SAFE BLOWERS AT EAGLE or mandatory injunction sought to eject the settlers on the Indian lands which they held by virtue of leases from the Flournoy com-pany. "This is certainly a very expeditious method of ejecting people, but we will con-tst," said Mr. Jones in speaking of the case. "The Flournoy company claims that the United States should proceed by regular process of law and by ejectment oust the settlers. One branch of the case involving the question of whether or not the United CONSIDERABLE BOOTY WAS OBTAINED FOREIGN MISSIONARY WORK ALDED. ONE HUNDRED GUNS SURBENDERED move settlers by force of arms is now before the supreme court of the United States in this same suit. It will not be decided until October. In the meantime the Flournoy prople are only anxious to hold on until Octo-ber, as their leases expire about that time. So they will contend for the principle that the United States must go into court and oust the settlers by ejectment. This will take the United States until October anyway." the mandatory ejectment writ is heard. The defendants will make a show along the line of the inequitableness of these alleged discriminations," said Mr. Jones.

Dried Fruit Case from the Soldiers' Home Decided Against the Contractors.

LINCOLN, April 19 .- (Special.)-The Board of Purchase and Supplies held another meeting today to examine into the charges made against Raymond Bros. of selling inferior dried fruit to the Sailors' and Soldiers' Home, and, whe lives in East Lincoln, and the Grand Island, Yesterday Land Commissioner Grand Island. Yesterday Land Commissioner mother of several children. For the past Russell wrote to Commander Wilson to forward samples of the fruit shipped to the home by Raymond Bros. He concluded, however, to follow the letter up in person, and appeared before Adjutant Howe and asked but by prompt measures her life was saved. for samples of the fruit complained of. These he brought to Lincoin with him, and the board met this afternoon. There were present, of the board, Governor Holcomb. ent, of the board, Governor Holcomb, Sec-retary of State Piper and Land Commissioner Russell. The board also summoned as ex-perts O. J. King, B. F. Reagan and William Hoatling, well known grocers of Lincoln. One of the Raymond brothers and Adjutant Howe were present at the examination, but all except the board and the experts were excluded during the final deliberations, Samples of the fruit on which the contract was let were on hand, together with the Grand Island consignment and some other goods se-cured from local stores in Lincoln by Adutant Howe. The discussion was a longed one and was not terminated until after 5 o'clock this evening. It was developed at this investigation by the expert grocers that the dried apricots were not the growth of 1894, nor were the ratains "four crown" goods, as contracted for by samples shown the board by Raymond Bros. "Four crown" raisins had been paid for and "two crown" raisins delivered. There is quite a difference between the price of the two grades, as there is also between 1894 apricots and those of an earlier growth. After fully considering the matter the board decided as there was such a small quantity, only $200 worth, not to return them, but gently insiduated that in the future dealers would be held in strict compliance with the samples exhibited to the board before receiving a contract. With this understanding Adjutant Howe

Conclusion of the Forty-Fourth Annual Meeting of the lows Medical Society. CRESTON, Ia., April 19 .- (Special Tele gram.)-The forty-fourth annual meeting of the Iowa State Medical society closed a three days' session at noon. It was the largest attended convention ever held outside of Des Moines. There were seventy-five new members added, the largest list in ten years. Thirty-six papers were read and discussed and eight received by title. The presence of eminent physicians and surgeons from Omaha, St. Louis, Chicago and other points added to the profit of the meeting The committee on legislation reported a bil which does not materially affect the state law now in force. The following amendments to the bill presented by Dr. Hooerbrook of Cherokee provoked quite a discussion.

First, Presentation of a diploma from th applicant is a prerequisite. Second, The members of the board shall be nominated by the medical profession. Third, No member shall be one of the faculty of a college. The society finally endorsed the amend-ments as the sense of the society, but not as a part of the report. The following resolu ion was adopted:

Resolved. That it is the sense of the low: State Medical society, now in session, that State Medical society, now in session, that the marriage laws of Iowa be so amended that any person or persons who have been adjudged insane or have been confined in an insane asylum be prohibited from enter-ing into the marriage relation.
