For the benedicts the bowling of G. H. Vaughan was in perfect keeping with his last year's form, while the batting of Messrs. John Francis and Frank Hilditch was of the highest order. Messrs. McFherson and Marshall started in well, but before their shoulders had be-come thoroughly loosened they were dis-missed for five runs each. The result of the match was a pleasant surprise for the winning side, while as re-gards the benedicts, although for these, too, the outcome of the game was a surprise, it could scarcely be termed a pleasant one. Then Brackett's brigade took a hand, and maybe they didn't make the fur fly. Carrish signalized his debut by soaking Mertes in the midrift with the ball. Then Major Strongarm picked up his sapling, and it was seen by the cold, hard took in his pic-like phiz that he intended to bust one of Col-ned Carrieb's durations over a second do onel Carrish's furniture van curves wide

The colonel was evidently inclined to the same belief, and he cautiously bent his wil-lowy form for a herculean effort.

Murray. STOCKDALE WAS A SNAP. BOSTON, May 4.—Stockdale was batted freely by the Bostons today, and particu-larly in the eighth inning, when three sin-gles and a double were made in quick suc-cession. The S-nators played a superb field-ing game, giving their pitcher excellent support. Attendance, 3000. Score: Armstrong kept his massive eye upon him, and lifted his tree menacingly. The ball finally crawled through the am-bient, and just before it reached the plate there was a report like a fat man sitting down on an inflated paper sack, and the astonished pigskin disappeared. The next moment there was a rambling crash heard coming from somewhere over in Council Bluffs. It was the ball bringing up against the back door of the Ogden house. There was no rapturous applause at this, and all the bouquets Mr. Armstrong re-ceived whon he came be threw at himself. Then Jack Farrell caught one of George's slowest fast ones and it hopped over the fence for a couple of cushions. McCormack folted out a single, Daniel Boland a pair, and Hickey a solitaire. La Rocque was gracious enough to fly out to Ulrich, but Peek-a-boo and Kellum and Mertes kept up the bombardment, the first two making singles and Sandow a brace

Here Carrish and Donnelly swapped places, and no sooner had Ignatius taken his posi-tion than Armstrong rapped him one in the Jaw that netted first. But the agony was about over. On Farrell's swat down to Old Hutch he was neatly doubled up with Mr. Strongarm, Paddy Miles and Little Wille O'Brien assisting the captin in the wondrous achievement.

This rally with the stick was good for nine runs, and they were the means of winning the game. The Omahas were game, however, and

The police assert that he committed suicide, but there is evidence to support the theory that he was murdered with robbery as a motive. His pocketbook was found lying two feet from his body and his pockets were turned inside out. This theory is also borne out by the statement of a colored woman hamed Kate Emory, who lives near the scene of the supposed crime. She heard several men arguing, and then a shot was fired, after which the deceased was found lying dead on the walk. In the dead man's pocket was found a receipt from Ancient. It is a fact beyond all question that the mass of the democracy and the best prevailing sentiment of the party in this state is emphatically opposed to the action taken by a misguided majority of the democratic members of the general as-sembly in this contest, and the indignation expressed in this city this morning over the indefensible action which overturns the peo-ple's election for governor is but an earnest expression of the general condemnation throughout the state. The democracy of the state condemns this action and will in due time and manner manifest that condemna-tion by rebuking these who have misrepre-sented the people of the party."
