SOME SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

John H. Colvin's Suit Against the City of

Jackgonville. WASHINGTON, April 1 .- The supreme Court dismissed the writ of error in the case of John H. Colvin against the city of Jacksonville from the United States circuit court for the northern district of Florida. Colvin claiming to be a citizen of Illinois, and the owner of property to the amount of $50,000 in Jacksonville, in May, 1894, applied for an injunction against the city and Mayor D. U. Fletcher to prevent the issuance of bonds for $1,000,000 on the ground that after the electors approved the issue payable in lawfu money the city council provided that it should be payable in gold coin. The court below dismissed the bill for want of jurisdiction and the supreme court dismissed Colvin's appeal. Justice Shiras explaining that since the question of jurisdiction of the lower

WASHINGTON, April 1 .-- It is said at the Japanese legation that the young Japanese who shot Li Hung Chang will probably be ent to the mines of northern Japan to serve his life sentence. The locality is much like Siberia. The unofficial reports of the sentence make no reference to the trial or conviction. It is understood to be a civil trial, as a military trial would have resulted in death. When the Japanese summarily punished those who attempted the life of the Russian crown prince, it raised an agitation in the Japanese Parliament, as the government was accused of crowding the trial, and not according the usual rights of defense, in Powder-not a cent for the deadly alum brands. BODY FOUND IN THE RIVER.

Picked Up on a Sand Bank Below Manawa -May Be an Omaha Cooper.

Two young men named Jenkins, who live about half a mile below Manawa on the Iowa side of the Missouri, were out hunting last Sunday, when they ran across the decayed remains of a man lying on a sandbar in the middle of the Missouri not far from their home.

W. C. Estep of Council Bluffs and Coroner lennings of Pottawattamle county were notified of the find yesterday and a wagen was sent down to bring the remains to Council Bluffs. After arriving at the undertaking rooms they were viewed by quite a number of persons. It was suggested by some on that the man might be Riley, the Griswold bank robber who shot Nick O'Brien and escaped. Deputy Shoriffs Hooker and Peter-son were summoned, but before they had time to advance what their opinion a card was found, which indicate a card was found, which indicated that the dead man was a member of the coopera' indicated that of the clerk of the county court yesterday for the purpose of continuing the checking of the books, but he did not get behind the counter. Frank Moores drew the line at that point, offering to give Ruan a clerk to wait on him and a desk outside of the paling. Ruan was compelled to accept the offer, as Auditor Tate said that was satis-factory.
