THE WEST AND THE INCOME TAX. According to Washington correspondents who have been looking into the facts disclosed by the income tax returns...

proposition in both houses of the legislature was, however, doubtless influenced by the very fact that makes the vote of this legislature relatively of little importance.

clothes had become ignited from the fiery death which threatened her. Let us give credit to Sullivan when he deserves it.

MISS LEITER WEDS A BRITON. An American Heiress Satisfied with a Husband Who is Not a Bankrupt. BRILLIANT CEREMONY AT WASHINGTON.

Distinguished Assemblage of Cabinet Officers and Other High Officials—Ceremony in St. John's Episcopal Church—Guests at the Breakfast.

BEAUTY TALKS. A Series of Practical Talks on the Subject of Woman's Beauty: How to Acquire It and How to Preserve It.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Amount. Includes 'Total', 'Less deductions for unsold and returned copies', 'Net sales', 'Daily average', 'Sunday'.

THE BETTER RELATIVE SHOWING MADE BY THE WEST IS NOT TO BE TAKEN, PERHAPS, SO MUCH AS EVIDENCE OF GREATER PROSPERITY AS OF THE FACT THAT THE PEOPLE OF THIS SECTION HATE TO TAX HAVE MORE GENERALLY MADE THEIR RETURNS.

A SOUTHERN CANDIDATE. The democratic party is confessedly poor in available presidential material. The list of men who may be regarded as having any claim to the nomination for the presidency, or any chance of being made the candidate of the party next year, is small, while there are serious objections to every one of them which would be found a heavy handicap in the campaign.

THE QUAKERS CATCH ON. Philadelphia Times. A big brewery strike is on in Omaha. A strike is not needed for beer. Things will come out better if it's just stopped.

Obstacles to Reorganization. To organize the democratic party on a paying basis it looks as if it would be necessary to wipe out the original stock entirely.

Does He Hear the Roar? It is reported that Cleveland may soon write another sound money letter, which implies that he doesn't care a cent how mad he makes the majority of democratic voters.

To Begin Publication in The Sunday Bee May 5. The writer of these articles is a woman of extraordinary intelligence and qualification who has made a specialty of this subject for many years.

THE BANKS AND THE PUBLIC OFFICERS NEVER MISS A LEGAL HOLIDAY. Any more candidates for places on the new fire and police commission? Don't be bashful. Trot 'em out.

WHAT SHALL THE HARVEST BE? All authorities concur in reporting a brightening outlook for fall trade. The ground for such prediction seems to be good in view of conditions known to exist throughout Omaha's tributary territory.

Wait for the Day Day Beauties. Chicago Tribune. If the details of the new treaty between Japan and China which have been cabled to this country are true Japan has certainly driven a very sharp bargain with her continental neighbor.

No Doubt of It. There is every prospect that many thousands of people will this season find new homes in the west. There is an abundance of room for them and an abundance of work.

JOHN BULL AND MONROE. Globe-Democrat. Ninety years ago a British fleet of 6,000 soldiers and sailors undertook to occupy the city of Buenos Ayres during a revolution, but the people united against them, destroying or capturing nearly half the force.

Dr. Hay lays great emphasis on the fact that he has been drawing a salary from the state for eighteen years. And yet he is not satisfied!

When it comes to music-lovers who appreciate the highest manifestations of the art Omaha will not take a seat behind any of her sister cities of the west.

President Cleveland's income is said to range from $90,000 to $100,000. Speaking about fighting changes, the Chicago Times-Herald is an artist in that line.

Missouri will voluntarily a legislature on its behalf for the period extending to-day. But Missouri voluntarily invited the application and must pay the piper, with incidents.

Life: In the Gloom—She (pointing at a star) says: "I'm not a girl (from the darkness)—Yes are mistaken, mum, it's O'Reilly."

Chicago Tribune: "In view of the extraordinarily high price of coal oil, Laura, said George, 'don't you think I'd better—turn the gas a little lower?'"

Chicago Tribune: "Daughter of Eve," quoth the young man, "will you accept an apple?" History repeats itself, Mr. Spoonmore, replied Miss Kajones, looking scornfully and inquiringly at his feet. "Will!"

General U. S. Grant was born April 27, 1822. Saturday of this week will be the anniversary of his birth. There can be no more appropriate theme for consideration by public school pupils than the life and character of America's greatest military leader.

Whether any serious effort will be made to bring forward a southern candidate is, however, to be doubted, for when the question of availability is considered from the point of view of practical politics, there is no southern man who can stand the necessary test.

With W. R. Grace's retirement from politics in New York, Messrs. Platt and Croker may be relied on to divide the spoils in a manner eminently satisfactory to themselves.

According to the income tax returns there is more honesty and truthfulness to the square foot in the west than in a square inch of the East. The average tax payer which at first squeaked against paying 7 per cent of the tax, turns up with about 29 per cent of the total.

Washington Star: "Doc—Was that a newspaper man you were talking to? So—No, it was a journalist. Didn't you see him smoking a cigarette?"

Washington Star: "Well, George, I suppose we'll go to the lake again this summer? 'Well, no, my dear, I don't think you have a baby, I don't think we'd better. Squalls are always dangerous in lake regions."

THE SUPREME COURT AND ITS ASSISTANT, the supreme court commission, are nothing if not prolific of opinions. When the number of judges shall have been increased by constitutional amendment it will keep the presses busy getting out supreme court reports.

At no time in ten years has the volume of merchandise been so low a point as it is today. Let the people of this state buy no more than what they need this fall and their trade must even then reach enormous proportions.

Usually when people say of a man that he is "bent" they mean that he is in a bad way, or out of the running, so to speak. But there is a man in New York whose name is Dennis toward whom the well known saying does not apply. He has just been given a snug political berth under Mayor Strong.

In Concord, N. H., there lives an old lady of 94 years who is so bent that it is the law of Daniel Webster. Her husband, like his distinguished brother, was a lawyer, and one of the foremost in New Hampshire. The old lady, whose husband is still remarkably good, was Miss Achash Pollard before her marriage to Ezekiel Webster.

Indianaapolis Journal: "Drawdy" shouted the guests had to force their way to the gentleman addressing him. "If it be all the same to you," he said, "I prefer to stand pat."

TOO TRUE. Kansas City Journal. Squander, and friends flock 'round you. They leave when your money's gone; Drink, and the world drinks with you. See snakes, as you see, on alone.
