MINOR MENTIONS.

Grand Council Bluffs. E. F. Clark, prop. Mayne Real Estate agency, 529 Broadway. There were six additions to the Christian church Sunday.

There will be confirmation service at St. Paul's church next Friday evening, at which Bishop Worthington will officiate.

Will Barnum reported to the police yesterday that his bicycle had been stolen from his place of business, 120 North Fifteenth street, in Omaha.

W. J. Whiting filed an information in the city clerk's office yesterday charging Sam Geary with driving his horses too fast. Both parties live at Cut-Off.

The arguments of the attorneys in the trial of the case of J. D. Edmondson against Baker & Co., the Swiss music box manufacturers, were heard by Judge Thornell yesterday.

A marriage license was granted yesterday to George Oler, aged 43, and Irene McCormick, aged 29, the former from Omaha and the latter from Lincoln. They were married by Judge Thornell.

Zeph Hughes, charged with passing counterfeit money, was released from the county jail yesterday by order of the United States marshal long enough for him to attend the funeral of his sister.

Mrs. C. H. W. Brown died Sunday night at her residence, 1145 High street, after an illness of over a month. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Congregational church.

George Wright bought the $150 wheel formerly ridden by Mack Goodwin for $5 at an auction sale on the street yesterday.

G. H. Hammond & Co. commenced an injunction proceeding yesterday in the district court to prevent Constable Autrey and Justice Walker from selling their wagon, which was seized a few days ago on a judgment rendered in favor of Henry Eisenman & Co.

A complaint was made to the city marshal yesterday that R. N. Merriam had been starting his horses. Marshal Canning made a raid on the Merriam place and found that the horses had vanished entirely, whether by hunger or by the door has not yet been learned.

J. C. Morey's attorney argued a motion for a new trial yesterday afternoon before Judge Thornell. The case was taken under advisement and a decision will be rendered this morning, after which Morey will be sentenced to the penitentiary if the court decides to grant a new trial.

An Omaha peddler who ventured to the east side of the Missouri last Friday lost a package containing $15 worth of clothing, which was found by a gentleman. The peddler has no record of the name of the loser, and the peddler cannot get his goods until he introduces himself.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jackson were pleasantly reminded of the fact that they had been married twenty-six years last evening by a number of their friends, who met at the residence of E. W. Gardiner, and then had a party on their own premises. The evening was spent in various amusements.

George F. Wright has returned from a trip to Chicago, where he went expecting to fix up the deal with W. A. Walker for the sale of the driving park. He comes back with less faith in Walker than when he went, and the deal, he thinks, has about fallen through. The amount of the deal, however, will go on in June without Walker as well as it would have done with him.

The Hall motion for a new trial will be argued in the district court this morning. The Hall case is the subject of the proceeding will undoubtedly be a hot one. It is rumored that Benjamin & Preston took charge of the defense, with the understanding that the money was to be paid to Hall's house and lot at the corner of Thirteenth street and Twentieth avenue, in case they cleared him, but were to get nothing if they did not.

William Copeland had a preliminary hearing yesterday afternoon in Justice Cook's court on the charge of assault with intent to kill. Samuel Richardson proved by the testimony of several witnesses that Copeland was quarreling over the possession of some barbed wire fence Copeland drew a revolver and aiming it at him pulled the trigger several times. Fortunately Richardson's weapon was one of the non-explosive kind, and he escaped injury. Copeland was bound over to the grand jury and his bond was fixed at $10,000.

The Cedars, or Seaters, who were enjoined at the instance of Nora Murphy from putting up a shanty on her land south of Omaha several days ago, have filed an information in a justice court charging H. C. Pomeroy with obtaining money under false pretenses. They claim that Pomeroy, who is believed to be a resident of Des Moines, had obtained $200, saying that he had a good title to it. He showed with the money, and left them to fight it out with Mrs. Murphy as best they could. The officers have been unable to get a glimpse of Pomeroy.

We have over $300,000 to loan upon improved Iowa farms. Farmers desiring loans can save money by dealing direct with us, thereby saving agents' commissions. We do not loan on wild lands, nor in Nebraska. Lougee & Towle, 235 Pearl street.
