

SPANISH SOLDIERS IN CUBA

Determined Effort to Crush the Revolution in Its Incipency.

TROOPS SCATTERED ALL OVER THE ISLAND

Thirty-Two Thousand Armed Men of All Kinds Will Soon Be in the Field Against the Rebels—What the Autonomists Want.

(Special Correspondence to the Associated Press.) HAVANA, April 4.—A breakdown this morning a battalion of the Spanish troops marched out from the fortress of Cabana, which lies westward on the hills above Morro castle.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

There will be two grand divisions and two brigades in each division. The first division will be commanded by General La Chamba, new military governor of Manzanillo.

EXPRESSED SYMPATHY FOR CUBANS

Largely Attended and Enthusiastic Meeting at Jacksonville.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 4.—The spirit of war rose high here tonight at the big mass meeting in behalf of the Cuban cause.

The speaker then said: "Ladies and Gentlemen: I thank you for this reception. It may be the only one of its kind in this city."

Shouts of wild delight greeted his last words.

Pennington figured explained the situation in these words: "The old motto country, after trying to secure a loan from England and France, has failed."

A committee of five, appointed by the chairman and composed of Americans prominent in Florida, presented the following resolutions:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Cuban citizens here assembled, First, That they are in sympathy with the Cuban patriots in their desire to obtain freedom from foreign control and to secure the right of self-government so much prized by the Cuban people.

Resolved, That it is the duty of all lovers of free American institutions to express sympathy with the oppressed people and their desire to obtain freedom.

Resolved, That we urge upon the legislature of Florida the duty to formally recognize the Cuban patriots and their desire to obtain freedom.

Resolved, That we urge upon our federal government the duty of promptly recognizing the Cuban patriots and their desire to obtain freedom.

Resolved, That we urge upon all American citizens who sympathize with Cuban patriots to order that their moral support may be given to a good cause.

After further speeches, marked by enthusiasm, the meeting adjourned.

ROUTED THE COLOMBIAN REBELS

Government Troops Endure Great Hardship Before the Final Battle.

COLON, Colombia, March 27.—The following are the details of the battle fought on March 15 in the department of Santander.

It is said to have been the fiercest battle in the history of the republic of Colombia.

"MANGAQUE, March 22.—From February 22, on which date our forces started from Puerto Nacional, up to the 15th instant, the rebels were actively engaged in the place, they had to march on foot and half naked about 300 miles through mountainous and rugged places and over tracts of land which were almost impassable.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

ROCK ISLAND TRAIN ROBBED

Capture of Bill Cook Failed to Put a Stop to the Industry.

Passengers' Money and Jewelry Taken

Five Men Hold Up a Rock Island Express at Midnight in Oklahoma and Secure Three Hundred Dollars in Cash.

HENNESSY, Okla., April 4.—The Rock Island train was robbed last night at Dover. The robbery occurred at 11:50, twenty miles west of Dover. Train No. 1 was held up by five mounted men, who ordered the baggage man to open the door of the baggage car.

They refused and the robbers fired twelve shots through the door, wounding the baggage man in the wrist. The robbers then broke open the door with their rifles and did not succeed in getting any plunder from the baggage. They hurriedly proceeded through the smoker and one day coach, securing about $300 in money from the passengers.

In addition to the $300 in cash the robbers also obtained from their victims in the day coach watches and rings to the value of $200.

Further details of the robbery were given by the baggage man, who stated that the train was leaving Dover, and covering the engine and train, commanded them to stop at a certain point about two yards from the water tank.

The engineer, a little excited, went about one-fourth of a mile before stopping and narrowly escaped losing his life in consequence. One of the robbers, just missing him and the ball going through the cab window.

Conductor James Mack, not having been shot, started to find out what was wrong, and when he approached the engine and was told to climb into the engine.

They robbed him and were then joined by the robbers who had come up to the train. A demand was made for Express Messenger Jones to open his pocket.

This was refused and a fusillade followed, in which the messenger was wounded in the wrist. He attempted to get to the opposite side of the car, but was captured by a guard on that side and made to stand up.

They made to open the safe, but this could not be done. Then they proceeded to rob the passengers as already stated.

When the train arrived at Kinshofer, Sheriff Burchett and United States Marshal Madson of El Reno were notified and carried to the place of the holdup by a special train.

They found the trail about a mile west of Dover, where the Cimarron river had been crossed and are still following it.

They are supposed to have been carrying a large quantity of money and horses was rushed to Dover from El Reno and the country is being scoured by regular marshals and detectives.

Detective Sutton of Wichita, Kan., has also gone to the scene.

STORY OF THE MESSENGER. TOPEKA, April 4.—Messenger J. W. Jones, one of the train crew, was wounded in the Rock Island robbery, gives this account:

"When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

When the train was brought to a standstill I opened the express car and saw what was up. At that moment I saw seven men rise up from the grass in a little ravine along the track.

REMEMBERED BY AN ENGLISHMAN

Lick Observatory Receives a Valuable Addition.

SAN JOSE, Cal., April 4.—The director of the Lick observatory today received a telegram which announces that Hon. Edward Crossley, lately a member of Parliament for Halifax, England, proposes to present to the Lick observatory his great three-foot reflecting telescope, with its dome and all its apparatus.

Mr. Crossley, himself an enthusiastic amateur astronomer, has offered to the Lick observatory his great three-foot reflecting telescope, with its dome and all its apparatus.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

Mr. Crossley's offer is well known to the astronomical community and is a practical recognition of the fact that California is the seat of the greatest astronomical observations, as has been fully proved by the experience of the past seven years.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

Mr. Crossley's offer is well known to the astronomical community and is a practical recognition of the fact that California is the seat of the greatest astronomical observations, as has been fully proved by the experience of the past seven years.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

Mr. Crossley's offer is well known to the astronomical community and is a practical recognition of the fact that California is the seat of the greatest astronomical observations, as has been fully proved by the experience of the past seven years.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

Mr. Crossley's offer is well known to the astronomical community and is a practical recognition of the fact that California is the seat of the greatest astronomical observations, as has been fully proved by the experience of the past seven years.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

Mr. Crossley's offer is well known to the astronomical community and is a practical recognition of the fact that California is the seat of the greatest astronomical observations, as has been fully proved by the experience of the past seven years.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

Mr. Crossley's offer is well known to the astronomical community and is a practical recognition of the fact that California is the seat of the greatest astronomical observations, as has been fully proved by the experience of the past seven years.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

Mr. Crossley's offer is well known to the astronomical community and is a practical recognition of the fact that California is the seat of the greatest astronomical observations, as has been fully proved by the experience of the past seven years.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

Mr. Crossley's offer is well known to the astronomical community and is a practical recognition of the fact that California is the seat of the greatest astronomical observations, as has been fully proved by the experience of the past seven years.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

Mr. Crossley's offer is well known to the astronomical community and is a practical recognition of the fact that California is the seat of the greatest astronomical observations, as has been fully proved by the experience of the past seven years.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

Mr. Crossley's offer is well known to the astronomical community and is a practical recognition of the fact that California is the seat of the greatest astronomical observations, as has been fully proved by the experience of the past seven years.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

Mr. Crossley's offer is well known to the astronomical community and is a practical recognition of the fact that California is the seat of the greatest astronomical observations, as has been fully proved by the experience of the past seven years.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

Mr. Crossley's offer is well known to the astronomical community and is a practical recognition of the fact that California is the seat of the greatest astronomical observations, as has been fully proved by the experience of the past seven years.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

Mr. Crossley's offer is well known to the astronomical community and is a practical recognition of the fact that California is the seat of the greatest astronomical observations, as has been fully proved by the experience of the past seven years.

The addition of this great reflector to the equipment of the Lick observatory, which already possesses the great three-foot reflector, makes the instrumental outfit of Mount Hamilton decidedly superior to that of any other observatory in the world.

KILLED BY CASPER'S MAYOR

Man Who Was on the Panel Gives the Officers Some Pointers.

CARROLLTON, Mo., April 4.—The Taylor jury is still out, without any immediate prospect as the jurors are waiting for the return of the Meeks family, who learned that the jury stands seven for conviction and five against.

At 1:30 this afternoon the jury sent for Judge Rucker, and the foreman, William Freeman, notified him that the jury could not agree on the verdict.

There is now no doubt that the jury has been tampered with. Sidney Miller, prosecuting attorney for Carrollton, went to receive a statement from Charles Dickinson, who was on the panel from which the jury was chosen.

Dickinson is very damaging to the defense. Dickinson swears that on Monday night before the trial began Jacob S. Williams, cashier of the Bank of Tina, went to his farm house and said that if, in case he should be called as a juror, he would stand out for acquittal there would be big money in it for him.

Williams said that if he would stand out for acquittal there would be big money in it for him, and that he would see that the money was paid.

The next day, Dickinson says, he was approached by Rich Williams, who is now on the jury. Dickinson says that he had been made by Williams. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

CONFIRMED STORIES OF BRIBERY

Man Who Was on the Panel Gives the Officers Some Pointers.

CARROLLTON, Mo., April 4.—The Taylor jury is still out, without any immediate prospect as the jurors are waiting for the return of the Meeks family, who learned that the jury stands seven for conviction and five against.

At 1:30 this afternoon the jury sent for Judge Rucker, and the foreman, William Freeman, notified him that the jury could not agree on the verdict.

There is now no doubt that the jury has been tampered with. Sidney Miller, prosecuting attorney for Carrollton, went to receive a statement from Charles Dickinson, who was on the panel from which the jury was chosen.

Dickinson is very damaging to the defense. Dickinson swears that on Monday night before the trial began Jacob S. Williams, cashier of the Bank of Tina, went to his farm house and said that if, in case he should be called as a juror, he would stand out for acquittal there would be big money in it for him.

Williams said that if he would stand out for acquittal there would be big money in it for him, and that he would see that the money was paid.

The next day, Dickinson says, he was approached by Rich Williams, who is now on the jury. Dickinson says that he had been made by Williams. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men in Carrollton. There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case.

There is great indignation in Carrollton over the case. Dickinson is one of the most prominent men