IMMIGRATION BILL IS PASSED.

INTELLECTUAL OPPOSITION IN THE SENATE TO MAKING A NEW HOUSE. LINCOLN, April 4.—(Special.)—The senate commenced its sixty-eighth day with a call of the house over the immigration bill. The bill was read the second time and referred to the committee on judiciary yesterday. That committee returned the bill to the senate last evening with a favorable report, but the report was not read. It was presented as the first piece of business this morning. The judiciary committee recommended that the bill be passed just as it came from the house, and that it be advanced to third reading.

Sprecher objected. He said that the bill proposed to create another state officer and to entail a large burden of expense upon the state. The duties of the office proposed properly belonged to the present officer. Instead of creating a new office, the wisest thing to do would be to strengthen an office already created.

Pope said that in his opinion the bill was one of the most important considered by the legislature at the present session. In present condition Nebraska needs a strong immigration bureau more than ever in her history. As far as the labor commissioner was concerned, he was not in a position to do more than place the work in the hands of some man who would be able to attract people to Nebraska instead of driving them away.

Mr. Dyer, who is the lieutenant governor, said that the bill was a very important one and that he had already had it before him in the legislature. He said that he had already had it before him in the legislature. He said that he had already had it before him in the legislature.

the support of the National Guard. The bill was passed. The senate then went into committee of the whole, with McKesson in the chair, to consider the claims appropriation bill.

The reading of the claims bill continued with frequent interruptions. The speaker, when Graham moved that the committee be reported and the bill be taken up, the speaker said that it was his duty to report the bill back to the senate with the recommendation that it do pass. After some little discussion the motion was agreed to, although the reading of the bill had not been completed.

AFTER HAINH ALSO. On motion of Black the sergeant-at-arms was directed to inform the senate that the bill, as amended, is ready for consideration. The motion was agreed to unanimously.

After house roll No. 208 had been considered in committee of the whole Lindsay created a diversion by moving that house roll No. 246 be taken up. The motion was agreed to. The bill was then taken up and passed.

Before adjourning the senate adopted a resolution of Watson directing the secretary to have a portrait of the late ex-Lieutenant Governor E. C. Carns of Seward, the frame to bear a plate inscribed with a suitable inscription and to have the portrait placed in the office of the deceased lieutenant governor.

JOHNSTON IS AFTER A FAT PLACE. Secret of the Populist Vote Against Governor Holcomb is Now Out. LINCOLN, April 4.—(Special Telegram.)—Barney J. Johnston, populist representative from Nemaha county, wants to be one of the three members of the state board of Transportation at a salary of $2,000 a year.

This fact has been brought out by his vote yesterday against sustaining the veto of the Omaha Fire and Police commission bill. The law compels the board, which comprises the state auditor, attorney general, secretary of state, treasurer and commissioner of public lands and buildings, to appoint one populist member, and Johnston is anxious to be that member.

He declared he wanted nothing better with him to go before the people than the record of the great "business session" of the Twenty-fourth legislature. In explaining his resolution to the speaker, he said that he had secured him of having a $100,000 bill, and he had secured nothing of the kind.

Burns of Lancaster volunteered the suggestion that Mr. Rosewater had already stolen the speaker's money. Now the fact is that Speaker Richards was not strictly truthful in his allusion to the $175,000 amount of the fact that the secretary of state, Allen had purchased two such ornaments, one for the speaker and one for the president of the senate and that Supply Clerk Wright had sent them both back to the State journal company, in company with about $250 worth of other extravagances.

The resolution against the common petty larceny having failed to prevail, Harris sent the speaker a resolution authorizing the secretary of state to put a price on the $50,000 and dispose of them to such numbers as desired to purchase. The resolution prevailed.

In Need of Seed Grain. NORTH PLATTE, April 4.—(Special.)—Carefully prepared lists in the hands of the county commissioners show that over 900 families in this county will need seed grain for spring planting. Owing to the lateness of the season very little wheat will be planted. It is the purpose of the commissioners to purchase and furnish seed corn largely and a smaller proportion of potatoes, oats and barley. Although the rains that visited the eastern part of the state failed to materialize, there has been much moisture in this section, the ground is in fair condition for planting and much valley land has already been seeded.

Several Lives Threatened. OIBELL, Neb., April 4.—(Special.)—Yesterday morning when J. Vanvolkenburgh of this place went to his well to draw water, he found a bottle lodged in the curbing. Upon examination it was found to have contained quick silver, the contents having been shown that it had been obtained at Hanover, Kan. The supposition is that it was a case of attempted poisoning, and as several farm boys were seen near the well the results might have been serious.

Party Lines Were Drawn. CLAY CENTER, Neb., April 4.—(Special.)—The village election passed off very quietly although a large vote was polled, occasioned by the party lines trying to infect party politics into local affairs, which heretofore has been a thing to be avoided. The election was a large majority of four republicans and one democrat as trustees, George Haverling, J. H. Eller, A. B. Perkins, C. W. Wood and J. A. Redick.
