ORDERED TO LEAVE POLAND

Mme. Modjeska Banished by the Czar from Her Native Land.

HER SPEECH D SPLEASED THE AUTOCRAT

Objectionable Language Was Used in an Address Made at the Art Institute in Chicago to the World's Cougress of Women.

LONDON, April 24.- A dispatch to the Chronicle from Vienna says the Russian government has expelled Mme. Modjeska, the well known actress, from Warsaw, owing to a violent speech she made against Russia in Chicago. On February 27 an order was issued by the Russian government forbidding Mme. Modjeska to fill an engagement at the Warsaw theater in consequence of a speech she had delivered before the Chicago Art institute on the subject of Polish women. Soon after this speech Mme. Modjeska was notified she could not appear again on the stage within the Russian jurisdiction,

In the course of her hpeech at Chicago Mme. Modjeska said: "I shall not dwell upon the developments of liberal institutions. They (the Russians) have laughed to scorn the belief that there was ever a Polish nation. They have restricted, if not wholly prohibited, the use of our language. Under such conditions could there be any organized effort of women. Why, it would be con-sidered a political crime; it would bring its punishment. I cannot tell what the Polish women are doing, because to do so would bring punishment upon the heroic workers.
"We have had a constant struggle for independence. An unholy alliance was formed to crush out our country, rob it of its free government and destroy our institutions. The gates have been closed. Men have destroyed Poland, but her women have stood guard at the gates of their country. It was she who preserved patriotism and honor in spite of Siberia and what is worse, the lash, to the everlasting disgrace of the Russian gov the everlasting disgrace of the Russian government. Our enemies make a great mistake if they think they have destroyed us. As long as a Polish woman lives Poland will live. We may have merited punishment for our frailties. God knows, maybe we have. We have heard much of the Roman and Spartan mothers. That is well; but I hope the world will hear more of the Polish mother. The Polish mother is waiting patiently for the insurrection and if there is tiently for the insurrection and if there is justice on earth she will not wait in vain." The speech was delivered to the World's congress of representative women.

Diet Confirms Prince Adolf's Title. BERLIN, April 24 .- A dispatch from Detmold, Lippe, states that the Diet of that principality has confirmed the regency of Prince Adolf of Schaumburg-Lippe, pending a judicial settlement of the dispute regarding the succession. Prince Frederick Walde-mar, the reigning prince of Lipp--Detmold, died on March 24 last. His will provided that Prince Adolf of Schaumburg-Lippe, a brother-in-law of Emperor William, he hav-ing married Princess Victoria of Prussia, should act as regent during the minority of the son of Prince Adolf, who will eventually succeed Prince Waldemar. Claims were laid to the throne by Count Ernest of Biester-field-Lippe. The federal court of Germany approved the appointment of Prince Adolf as regent. The matter will now be carried to the courts for final adjudication.

Nicaragua Affair Coming to a Climax. LONDON, April 24.—The C conicle says Corinto shows that the Nica riguan affair Corinto shows that the Nica iguan affair is approaching a climax. Nicaragua, it adds, obviously relies upon American sympathy, but surely if America takes these small communities under her wing, she must see that they maintain international observances. The Monroe doctrine is proper enough in its way, but it will hardly prevent a European power, which is not desirous of territ ral aggrandizement, from exacting reparation for insult and outrage.

LORD SHOLTO DOUGLAS' LOFE AFFAIR Infatuated with Young Variety Dancer and In Jail for Insanity.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., April 24.-Lerd Queensberry, who was arrested here yesterday charged with insanity, has been spending much of his time during the past week among the half-world of Bakersfield. Monday night he gambled in one of the local variety theaters and lost about $450. He is infatuated with a young song and dance artist named Addis and several times during the past week has proposed to the girl. He spent several hundred dollars for wine and gave her a marquese ring as a present. Yesterday morning he applied for a marriage license and took it to her. She told him she would have to wait until she came of age, which will be in a few months. Miss Addis de-clares she does not love the lord and, what is more, does not consider a marriage into his family at all an honor to ner. If she marries him at all it will be because he life she is now living.

Miss Addis' true name is supposed to be Mooney. She recently came here from a convent in San Francisco and was placed in the dive business by her mother, who recently ran the Brewery theater. A week ago the theater was closed and Miss Addis went to the Bijou theater, where she now is. She is a pretty Irish girl, apparently 15 years old about five feet high, has light blue eyes, dark brown hair and innocent face. She would never be taken for a variety actress and it is an open secret here that she dislikes the life and only remains in it because she is forced to. Lord Sholto Douglas was just going to bed after his night of gaming and lovemaking when arrested. He said it was a "most remarkable proceeding to arrest a man for lunacy on the complaint of one man." He is at present confined in the insane ward of the jail and must be examined before released. He was greatly excited, but refused to talk of his experience to reporters. The same friends who stopped his romance by causing his arrest also stopped the payment on over $300 worth of checks, so the lord's on over $300 worth of cheeks so the ford's losses are really only about $100.

Lord Sholto Douglass is still in jail and complaining bitterly of being held on the charge of insanity. His friends are paying off the checks he gave on the bank where he had no money, to save him from trouble. He still declares that he will marry Miss Addis,

ELECTED A LIBERAL UNIONIST. First of a Series of By-Elections in England

Causes the Loss of a Liberal Seat. LONDON, April 24 .- In the election for a Member of Parliament to represent the middle division of Norfolk, Mr. R. T. Gurdon, liberal unionist, who at the last election unsuccess fully contested this seat against Mr. C. Higgins, Q. C., home ruler, was elected by a vote of 4,111, defeating F. W. Wilson, radical, who polled 3,904 votes.

At the last election Higgins polled 4,069 votes to 3,599 polled by Gurdon. The byelection was made necessary by the resignation of Mr. Higgins, always a somewhat doubtful supporter of the government, who, for reasons which he has never made very plain, forsook the home rule standard and announced himself as a liberal unionist.

Mr. Gurdon's victory, of course, means the oss of a seat to the ministerialists. He won on a platform which may be outlined in the following statement which he made recently: "Instead of trying to destroy constitutions, or pull down churches, I would endeavor by useful social reforms, such as providing bet-ter houses for the working classes, finding them what land they may require at a fair price, and by making some provision for their old age, to restore to all classes of the community contentment and prosperity.

put an end to the brewers' monopoly abling a public house tenant to buy where he pleased. Wilson was also of the opinion that legislation must be continued until every parish not only had its own allotment, but also its small farms and holdings, "forming steps in a ladder by which the industrious and skillful may rise."

CHITRAL GARRISON LOST HEAVILY. Over One-Third of Its Strength Killed of

LONDON, April 25 .- A dispatch to the Times from Simla says the British column under the command of Colonel Kelly, which was proceeding to the relief of Chitral from Gilligit, reached Kodazi, twelve miles north of Chitral fort, on April 19. Upon arriving there Colonel Kelly received direct news from Dr. Robertson, British agent in Chitral, o whose succor the British force has been hastening, that Sher Afzul, who captured the town of Chitral, had fled with all the besiegers of the forts. Dr. Robertson re-ported the casualties during the investment of the forts to which he retreated upon the capture of the town were nine killed and sixty-two wounded. He and Captain Campbell were severely wounded. Captain Baird was killed. Lieutenant Gurdon, who was reported killed, is still alive. The garrison lost over one-third of its strength, as there were only 250 troops and seven officers there. SIMLA, April 25 .- Dr. Robertson report that Colonel Kelly reached Chitral Thursday last. He states the condition of the fort was not hopeless until March 3. DURRANT MAY YET GET OFF Sholto C. Douglas, son of the marquis of Case Against Him is Not as Strong as Had Been Supposed.

POLICE ARE FEELING DISAPPOINTED

Their Witnesses Fail at the Critical Times and There is Little Hope of Proving Identification - Circumstantial

Evidence Very Strong.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—The Emannel Baptist church murders-the killing of Miss Blanche Lamont on April 3 and Miss Marian Williams on April 12-may go down as unsolved mysteries in the criminal annals of San Francisco. The police have wants her to and that she may escape the gathered much evidence, but it is still circumstantial, and the witnesses of the state under pressure of rigid examination have not held so firmly to their statements-they wavered in the matter of identification when planed down. The result of the second day's preliminary examination led Chief of Police Crowley to remark that it was rather disappointing.

> Certain it is that Durrant, the medical student accused of the murder of Marian Williams, has not lost his assurance or nerve. His demeanor is so peculiar, so enigmatical, that the conclusion forces itself upon the observer that he is either a most consummate menster or a most cruelly wronged man.

The police have abandoned their search for additional evidence and say they have the net woven good and strong around Dur-Mrs. Amelia Voy testified that Miss Williams came to her house on the afternoon of the murder and left about 8 o'clock alone. Mrs. Voy was not allowed to tell where Miss Williams was going. Mrs. Voy identified the clothes worn by the dead girl when she left the house and which were found on the murdered girl.

Adolph Hobs of Oakland testified that he had seen Durrant at the ferry April 12 in company with a young lady smaller than

HEARD A NOISE IN THE CHURCH. Dr. Gibson, the next witness, spoke in a loud, clear voice. He had seen Durrant Good Friday night at the Christian Endeavor meeting at Dr. Vogel's home. He thought Durrant came to the meeting about 9:30 o'clock, after the conclusion of the business meeting. Durrant remained until the party ceting. Durrant remained until the party broke up. Witness had seen Durrant alone in the library of the church on March 17. Witness was at the church on the morning that the body of Miss Williams was found. He heard a noise in the church, but did not investigate. He saw Miss Williams for the last time to his certain knowledge March 2 in the Sunday school room, when she told him she was going away and bade him good

A new witness is Dennis Welch, an Alameda policeman, who said he saw Durrant and Miss Williams together in Alameda on several occasions about two weeks prior to the discovery of the young lady's body in the Additional light has been thrown on the murderer of Marian Williams, Searchers have found blood stains in the church, showing that the murderer had made his way in lay the mutilated body, to the wash room back of the pulpit in the rear end of the church. The points of bloody fingers were seen at intervals. The extent of the blood stains in the wash room goes to prove that the murderer had no light while washing Mr. Wilson, the defeated candidate, an-accounced that if elected he would do all he actions prove him to be, would not have spattered so much blood around if he could have seen what he was doing. And it is evident if he had a light he would not have

Durrant is making strenuous efforts to prove an alibi in the Lamont case, by attempting to prove that on the day Miss Lamont disappeared he was not her escort from school at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. Three young ladies have identified him as the young man they saw on a car with Miss Lamont at that hour. Durrant will call on his college classmates to prove that he was at a lecture at that hour. It is said that Durrant's notebook contains no notes of he lecture and that he obtained informatic as to the subject matter of the lecture from inother student. A statement is published this morning of E. Young, a trance medium, which says that several days ago she went into a trance and plainly saw Durrant in the act of killing his helpless victims. He was undressed at the time, she says, and after strangling Miss Lamont carried her body to the beitry. Mrs. Young says she believes that if the police will search the partition on the west side of the church, they will find the shoes worn by Durrant on the night that he is supposed to have murdered Miss Williams. She claims that after dressing himself Dur rant dropped one of his shoes in a pool of blood and that to avoid detection he hid both in the partition. It is not probable that the police will pay any attention to the medium's dream. IMPLICATES THE PASTOR.

A new discovery in the Durrant case has been made. When the body of Minnie Wil-liams was found in Emanuel church, in earthing for traces of the murderer, the po lice and reporters found a dark stain on the door of Rev. Dr. Gibson's private study, to which ho only, so far as known, had a key. The police decided that the stain was merely varnish and paid no further attention to it. Today, however, an Examiner reporter shaved off a portion of the supposed varnish stain nd a microscopic examination showed that it was blood instead of varnish. The mark of the door looked as if it had been caused by flirting a wet cloth against it, and was about eighteen inches from the floor. The supposi-tion is that the murderer in going into the study or attempting to enter it brushed his bloody clothes against the door and left the

MAY CLOSE STANFORD, UNIVERSITY. HAVE NO DESIRE TO COME IN Suit of the Government Against the Estate Causing Much Apprehension

SAN FRANCISCO, April 24.—The Bulletin this evening says: The teachers at Stanford university are looking for positions in other universities on the impression that the university founded by Leland Stanford will soon close its doors. They fear that the college will close because there is no money in the Stanford estate to pay for its maintenance, the estate being tangled up in a suit with the United States, which is going on in the federal courts. The probate court had no power to use the funds of the estate to keep the college on a firm footing. Some time ago the estate began to sell the brandles and wines that have accumulated in the wineries of the estate and the money derived from the sale was to be used in defraying the expenses of the institution. Meanwhile all the expenses of the university have to be defrayed from the private income of Mrs. Stanford. Just as the Stanford properties were being put on a first-class business basis Attorney General Olney started his big suit for $15,000,000 against the Stanford estate. This had the effect of checking proceedings in probate looking to a speedy distribution of Senator Stanford's estate and tying up things generally. It was this, so it was said, coupled with the previous feeling of unrest that has prethe educators to seek openings elsewhere, and set in circulation the report that the university is likely to be closed for a season. When asked as to this matter today Mr. Lathrop said: "It's all this government suit. If it succeeds it seems inevitable that the university must be closed. As it is it has tied up the estate in probate and pre-vented the distribution of the estate so that it may seriously embarrass us. We are pressing the sult and wish to have it determined as early as possible.

"It must be remembered that the university cannot pay its own expenses, for the institution is free. The boarding department manages to pay its own expenses, but that has nothing to do with paying the professors. There are now somewhere near 1.100 students connected with the university and about seventy men in the fac-

There is a Spanish gunbeat off the coast of Cape Maysi looking for vessels having arms and men for Cuba. The only reason I can give for this story is that the gunboat chased a small vessel which went in before us, but we were not interfered with. FEDERATION OF LABOR.

Executive Council Meets at Indianapolis to Settle Knotty Points. INDIANAPOLIS, April 24.—The executive uncil of the American Federation of Labor met in this city with President Mc-Bride in the chair. The body will remain in session until a number of important matters are settled. A letter was received from Owen Miller, president of the National Musicians' association, which meets at Cleveland next month, propounding a number of questions with a view of that body affiliating with the American Federation of Labor. The letter asked whether if this affiliation was decided upon the National Musicians' association could still preserve its national autonomy. Mr. Miller will be assured that his association shall retain its autonomy. assured that his association shall retain its autonomy.

Argument was heard on both sides relative to the differences existing between the American Federation of Labor and the Brewers' unions of St. Louis and Chicago, growing out of the refusal of the brewers' unions to pay the American Federation assessments due, because part of this assessment would be given to the Knights of Labor.

The nominal price of rye remains at 75 cents. Holders do not want to sell at that. A large sale of rye flour was made at rates ranging from $3.15 to $3.90. There were 300 barrels sold at the lower price.

advance it on the docket, so as to obtain a final decision of the question at as early a date as practicable. Several cases involving the same question are now pending in the lower federal courts. It is not anticipated by the Department of Justice that any serious objection will be made to the execution of the final judgments of the courts in the cases now pending there. It is believed that all the citizens in the vicinity of the Omaha and the citizens in the vicinity of the Omaha and Winnebago reservation will recognize and yield their obedience to the law, as it is administered in the federal courts. It is not anticipated that any conflict of juried tion between the federal and state courts will arise, nor is it anticipated that any necessity for recourse to any other than the civil settled. recourse to any other than the civil authority and the civil power will occur. BECK THOROUGHLY ENDORSED. A telegram from Captain Beck announcing the condition of affairs existing at the reservation and stating that he is in imminent danger of being arrested has been received at the Interior department and referred to the Department of Justice. The officials of the lodger office, while not inclined to take any Indian office, while not inclined to take any direct action in the matter, are very strongly in sympathy with Captain Beck. It seems from the opinions which are expressed daily at the Indian office that the agent will be upheld in all his actions looking to the removal of the illegal lessees. One official today said: "It is evident that the actions of the settlers in leasing the lands from the Flourney company were not legal and that Captain Beck is only enforcing orders so as to remove the lease." Captain Beck is only enforcing orders so as to remove the leasers in compliance with law. It is always the custom for these leases to be made though an Indian agent, who, sends them to the Indian office for approval, and they are not legal unless they obtain the sanction of the department. These leases from the land company were not in accordsanction of the department. These leases from the land company were not in accordance with the rules of the department and the only logical result is to remove the holders of the illegal leases. There seems to be a false impression prevailing among the settlers that the department is opposing them. On the contrary the office is simply them. On the contrary the office is simply upholding Agent Beck because he is endeavoring to put a stop to the illegal leases and persuade the settlers to make their action brough the agent so that the leases may dians-Trial Postponed. PENDER, Neb., April 24.—(Special Telegram.)-The citizens of Pender are in about as much danger of being startled by the wild war cry of the Winnebagues as the people of Omaha are. There is absolutely no excitement here over the Captain Beck-Flournoy Land company embroglio. There is not the slightest probability or even pos-sibility of the midnight heavens being Il-luminated with the lurid light of the burning homes of the settlers, and no danger of the spring air being pierced with the shrieks of the tomahawk's victims. Fact is there is no more danger of an Indian uprising in this vicinity than there is in the court of The Bee building. The citizens are moving along in their usual rut, as quiet, peaceful and undistrubed as a funeral procession, and the thoughts of war whoops and scalping knives are as remote in their minds as any possible human contingency could be. Even the trial of Black Hawk and Elk, the two Winnebago policemen who were to be tried here tomorrow for unlawful assemblage, but which hearing has been put off until Friday, morning, on account of tomorrow's being pay day at the Omaha agency, and which event will necessitate Captain Beck's ab-sence, is occasioning about as much stir as a feather cast upon the bosom of Cut off lake would. In fact, the people here do not seem to be interested in anything but getting in their crops and the glorious prospects of prosperity shead. The county is a glorious one, and clothed in its fresh dress of green is sufficient to awaken sentiment in of green is summent to awaren sentiment in the bosom of an anchorite. There are no settlers fleeing from their homes in fear of an Indian uprising. Despite the possession of legal permission Despite the possession of legal permission to marry, the young people will not enter the matrimonial state until some future date. This is the statement of the young man himself. The fact that Mr. Wickes has not been a permanent resident of St. Louis and his bride-to-be comes from another city gave ground for the suspicion that an elopement was contemplated. When Mr. Wickes was seen today at the residence of his uncle, Mr. Harrison, he denied this emphatically. "Miss Nelson is in the house here, and there will be no marriage far the present," was his statement. Mr. Wickes was unwilling to make any explanation of this peculiar state of things, but in answer to the question said that marriage was perfectly agreeable to both marriage was perfectly agreeable
