprise and considerable dissatisfaction."

ST. LOUIS MERCHANTS URGE ACTION on the President's Recommendation. ST. LOUIS, Jan. 29.—The merchants' Exchange today passed a resolution, irrespective of the party feeling of its individual members, adopted the following unanimously: Whereas, the widespread distress which prevails over the entire country, and the general prostration of its commercial, agricultural and industrial interests has not been so prolonged...

Message Finds No Favor in Utah. SALT LAKE, Jan. 29.—The president's message on the currency question does not meet with favor in Utah. It is felt that this city, so far as its views are concerned, they look upon the bond issues as a necessary evil, but they do not favor any permanent result. Naturally they are in favor of the ultimate continuation of the currency question, but they are in favor of the ultimate continuation of the currency question...

Denver Bankers Oppose More Bonds. DENVER, Jan. 29.—The bankers of Denver are unanimous in expressions against any further issue of bonds by the government. HEARING OF VIGILANTES AT O'NEILL

Dell Akin and Dr. Gilligan on the Stand, but the Expected Sensation Did Not Develop—Many Witnesses to Appear.

O'NEILL, Neb., Jan. 29.—(Special Telegram.)—There was no sensational development in the preliminary examination of the men accused of murdering Barrett Scott. It is expected that the examination will occupy the attention of the court all week and perhaps longer. Only two witnesses were upon the stand this morning, and at that rate, for a day, it would take nearly three weeks, as there will be about sixty witnesses...

THE HOUSE HAS PASSED THE CONSTITUTION. The house and senate committees on constitutional amendments have today reported to the house a bill for the amendment of the constitution of the state of Nebraska...

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 29.—There was a striking scene in the parlors of the Hotel Argon today when Mrs. U. S. Grant, who had stopped over here a day on route to Florida, received a large delegation from the Fulton County Confederate Veterans association. The old soldiers were introduced to Mrs. Grant by General Clement A. Evans, one of Lee's brigadiers and late candidate for governor of Georgia...

RECEIVED AT WINNIPEG. WINNIPEG, Man., Jan. 29.—What is known as the Manitoba school case has been a long and bitter struggle. It has had its share of all the passions and animosities which are attendant upon a controversy of this nature. It was represented, among other things, that the school law, which was passed in 1890, was a violation of the Canadian constitution...
