The question of temperance and its prevailing influence incorporated as a principal in the laws of a town has furnished food for thought to the greatest of minds. The sub-ject has been written and talked upon from immemorable, but it took the satirical of Author Charles H. "Wang," the greatest of all comic operas, comes to Boyd's theater for three nights commencing Sunday, February 10. Probably the first impression produced by Virginia Earl as Mataya in the coming production of "Wang" wi'l be her remarkable facial resemblance to Della Fox, to say nothing of her exact reproduction of the "pocket Venus" stage business. With all this she has a great part of that charm of manner that carries Della through and makes all the matine girls fall in love with her, Her famous song, "A Shady Nook, a Babbling Brook," is all the rage. Another number that will be loudly recalled will be, "Ask of the Man in the Moon," while the "Baby" song, with four pretty midgets tossing dolls, will take the house by storm.

ANOTHER PAVING MUDDLE.

Letting of the Jackson Street Contract May Cause Another Row.

On October 23 of last year the city council passed an ordinance providing for the paving of Jackson street, between Thirty-sixth and Thirty-eighth streets with Trinidad sheet asphaltum, the majority of the property owners petitioning for that kind of pavement. Bids were advertised for and a number received. At that time the Sherman avenue paving case had been carried to the courts paying case had been carried to the courts and a temporary injunction had been granted, which silowed Hugh Murphy, the contractor, to use any one of three kinds of asphaltum as provided in his bid. The Board of Public Works decided not to award the contract for the Jackson street paying until the Sherman avenue paying case was finally disposed of, in order to see if the petitioners had the state to specify what kind of asphaltum thay right to specify what kind of asphaltum they wanted.

Last month Judge Ambrose, in deciding the Sherman avenue case, held that while the property owners had the right to say what kind of pavement they desired, whether asphaltum, stone or other kind, they did not have the right to name the source from which the material should come. which the material should come.

In view of this decision the members of the Board of Public Works thought that they could not accept any of the bids for paying Jackson street with Trinidad sheet they could not accept any of the bids for paving Jackson street with Trinidad sheet asphaltum, and at a meeting Monday afternoon passed the following resolutions:

Whereas, The mayor and council, the city attorney, the city engineer and three of the Douglas county district judges, decided in the late contention as to the repaving of Sherman avenue, in paving district No. 589, that the abutting property holders in said district had the right to designate sheet asphaltum as the material which should be used in repaving the same, but had not the right to designate asphaltum from any particular securce; and, Whereas, The mayor and council, in letting the contract for the repaving of said district to Hugh Murphy, practically determined it to be the policy of this city hereafter to obtain asphalt pavement at the lowest prices possible in its first cost, without any regard to the source from whence the asphalt comes; therefore be it, Resolved, That the mayor and council concurring, that the bids received October 19, 1894, for the paving of Jackson street, between Thirty-sixth street and Thirty-eighth street, in paving district No. 385, be and they are hereby rejected, and that a readvertising for bids under the new policy is hereby ordered.

that when I was with the Spanish and Portu-guese Steamship company in '71, they used on board the vessels a patent fuel with great success, this fuel being prepared, I should judge, much on the same principle as that of Mr. Beck's. While I believe the fuel would be a success, I question very much if Mr. Beck could secure a freight rate to permit him to compete with the virgin coal from other mines. Any soft coal can be united in eggette shape with the use of creosote, tar and other products and be classed as anthracite, but whether rates could be obtained in order to permit this patent fuel being put on the market as a competitor of the virgin coal is a matter that requires practical demonstration. Very little is known of the method which Mr. Beck employs in uniting soft coal in cylinder or eggette shape. The bituminous coal, however, is first ground to powder, after which certain portions of the gas is extracted. The process is then reversed, so to speak, and the artificial anthracite Blood, Skin and Kidney Diseases, Fecomes forth in cylinder shape, which is easily handled.
