DROWNED IN CUT-OFF LAKE. Boat Caps zes and George Mack and Mrs.

Suste Buffman Go to the Bottom. Yesterday afternoon shortly after 2 o'clock George Mack and Mrs. Susie Hoffman, colored, were accidently drowned in Cut-Off lake. The accident occurred almost in the center of the sheet of water between Swift's ice house and the pavillion at Courtland

The accident was seen by some of the employes of the ice house, and they immediately started to the scene, but arrived too late to render any assistance. Both sank before they could be reached. The lake was dragged at once, and in the course of an hour and a half the body of Mrs. Hoffman was found in twelve feet of water. The search was continued for the other body, but it was almost 7 o'clock before it was brought to the surface. It was in twenty fest of water, not far from the place where Mrs. Hoffman's body was found. The searchers were unable to reach it with poles, and it was drawn up with a fish line, the hocks fastening into the clothes. The bodies were taken to the morgue.

The two had rowed to the center of the lake with the intention of anchoring there and fishing. Mack threw the anchor overboard, but the chain was too short to allow It to touch bottom, and the boat tipped over. The sudden careening seemed to frighten the occupants of the boat, and in their excitement they caused the boat to capsize. Mack was able to swim, and he succeeded in get-ting upon the bottom of the overturned boat. He was seen to immediately dive off, probably with the intention of rescuing Mrs. Hoffman. Neither was seen again.

The two were members of a party who went to the lake vesterday for an afternoon's fiet ... Mrs. Hoffman, Fannie Robinson, a friend who lives with her, and Charles Farmer started out first, Mack having arranged to come later. The three hired a boat from Boatkeeper Larsen, who lives on the west side of the lake, and rowed up toward the place where the accident occurred. Shortly after Mack arrived, and also hired Farmer and Miss Robinson rowed off about 100 yards from the other boat and cast anchor. Shortly after this the accident, which ended the lives of Mack and Mrs. Hoffman, occurred, Farmer being unable to ender any assistance.

Mrs. Hoffman was a good looking woman almost white, and about 38 years of age. She lived in the rear of 912 South Eleventh street, where Miss Robinson also lived. She was married, but her husband has not been living with her. She has a son 19 years of age. Mack was about 30 years old. He had been working as a porter at a saloon at the corner of Sixteenth and Corby streets. inquest will be held this afternoon a

BUCK EWING WINS THE STARTER.

BUCK EWING WINS THE STARTER. CINCINNATI. April 18.—The base ball season opened in Cincinnati before the biggest crowd ever assembled inside the ball park here. More than 13,000 people swarmed over the lot. The weather was a trifle chilly. The Reds batted hard from the start. Sullivan's two bases on balls each cost a run, and a brace of errors by Mc-kean and McGarr gave one more to the Reds. The rest were earned by hard batting. Up to the sixth inning Cleveland made but one single off Dwyer. In the sixth five hits scored them three runs, and in the seventh two more made Dwyer's place too hot to hold, He runs, and in the seventh two more made Dwyer's place too hot to hold. He gave way to Parrott, who was hammered from the start. Feeble batting, with two men on bases and nobody out and a mag-nificent double play by Parrott, Ewing and McPhee wound up the game, giving Chi-cinnati the victory by a bare margin of one run. Score:

COLONELS COME WITH A RUSH.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 18.—With the weather all that could be desired and a crowd numbering $,000 people, the opening of the base ball season here today was a successful one. It looked strange to see Pritz Pfeffer on the initial bag, but he plays it all right, and will be kept there for the present at least. Inks pitched a good game and kept the Pirates' seven hits well scattered. Shugart's home run drive in the fifth inning, with two men out, set the crowd wild. The sixth inning was a disastrous one for Pittsburg, and Killen gave way to Hart, who did much better. With three men on bases and no one cut, Sweeney, who had struck out the first time he was at the bat, rapped out a corking single to right and two men crossed the plate. Pfeffer repeated this later on, bringing two more in, and when the inning had ended the Colonels had made six scores. COLONELS COME WITH A RUSH.

The Cowboys This Afternoon.

The Kansas City Western League club will be here today for the first of a series will be here today for the first of a series of three games with the Omahas. The Cowboys are fresh from Lincoln, where they toyed with Buckerino's country boys like a cat toys with a mouse. The Walsh family, however, despite their high esteem for Manager Jimmy Manning, will submit to no liberties, and if he wins a game here he will know he has been in a fight after it is over. The teams will be: Rupert

Corbett Thinks it is Strange. INDIANAPOLIS, April 18.-James J. Corett sald tonight in reference to the statement from Fitzsimmons that Phil Dwyer was to assist him in raising the stake was to assist him in raising the stake money due May 1: "It is very peculiar to me that Mr. Dwyer has made this offer, as he has already an interest in my part of the stake. Of course it is none of my business what he does. However, 1 do not care where the money comes from, so long as the fight occurs. I am going to fight in September, no matter whom I meet. If Fitz does not make good his forfeit May 1 then I will arrange to meet Peter Jackson, if it is necessary to 50 to London to fight before the sporting GD of that city."
