Engene J. Babcock as rector of this parish, on account of his continued ill health, the members of the vestry most gladily bear their heartfelt testimony to the faithfulness with which he has discharged his duties us our spiritual instructor, leader and pastor during the last three years sand a half. He has gone in and out among our people with unceasing industry, and his frequent and welcome visits have brought hope and sumhine to their homes and hearts. He has proved himself a devoted and self-denying rector at all times. He has preached the gospel faithfully, ably and carnesily and administered to the spiritual needs of our parish through the various offices and scaraments of the church with unflagging zeal and fidelity. We part from him as our rector and from his excellent wife and daughter with sincere and un-feigned regret, and we earnestly pray to Al-mighty God that health and strength may be prestored to him and that he may be spared for many years of usefulness to his family and the church. have adopted the following resolution:

Iowa Insurance Men Meet.

DES MOINES, March 14 .- (Special Telegram)-About fifty insurance men held a onvention here today. They are state and special agents of companies forming the lowa alliance. The object of the meeting was to organize a new state board. H. C. Stewart was chairman and W. E. Page secretary. The morning session was occu-pied by addresses by members of the gov-erning committee, of which H. C. Eddy, manager of the Commercial Union is chair-man. The merits of a state agents' asso-ctation, such as is in vogue in Illinois, were fully set forth. On motion, the chair ap-pointed a committee on constitution and by-laws, which was asked to report this afternoon. Nothing definite was accom-plished today, and the meeting will con-tinue tomorrow.
