Action on G. A. Holmes Attorney Fee Claim Postponed - Council Has a Secsion as a Board of Equalization.

The city council met last evening, Mayor Cleaver and Aldermen Barstow, Brewick, Brown, Grahl, Rishton, Shubert and Spetman being present. The Wizard telephone ordinance, as amendd, was brought up and read once. Rishton, Grahl and Spetman insisted that it go over until next Monday, for fear that something else should arn up that the council might want to insert in the ordinance. They carried the day,

The committee of toe whole reported that the sewer on Avenue C, betaween Eleventh anr Thirteenth streets, was exposed to the weather and travel, and recommended that it be brought to grade. An ordinance, embodying this recommendation was passed.
All sidewalk ordinances were postponed until next Monday night. The committee to whom was referred the claim of George A. Holmes for $350 for attorneys fees in the case of Everett against the city, reported that Holmes was regularly employed, J. J. Stewart, then city attorney, be ng the general attorney for the Everet estate and being unwilling to appear against estate and being unwilling to appear against his well-to -do client. Mayor Cleaver sug-gested that Stewart had no right to draw his salary if he did not do his work. The matter was referred to the committee on claims. The request of property owners on Third street and Fairview avenue for a postpone ment of the grading of Third street, in or-der that a better grade for Fairview avenue might be obtaind was granted.

C. H. Morton was granted permission to keep a saloon at 506 Broadway. City Engineer Etnyre stated that it was impossible to pave Second avenue between the Manawa moter tracks, without chipping the bricks, because the rails were tool low. It was decided that the engineer and judiciary committee should take a look at the situation and determine what should be done.

After adjourning until next Monday night a meeting of he board of equalization was held. The first kick was made by C. R. Hannan, in behalf of the Citizens' State bank. This institution had been assessed at $46,000, and Hannan claimed that it should be only $42,000, according to the decision of the district court within the last sixty days. He read the assessments of the various banks as follows: First National, $22,000; Officer & Pusey, $15,000; State Savings bank, $13,900; Council Bluffs Savings bank, $29,900; W. L. Kerney, $1,000. Quite a wrangle ensued be-tween him and Assessor Hardin, the result f which was that the assessment was passed r the time being. Mrs. L. S. Amy, who refused to sell the ity a lot just north of the patrol house a hort time ago for less than $200 a front foot, objected to the assessment of the lot $500. The lot has a frontage of seventy feet and the aldermen thought Mrs. Ams could stand an assessment of $1,000 on $14,000 piece of property, and the raise was Several bicycles were assessed at $15. All assessments of implement houses were allowed to standw as originally made. The assessment of the Council Bluffs Water Works company was $28,635. City Attorney Hazelton said he was under the impression taht there was a chance to worm some more tax money out of this corporation than was now being wormed. Under the system of public charity, inaugurated when the franchise was granted years ago, the company is exempted perpetually from city taxes on all its property.

At Mr. Hazelte was allowed to remain open in order that he might look up authority and ascertain what could be done toward making the company come down a little heavier in the way of ounty and state taxes.

Council Bluffs Gas and Electric Light company was assessed at $29,410. G. A. Hoagland's assessment of $2,000 was raised to $3,000.

IN COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. The city council met as a committee of the whole yesterday morning to consider the petition of the Wizard Telephone company for some chang's in the ordinance by which it was proposed to grant the company a fran-chise for building a telephone system to compete with the Nebraska Telephone comevening for Sioux City to attend a state pany. The company was represented by C convention of the Junior Order of United J. Willow and W. H. Ware. The discussion was at times somewhat warm, and after all the talk that the aldermen and representa tives of the company had with them had been unbottled the latter got just about what they went after. It was decided to change that provision of the charter by which the company should be required to move its wires at any time when they came into collision with the wires or condults of any other company; to do away with the deposit of $200 and substitute a bond of $5,000 to secure the city from damages occasioned by the tearing up of the streets; to require the company to put its wires under ground by a general ordinance affecting all similar companies instead of subjecting it alone to the inconvenience: the length of life of the franchise was changed from ten to twenty years.

In return for the franchise the company aldermen introduced, providing a maximum posed all will be accounted for by tomorrow rate of $1 and $2 for telephones used in as a number are reported to have left for Council Bluffs. SCHNAUBELT WASJNWALLEJO

Famous Haymarket Anarchief Has Been in California for Some Time.

HE IS NOW ON HIS WAY TO ERAZL

First Trace of the Man Charged with Having Thrown the Bomb Nine Years Ago Discovered by a Newspaper Reporter.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 13 .- The Chronicle publishes a page story from Valleto to the effect that Rudolph Schnaubelt, the anarchist who threw the bomb at the Haymarket riot in Chicago, May 4, 1886, has been a resident of that city for several months. He disap peared a few days ago, and it is said is now on his way to Brazil. According to the Chronicle the conjecture of the police that Schnaubelt fled to Mexico is correct. He remained in that country several years, and then went to Rio de Janeiro, where he found work in a govern ment machine shop. The breaking out of the evolution gave Schnaubelt a splendid oppor tunity to put in play his training as a mem-ber of the celebrated anarchist group that developed Bombmaker Lingg, and as he cast his lot with the revolutionary party he soon found favor in the eyes of its leaders. He made bombs for use as hand granades that proved of inestimable value to storming parties, but his radical utterances about law and government soon caused him to fall under suspicion, and he had to flee from Brazil. From there he was traced as far as the Isthmus of Panama. Then he went to Los Angeles, where he stopped a long time, and was married. Then he came to San Francisco and from here proceeded to Vallejo, where he was during the railroad strike. Whether he was during the railroad strike. Whether he participated in the strike or not, only those who were aware of his identity could tell, but judging from his tendency in the past to rush into any trouble that presented tself, it is hardly probable that he avoided the chance to deal a blow at the class which nade him a fugitive.

Schnaubelt's mother and brothers, Edward and Hermann, came to California in 1885. At the time of the bomb throwing, Edward, whose known sympathy for anarchy caused him to become an object of suspicion, was living in San Francisco. Hermann was in Del Norte county reclaiming a tract of govber Norte county rectaining a tract of gov-ernment land that he had taken up. Since then Edward has lived in various places in the state, but for four or five years past he has made his residence in Vallejo, working at times in the navy yard machine shops on Mare island, and other times conducting various lines of business with which he be

About a month ago the mysterious stranger disappeared, and is now supposed to be in Brazil. A few days before his disappearance it was noticed that he devoted a great deal of attention to Mrs. Schnaubelt, whom he as-sisted in making preparations for a journey to Chicago. This fact, taken together with other peculiar circumstances, first led to the conclusion that Mrs. Schnaubelt was his mother, and that he was no other than the notorious Chicago anarchist. Edward Schnaubelt, Rudolph's brother, was seen yesterday, but refused to state whether the anarchist had been in the city. When in Vallejo their cottage adjoined Mrs. Harriet Lake's residence. While the strike was raging fiercest last summer she noticed that the Schnaubelts were active. Lights flashed in their house at all hours of night, and she saw Edward Schnaubelt come and go with a big black valise. The blg, broad shouldered man with pompadour hair was there all the time, and the description she gave of him was that of the famous Rudolph, who is cred-ited with hurling the bomb on Haymarket square in Chicago in 1886.

"I knew they were anarchists," said Mrs. Lake, "and I thought they were making bombs. Night after night I heard them hammering and sawing, and I told my daughter that if there was an explosion I should ask the authorities to investigate the house." CHICAGO. She has two sons there and went to visit them. old lady has a great love for travel and makes frequent journeys to the old country and to the Pacific coast. Her children are scattered almost all over the world and she can indulge her love of travel by visiting them. She was in London not long ago, but I can not say whether she saw Rudolph or not. Her husband was a forester in the employ of the Austrian government, and as he had military rank she draws a pension. I knew Rudolph well and do not think he could ever get up courage enough to throw the bomb. I don't see what they could do with him if he was caught." Police Inspector Shea said today: "We have not been bothering our heads about Schnaubelt, because the testimony of Gilmar, who swore at the anarchists' trial that he saw Spies throw the bomb, clears him. Gil mar's testimony was not generally credited by the police, but nevertheless it settled the matter. Schnaubelt was at police head-quarters soon after the riot, along with some others, but was allowed to go because there was nothing on which to hold him. When things got in shape so that he was wanted he was not to be found. Wherever he may be is a matter of speculation, but we have not been trying to find him. Gilmar swore that he stood in the angle of a building across the street and saw Spies when he threw the bomb, so that lets Schnaubelt out."

CATHOLICISM AND PATRIOTISM Rev. Father Malone Lectures on the Topic

at Chambers' Hall. Father T. H. Malone, editor of the Colorado Catholic, and a clergyman whose eloquence has won him distinction as a lecturer, spoke upon the subject of "Catholic Patriotism in American History" at Chambers' hall last evening.

The reverend speaker alluded with pride to the achievements of the ancestors of the Irish race. The fate of Ireland, tinged with sadness, called forth the regret of the lecturer, and he reviewed at length the troubles of a nation of men to whom liberty was dear beyond comparison. He referred to the Emerald isle as a land endowed by nature with a wealth of beauty and with unsurpassed natural advantages, withered beneath the English blight, until her children have been driven in flocks from her America had received the flower of the Irish youth, and, as Irishmen and Catholics, they were not apologists for the blood that courses through their veins of the faith transmitted to them by the saints Father Malone touched upon the fact that Roman Catholics had blended with American patriotism and their faith in this liberty-loving republic and the beneficent destiny Invalids receive steady treatment under Dra. Copeland and Shepard for the briefest period necessary to a lasting cure, without any tax or assessment beyond a little for monthly, including all medicines, all incidentals and all etreteras to OFFICE AND MAIL PATIENTS ALIKE. Trial treatment FREE to those applying in person. America was only secondary to their faith God. Religious and civil liberty was seured equally to all men by the blood of our athers and, as a Catholic, he contended that had a right to have a fair share in that liberty. There should be no exclusive priv-liege in this government, except that it be the exclusive privilege to defend it from the dangers into which it may be plunged by the unconstitutional enactments of latter day A Card From a Business Man Who Was atriots, who would fain make people believe hat the American flag was their swaddling clothes and their sire the American eagle. The rights of patriotic Catholics were cited and "political patriots" came in for a scering of bitter sarcasm. The charge that Catholics were enemies to education was denied. Father Malone said that the state has a right to educate its citizens, and Catholics, who floats over school houses would also defend the public school system with equal patriotism. America was discovered and settled by Catholics, who were Spaniards, Italians and while Catholicism even was in dence in the English colonies. Irish Catholics, too, were thick at the cradle of liberty in America. There was John Hancock, Samuel Adams, Patrick Henry and Charles Car-roll. Catholic heroes in the civil war were also cited. In the army and the navy they ought for the stars and stripes-Irish Cath clics particularly being prominent in the de fense of the country. A general review of military achievements in this respect followed, including the great work of the "Irish Catholic France and Catholic Ireland, said the speaker, had been indispensable factors in the building up of this great republic, and they would not now destroy their own child. Therefore, it is clear that the liberties enjoyed were earned on many a darl bloody field, and they are the birth right of patriotic Catholics, as well as pariots of other religious tendencies who par icipated.

In conclusion, the lecturer expressed the sentiment that there would always be men who would hate the Catholic religion and Irish race, and these men would argue with vehemence that the Catholic cannot, by reason of his faith, prove a loyal citizen of this nation. To all this there is but one answer, and that is "if they will not believe our protestations, at least let them believe our works. In blood have the Catholics written their answer, and what more can man do t prove his loyalty to his country than to lay down his life for it." At the close of his lecture the popular

Drs. Copeland & Shepard desire to express their sincere thanks to the many family physicians of Omaha and the west who are in the habit of turning over to the care of these specialists such of their patients as may be suffering from maladies of a chronic character. Deeply sensible of such manifestation of continued confidence in their system, they take this means to convey to them, in return, the assurance of unabated and untiring effort in behalf of every suffering invalid committed to their charge, the fee, in all cases, to continue strictly nominal as heretofore. SURGEON KERSHUER ON THE RACK Naval Court Martial to Inquire Into Charge Preferred by Admiral Meade. BROOKLYN, May 13.-The court martial which was called together last Monday to in-where the anarchists held their meetings at the time of the Haymarket riots, was considerably amused today by the report that Rudolph Schnaubelt was in Vallejo, Cal.

"I know," said Mr. Greif, "that Mr. Schnaubelt is in London and that he has schnaubelt is in London and that he has for several years with his wife. vestigate the charges against Medical Inbeen there for several years with his wife.

My information came from a private source and specifications. Lieutenant Laucheme next read the report of Admiral reference to the refusal of Dr. Kershner send medical assistance to the Nova Scotlan bark and announced his intention of sub-mitting as evidence a report of the inquiry held on board the United States cruiser New York on April 6, but Mr. Choate objected t its being used. The objection was sustained

This was regarded as a big advantage by Kershner's lawyers. The first witness was Lieutenant Harry I Huse, who was judge advocate at the cour of inquiry on board the New York. He tes tified to the order of the admiral and read the newspaper reports of the refusal of Dr. Kershner to send assistance to the bark and the correspondence which the doctor is accused of making public. Dr. Kershner was sworn as a witness before that court. He could not remember the exact language Dr Kershner used, but remembered the sub-stance. He looked at the record which he had written at the time. Lieutenant Lan chemer asked him if it was a true record of the proceedings, but Mr. Choate jumped to his feet and protested. Mr. Hunsdals insisted that the record wa not a true and correct report of the full pro cedings, and until the witness had exhausted be permitted to refresh his memory from Lieutenant Lanchemer got very angry and exclaimed: "This is my witness and I ob ject to the defense laying out the line of th The objection was overruled and Lieutenan Huse then read several questions put to Kershner at the court of inquiry, and his an swer as to how the correspondence came into the possession of the press. Dr. Kershne denied having any knowledge of the manne in which the facts leaked out. The witnes acknowledged that he took notes in penci and afterwards transcribed them. After read ing the transcript to the board it was accepted as the original record of the inquiry and the pencil notes destroyed. The witnessaid that he could not recollect any question which he asked the doctor, but everything that was in the record was correct. He said that Dr. Kershner admitted that he had written home saying he was in some kind of trot

The court then adjourned until tomorrow. Declared a Big Dividend.

The best medical service in this season of "hard times" should not cost more than people are able to pay.

This is the stand that Drs. Copeland and Shepard take. This is the gauntiet that they throw down to their confrores in the profession. The physician who charges more than that amount as his monthly fee does so because his practice is so limited that he is obliged to, or because he feels that he is able to bamboosie his patients into swelling his receipts.

There is no better medical service than Drs. Copeland and Shepard give in their specialities. Their large practice attests this fact, their testimonlais emphasize it.

A nominal fee a month is the only charge for treatment and medicines. If you pay more you are simply giving away all over and above that amount. Catarrhal Poisoning, Sore Throat, Violent headaches, Inflammed Eyes, Cough, Asthma.

Miss Hannah Mahoney, 1528 3rd street, 'I think my case illustrates the efficiency of the treatment of Drs. Copeland & Shepard in catarrh. Bronchitis and hay fever. I was wretched for twelve years with these complaints until Dr. Shepard cured me several months ago. My catarrh was of the worst form, not only in the head and throat, but it went all through me, acting like a slow blood poison. Some time after the catarrh appeared I began to have regular hay fever with inflamed and watery nose and eyes, sore throat, headache and a suffocating cough with paroxysms of sneezing. In summers I could scarcely sleep at all, during the night I always took cold. Often I would cough and sneeze for an hour at a time by the clock. These attacks were so exhausting that I was unable to work at all in warm weather. In short, I was a complete invalid.

"The great thing about my treatment was that it proved genuine and lasting. A few treatments gave me comfort and strength, and in a little while I got entirely well and I have been free from every distressing symptom. The cost was almost nothing, including all medicines, being about one-sixth the usual fee charged for such services." Miss Hannah Mahoney, 1528 2rd street, "
