COMMITTED TO SECTARIAN PROSCRIPTION.

The republicans of the legislature have by their votes committed the party to the policy of sectarian proscription and intolerance, which constitutes the avowed aim and object of the American Protective association.

As if the question involved were whether or not the injunction served a useful purpose? No one will deny that it was intended to benefit. From the standpoint of the strikers, however, its usefulness is open to serious doubts.

Spain has been endeavoring to negotiate a loan and has met with failure both in London and in Paris. The discrediting of Spanish finances by English and French bankers may be regarded as insuring failure in the event of negotiations being undertaken in any other quarter.

hearty and full sympathy with this class. Therefore nothing can be expected in the interest of bimetalism from Great Britain until there is a change of government.

The finance committee of the city council takes direct issue with the city attorney upon the question of responsibility for the expenditure of municipal appropriations.

Almost every broken down journalist who has thoroughly played himself out in Omaha usually drifts across the river to blossom out as editor-in-chief of an antediluvian sheet that has just emerged from the hands of a receiver.

The present Legislature has not done as much for the good of the people of the state as could have been done by the average legislator in any other state.

England is engaged in a war in the remote ranges of the Hindu Kush mountains, India, a potentate there having recently died, and the British empire is the august demand of the British empire.

political machine. But if the proposed Churchill-Russell police commission should fail to get control of the police appointments, and the increased pay should go to the men now on the force...

The city comptroller thinks he sees an additional year to his term within grasp as a favor at the hands of the legislature. The legislature may attempt to supplant the voice of the people temporarily, but the people are bound to be heard in the end.

The charter gives the Board of Health the right to call upon the police department for assistance in enforcing the health ordinances and regulations of the city. Why employ inspectors to do what the police are able and willing to do without extra pay?

There are rumors in the air that Minister Williams has left London temporarily or indefinitely. Let us hope it is indefinitely. There is no occasion for sustaining a minister who has been so grossly disgraced.

IOWA PRESS COMMENT.

Des Moines Leader: It is given out that the friends of Senator Harlan are active in all parts of the state, and are determined to push "the old man" to the front this time.

Des Moines Capital: Iowa republicans have a number of excellent men aspiring to the office of governor. In the list is Hon. W. M. Farland, the present secretary of state, whose friends are pushing him with great vigor.

FIGURING ON THE CHAIRMAN

Republicans Will Take the Direction of Affairs in the Upper House.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—A report has recently been circulated from Washington to the effect that when the reorganization of the senate shall be made, as it is generally conceded that it will be by the republicans at the beginning of the next session of congress, Senator Morrill, who stands at the head of the republican membership of the finance committee, will retire in order to allow Senator Sherman to be made chairman.

RIVAL FOR THE BELL MONOPOLY.

New Telephone Company Being Organized with Substantial Backing.

CHICAGO, April 4.—The Times-Herald says: What the Bell Telephone company has been fearing since its patents expired has now assumed definite shape. This is nothing more or less than a competing concern in process of construction, the mission of which will be to fight the Bell people in the entire territory where they operate.
