BRITISH EVACUATE CORINTO

Soil of Nicaragua Finally Free of the Invaders.

SCENE OF ACTIVITY AT THAT PORT

Hundreds of Persons Assemble Along the Shore to See the Embarkation of the Marines-Cheers from the Multitude.

(Copyrighted, 1895, by the Associated Press.) MANAGUA, Nicaragua, May 5 .- (Via Galveston)-The Nicaraguan government having through the Salvadorean minister at London accepted the modified ultimatum of the British government the dispute between the two countries is practically at an end.

As stated exclusively in the Associated press dispatches yesterday, orders were cabled to Rear Admiral Stephenson, directing him to evacuate the port today. The warships presented a scene of orderly bustle this morning, giving evidence that something out of the usual course was going on. Boats passed frequently between the shores and the vessels, the little midshipmen in charge wearing an air of greater importance than usual. They were evidently bearers of communications to Captain Trench of the Reyal Arthur, who, upon the seizure of Corinto, had been appointed by Admiral Stephenson governor of the port.

The force originally landed by the British to hold the place was 400 blue jackets and marines, but on Friday when it became and their officers were withdrawn. Shortly after the fing denoting that religious services ordered to return to their ships. A few minutes later the British flag was hauled down they prefer it should be given to Great from the government building, and soon the were sweeping the heavy boats to the warships lying in the herbor.

rines, and a cheer went up as the noses of the boats headed harborward. DELAYED BY THE TIDE.

warships were soon riding at short cables, but their departure was delayed by the tide, which did not serve until the after-noon. It was expected the flagship would depart with the other two vessels of the fleet, but when the water was high enough on the bar to permit of the passage of the vessels, only the Wild Swan and the Satellite got under way, and with the red ensign of Britain snapping in the breeze stood out to sea. The flagship, Royal Arthur, pail out her cable again, and this fact was believed to confirm a report that she would salute the Nicaraguan flag when the government reposmessed itself of the port. As has been stated in these dispatches, Nicaragua has agreed to pay the $77,500 demanded by Great Britain for the expulsion of ex-Consul Hatch, and for other alleged dam-ages to British subjects arising from the recent troubles in the Mosquito reservation, but instead of paying the money at the canen's mouth, as the British government originally demanded should be done, she will pay it in Landon fifteen days

Two Captures of Detachments Made During the P. st Week. after the last vessel of the British fleet withdraws from Corinto. There are other ques-tions of damages to British subjects to be settled, but Nicaragua believes that if these questions are submitted to an impartial tribunal the judgment will be rendered in he

There is much doubt as to what the exact has been during the whole of the dispute, Many conflicting statements are made, some of which are to the effect that the United States, if her government protested at all against the occupation of Nicaraguan territory, did so in a perfunctory manner, while, on the other hand, it is claimed that it was through their efforts and in a measure under their efforts that Senor Medin the Salvadorean minister at London, such a successful part in the negotiations that led to the acceptance by the earl of Kimberley, the British foreign secretary, of the proposal that the smart money be in London instead of to Admiral Stephenson PROBABLE RESULT OF THE AFFAIR. The otion of Salvador in guaranteeing the payment of the indemnity, as in fact her course throughout the whole dispute, is very favorably commented on in official circles, and it is believed an entente will be established that will lead to results beneficial to both countries. It would not be at all surprising if this trouble with Great Britain should result in the formation of an alliance of Central American states for defensive put poses. There is no denying the attitude of Great Britain in her treatment of Nicaragua and in her dealings with other small powers has caused an awakening among the Central American republies to the danger to which they are exposed from British aggression. There s a strong belief here that Great Brit-ain will never submit any question that may arise between herself and the Central American republics, but she will herself sit in judgment on the question and then proceed force of arms to enforce her own decree. Not for years has there been such unanimity Not for years has there been such unanimity of opinion and. he Spanish-American republics, and the situation may be best summed up by comparing it to the flurry among a group of chickens when a hawk dashes down among them and depletes the ficek. Great Britain has successfully played the role of a hawk, and the flurry caused by her actions show no sign of subsidence. The governments of all the Central American states, and those of several of the South American countries, have telegraphed to President Zelaya suggesting the formation of a commercial union against the productions of Great Britain, and also against the transportation of Central and South American union could be definitely arranged and the terms be put into force quite a severe blow would be dealt to British trade, and eventnally the British government would find its treatment of Nicaragua had cost it a sum of money far in excess of the smart money

the Island of Formosa. HONGKONG, May 5.-The situation in the entertained for the lives of foreigners there The British and German marines have been landed at Apping, on the southwest coast, to protect the foreign residents at Taku harbor. The coast south of Apping is being patrolled by blue jackets in armed launches. The Black Flags are mostly unruly. The Black Flags are the irregular forces. They are not n China's pay, though sometimes she has a little authority over them.

Warfare is their profession, and they depend upon it for bread, and they raid natives and foreigners indiscriminately. They have 10 law but the commands of their leaders. They are much bolder and more warlike than the average Chinaman, and have little fear of death. The French were greatly roubled by them in Tonquin. It is said if he Chinese can turn the Black Flags upon any specially hated enemy they consider it a great stroke of enterprise. It is also said that when the French, during the Tonquin campaign, sent an officer to Tien Tsin to com-plain to Viceroy Li Hung Chang against the utrages of the Black Flags and to demand hat he secure their punishment, the viceroy aid he had no more control over them than he French had; they were robber scamps, and China disavowed them. A Berlin dispatch to the Times says that nothing has occurred to diminish the hope of an amicable settlement of the trouble in connection with the Japanese-Chinese treaty, though it would be difficult to say upon what basis it will be. Deputies Entrenched Within One Hundred and Fifty Yards of the Indians Compel Them to Surrender or Be Shot.

to the Pioneer-Press says: The half breed aprising has been squelched, and without loss of life. Marshals came here Saturday night from St. Johns in consequence of information received that an attempt might se made to rescue Las Pelle Langan, who was arrested Saturday noon. Pickets were left on duty all night, but no attempt was made.

Deputies were astir soon after daybreak this morning, Marshal Cronan having decided that further effort at inducing peaceful currender would be useless, determined that if they would not surrender their fort at Lana wagon soon after 6 o'clock and drove sixteen miles to the half breed fort. As it was known that the Indians had mounted scouts watching the regular road, the officers struck east, coming in upon the Indians at unexpected turn, so that they had no time to gather their men from the outlying district.

The half breed fort was reached at 9:30 'clock, the wagons being left half a mile in the rear, and the deputy marshals adanced, spreading out so as to command the north and west sides, those being easiest of north and west sides, those being easiest of access. Spades had been brought, and the marshals began preparing shallow rifle p.ts., Marshal Cronan and Indian Agent Hall, leaving their rifles behind, walked up to the fort, the deputies keeping a sharp tookout for any hostile movement. The half breeds refused to talk with Cronan, but told Hall they wanted still further time to her from they wanted still further time to hear from Washington. Leportreau wanted time to hear from Washington, but was told that it was too late. Then he offered to surrender the men for whom warrants were out, except Red Thunder, but Marshal Cronan old him that he would give them no condi-ions. They must surrender absolutely and give up all arms and ammunition, and he would arrest all he wanted. If they did not like these terms, the marshals had come there to fight and were ready. All this time the deputies had been working nearer and earer, and now had a temporary cover provided within a hundred and fifty yards, at which distance the rifle bullets would easily riddle the logs. Soon after 11 o'clock the half breeds surrendered unconditionally, though it was nearly 2 o'clock before the prisoners were loaded in wagons.

NEW YORK, May 5 .- In the Church of All Souls Rev. Heber Newton delivered the third | Large Territory of Pennsylvania Swept by of his present series of sermons on "Our Resurrection in the Light of the Resurrection of Jesus." During the course of his sermon LOOKED LIKE WAR FOR A MOMENT he said: "If we read the story of the resurrection of Jesus Christ, we shall see in it a type of every other resurrection that is to follow. We are constrained to think in some way about the resurrection life, if we are to believe it at all. Such ideas as we can form seem to be modeled from the story of the resurrection of Jesus. The life to come cannot be a bodyless existence. Nature knows no ST. PAUL, May 5.-A Rolla, N. LINES TIGHTEN AROUND DURRANT Attorneys of the Accused Working Des perately for His Relief. SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.- Now that Theodore Durrant, the medical student, has been remanded to the county jail to stand trial on the charge of having murdered Miss Lamont and Miss Williams, the lawyers for DAMAGE WILL AGGREGATE MILLIONS the defense are seeking to stem the tide of public opinion by telling on what lines they will conduct the case. The attorneys for the accused say that they will prove that the yard of the church has been a trysting place for people living in that neighborhood; that Durrant had not a reputation as a lady killer; that another member (new an ex-mem ber) had; that the latter frequented th church, though now a non-resident; that this person was one whom all the young ladies of the church distrusted, as he frequently took libertles with them; that upon one occa-sion he was alone with a young lady in the vestry, and that his actions were such as to cause her to have a serious hysterical attack; cated between these points, was soon de- that only a desire to avoid public scandal few bodies, which may yet be found in unprevented his arrest and prosecution at that time; that said ex-member during April was present at the services at the church, to which he at one time possessed a key, one

BALFOUR REACHES SOUTHAMPTON Notorious Swindler Brought Back to Answer for His Crimes.

SOUTHAMPTON, May 5 .- Jabez Spencer Balfour, the ex-member of Parliament, who has gained world-wide notoriety through his connection with the collapse of the Liberator Building society and allied concerns and by the long continued efforts of the British government to secure his extradition from Argentine, whence he fled, is expected to arrive here at midnight tonight from Buenos Ayres, on board the steamer Tartar Prince. His expected arrival has caused the greatest excitement, and steps have been taken to protect him, it being feared that some of his many victims who were completely ruined by the failure of the building society, will attempt to assault him when he lands. A large number of detectives and policemen are present to take charge of him and to prevent any overt act on the part of the lowd that began to assemble as soon as it became known that the Tartar Prince had been signaled off the coast. When the steamer arrives the dock will be closed to the public, and Balfour will be placed on board a special train, which is now waiting to convey him to London. The Scotland Yard authorities have taken elaborate pre-cautions to prevent the prisoner from being interviewed. The steamer Tartar Prince, having on board Jabez Spencer, just arrived at midnight. The crowd which was awaiting his arrival early last evening thinned out as the night wore on, and when the stenmer went into her dock few persons besides the officers of the law were waiting for him

In but few places are the crops seriously, damaged, for grain was not far enough up to be killed or dislodged by the wind, and the permanent injury in the fields was by the plastering of mud which they received. This "mud shower" was a prominent part of the phenomenal storm, but it seems the power of the wind simply scooped up the black, wet earth from the surface in several places and distributed it over other fields.
