Wheat, Corn and Oats All Start Lower but Close Higher for the Day.

CORN SUPPORTS THE OTHER CEREALS

Firmness in Cash Gives Tone to the Future and Strengthens the Trading All Along the Line—Provisions Buffer a Slump.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14.—Wheat started weak, but strength in corn stayed the decline and may close higher.

There was weak at the moment of opening but strength recovered from that falling and became strong.

Provisions were weak and lower. Heavy hog receipts, lower prices at the yards and no buyers pickers caused the weakness.

Estimated receipts for Friday: Wheat, 2 cars; corn, 210 cars; oats, 150 cars; hogs, 31,000 head.

The leading futures ranged as follows:
