rine would be in Omaha for several days. Miller called upon her at the Paxton and the interview lasted for some time.

A reporter saw Dr. Miller yesterday and he said that his telegram announcing the coming said that his telegram announcing the coming of Mrs. Perrine came from Senator Mander-son, who had possibly learned from Mrs. Cleveland that her mother was to visit Omaha, and desired to have some attention bestowed upon her. Dr. Miller denied having conversed with Mrs. Perrine on the Morton-Boyd affair, and said that Mrs. Per-rine mergly came here to "look after some rine merely came here to "look after some property." Subsequent investigation re-vealed the fact that she had a regular agent here to attend to her realty affairs, and that was in Omaha two days. Federal attaches are reticent.

A man well versed in political doings, and democrat who has not had any ambition for office, stated positively to a reporter that Mrs. Perrine made inquiries about the "state historical society" affair, and that she was on a still hunt to get all the facts in the case, presumably to submit them to the president, in which event the democrat dialogue between the president and Secretary Morton

Death of Mrs. Broatch. Mrs. Julia F. Broatch, wife of ex-Mayor W. J. Broatch, died at her old home in Can-W. J. Broatch, died at her old home in Can-ton, O., Tuesday evening. Mrs. Broatch had been an invalid for several months, and a few weeks ago she was taken to Chicago, where a surgical operation was performed. After this her health improved for a short time, but the improvement was of short duration. Reaction set in and she rapidly grew works. She was removed to Canton, the place of her birth, and soon died, sur-rounded by friends and relatives. Internment takes place today, the remains being de-posited in the old family burying bround. Mrs. Broatch was 22 years of age, and had resided in this city many years, where she had hosts of friends. She was a very companionable woman, a devoted wife and a loving mother. a loving mother.

Why the Case Went Over

The absence of Judge Gilbert of the Ninth United States circuit court in San Francisco is given as the reason for the hearing of the Short Line receivership going over until March 11. The presence of J. M. Egan in Portland has also caused renewed interest in the rumor that the former chairman of the General Managers association is Judge Gilbert's choice for the receivership of the Short Line, should such a segregation be decided upon. Judge Thurston, it is understood, will jurisdiction of the lower court, which prac-ticians believe that Mr. Morton will be forced argue that the court of primary jurisdiction should have been permitted to pass upon this matter.

THIS TIME SMILEY WINS. this evening. End of Litigation that Has Been Courts for Years.

The long contested case of Connell against Smiley has been decided by the supreme court. The beginning of this litigation dates back some fifteen years and the final decision

The suit was for the possession of a tract of land near the fair grounds which was originally owned by Smiley. It was deeded by him to the Union Stock Yards company, with the understanding that the deed should be kept in escro and not recorded as a bona fide transaction. Ultimately the property came into the hands of City Attorney Connell, of the but Smiley refused to give up possession, ordered the dismissal of one of on the ground that the deed to the stock the assistant jailers and the appointyards company was never recorded and had no force in law. This view was sustained by the circuit court and the case was then taken to the supreme court on the ground that the circuit court had no jurisdiction. The su-preme court decided that the case was in the He then further pleased them all by ap-
