FITZ IS CETTING GAY AGAIN

Having Finally Got His Own Money Up He Calls Loudly for Action.

GIVES JOE VENDIG A MLD ROAST

Champion Corbett Says He Will Meet Robert Any Place in the United States Refore Any Club-Jackson Has the World.

NEW YORK, April 22.—Bob Fitzsimmons expresses the belief that Joe Vendig is trying to give him a shade or two the worst of it in the arrangement for his fight with Corbett. Manny Friend, who represents Fitzsimmons, "Our money is up, but the Florida Athletic club has not made its guarantee of $5,000 and unless it does so shortly, we will take decisive steps. It looks as though it was a little afraid that it cannot pull off the fight and wants to crawl. We understood that the money had been posted long ago, but, to our surprise, Stakeholder Phil Dwyer says it is not. If the Florida Athletic club thinks it can peddle this fight about and dispose of it where it wants to it will get fooled. We shall have something to say about that. We are ready to fight, but certainly want all the parties to live up to the articles of agreement, which Vendig has not done."

CINCINNATI, April 22.—Referring to the hitch with the Florida Athletic club, Chamion James J. Corbett, who is filling a week's ngagement here, says: "I will meet Bob Pitzsimmens in any state in the union. Vendig has my permission to transfer the scene of operations to Texas, Colorado or Louisiana, or any other state. I will meet Fitzsimmons before any club in the country. out it must be for a purse. I will not go out of America to fight Fitzsimmons, and if it is not possible for us to get together here I will go to England and fight Peter Jackson. He has first call for a meeting on foreign soil. I once refused to go to London to settle with Jackson, and if I took Fitzsimmons there he would have the deadwood on me, and say: 'He was afraid of me; he would not meet me in London; It is any place in America for Fitz-simmons and any place in the world for Jackson. That's my platform. I heard that Fitzsimmons had his money up, but this is the first intimation I have had of trouble or the Florida club.' PITTSBURG, April 22.- In reply to Corbett. Bob Fitzsimmons announced here to night that he would fight the champion any where in the world, but does not believe the match can come off in Jacksonville, Fla., saying the fact that the Florida Athletic club was willing to forfeit $1,000 apiece to himself and Corbett was sufficient indication of that. He said the club had failed to put up the $5,000 forfeit, and he believed he and Corbett could compel them to pay it. Fitzsimmons said he believed the battle would come off in New Orleans, as that was the only place they could fight without interference. He says he wants to fight to the finish, and will meet Corbett in private for $10,000 a side. He elso suggests that the fight could take draw.

The big event of the night's amusement was then in order. It was a twenty-five round go between Johnny Connors of Spring-field, Ill., and Jack Madden of Brooklyn, at 105 pounds, bantam championship. Johnny Connors was seconded by Benny Murphy, Bob Farrel, John Sanders and "Shadow" Maber. Madden had in his corner Brooklyn Jimmy Carrol, Eddy Doyle, Jack Degmail and Happy Jack Smith. Madden seemed to have a shade the best of the early rounds, though a shade the best of the early rounds, though a shade the best of the early rounds, though a shade the best of the early rounds, though a shade the best of the early rounds, though a shade the best of the early rounds, though a shade the best of the early rounds, though a shade the best of the early rounds, though a shade the best of the early rounds, though a shade the best of the early rounds, though a shade the best of the early rounds, though the shade of the control of cose, and in the succeeding rounds it was give and take between them in a lively man-ner. In the twelfth round Madden's stock went up again when he jabbed Connors five times in the mouth without a return. Madden had the fight in hand from this time on. though Connors made a game attempt to force the fighting in the twentieth round. In round twenty-two Conners put a hot one on Madden's mouth, and got a left on the nose in return. Madden cleverly dedged two right-handers and was cheered for his quick work. No more blows were landed in this Madden led with his left, but they clinched. Madden led for the face, but was stopped. Madden went twice to the nose, and Conors put his left into Madden's jaw. A very tame round.

Round 24.—Both led, but were cleverly stopped. Madden put his left in on the face and Connors landed on back of shoulder. Connors tried to whip his right over, but it went around Madden's neck.

Round 25.—Both men clinched, and Mad-den led with his left, but was stopped. He sent his left into Connor's stomach, without a return. Madden jabbed Connors in the outh three times, and then got in on the wind, with his right and left on his oppon-ent's jaw. Throughout the fight there seemed to be something wrong with Mad-den's right hand, but Jimmy Carrol denied that there was anything the matter with it. When the gong ended the fight the referee declared Madden the winner.

Live Stock Exchange Adopts Some Resolutions Roasting Morton.

One of the most largely attended meetings of the South Omaha Live Stock exchange held in a long time was held yesterday afternoon. Secretary of Agriculture Morton and his department came in for a good scoring on account of Mr. Morton's recent statements regarding the rise in the price of beef. After discussing the question for some time the resolutions printed below were unanimeusly adopted, and show the sentiment of the live

We regard the present depression in cattle values, however, as only temporary, as the indications are that the next three months of this year will witness a further reduction in available cattle supplies of fully 50 per cent. We are satisfied that there can be no combine possible among the beef packers on account of the increased number of buyers in all the leading markets and the diversified interests represented by them; be it further

Resolved, That the secretary of this exchange be, and is hereby, instructed to forward a copy of these resolutions at once to Hon. J. Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture.

These resolutions regarding the inspectors were also adopted:

Whereas, The members of the South Omaha Live Stock exchange are thoroughly and heartily in sympathy with the system of inspection as instituted by the Department of Agriculture and desire to see this inspection as rigid and complete as possible in order that nothing but good and wholesome meats be put upon the market; but Whereas, Daily controversies are arising in the yards between the inspectors appointed by the Department of Agriculture to examine the live stock received here and the various dealers engaged in handling of said stock, greatly to the detriment of the business here, and.

Whereas, Much of the trouble is occasioned, as we believe, by the incompetency of the inspectors appointed through political influence, and not on account of their fitness for the position; therefore, be it

Resolved. That we, the members of the South Omaha Live Stock exchange, most carnestly protest against the unwarranted actions of these inspectors, and respectfully request that the matter be taken up by the department without delay and remedled by the appointment of good, experienced men, who will render good service to the department, in the end that justice may be done to producers, consumers and all concerned; be it further Resolved, That the secretary of this exchange be instructed to forward a copy of these resolutions to Hon. J. Sterling Morton, secretary of agriculture.

Cooper's Death Due to Accident.

Cooper's Death Due to Accident.

Yesterday the body of Fred W. Cooper, who lived at 1219 North Nineteenth street, second baseman of the Cieveland club, has revolted and refused to accompany his team to St. Louis teday. He has not signed a contract yet and refuses to do so unless granted a $300 increase in salary over that of last year. This was refused him. Childs wanted to go to Cleveland to tell his troubles to President Robinson, but a hot telegram from the Cleveland mogul evidently blighted his hopes in that quarter and he is apparently left.

CLEVELAND, O. April 22 President Robinson of the Cleveland hase ball club says that he has no knowledge that Second Baseman Childs has quit the team. He said: "Childs made a demand for more salary, but I refused to give it to him. If he has quit, he will stay out until I get ready to take him back at my terms. Childs arrived here from Clincianati and will see President Robinson tomorrow.

She said that on Sunday morning she left for church, leaving her husband at home, who was not feeling well. When she returned he was gone, she did not know where. He had been drinking hard of late, and had lost a position lately through drink. Mrs. Cooper went to church again, and when she returned her husband was still absent. Then turned her husband was still absent. Then she began to be worried, and sat up all night waiting for him to come. The first she knew of her husband's death was when a Hee reporter notified her at her home about 9 o'clock yesterday forenoon. After weighing all of the evidence the jury re-

Mrs. E. S. Dundy and Mr. and Mrs. Scip Dundy returned last evaling from an extended trip to Hawaii and Japan. They were detained at quarantine at San Francisco of account of two cases of smallpox which developed in the steerage of the stramship Colpec, upon which they were passengers. Mrs. Dundy put in the time at quarantine ruminating on the vagaries of human nature, thinking of home, and incidentally looking over her souvenirs, among which was a sword presented by a Japanese dignitary, a fan from Queen Lil and a valuable ciching, presented with the compliments of Captain Ed Howard. Judge Dundy met his family at North Platte and accompanied them home.
