Every Woman is an Unbeliever.

She can't believe, to-begin with, can do so much. She hears that everybody is using it; finally she tries it. It does all she's heard of; it saves all thatoshe's been told. She takes comfort in using it. But She can't believe that so much be done safely. She consults those who have used it for years. She finds that Pearline has been tested and proved in a hundred ways; that it's harmless to hands or fabric; that it's as safe as good soap. Then

She can't believe that she without it. She has less to do, she gets more done-and it's all done better. Her clothes last longer-they're not rubbed to pieces. Her housework is easy; her time is her own. She believes in Pearline, and tells her friends about it-(that's the most effective kind of advertising).

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this Beware is as good as " or " the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, if your grocer sends you an JAMES PYLE, New York.
