HE'S AN AFFABLE PRINCE.

Jose; h of Sattenberg Admires America Especially the Lager Beer.

For the short space of ten minutes yes terday afternoon Omaha had within its city limits a veritable blue-blooded sprig of roy alty, Prince Joseph of Battenberg. He is one of a party of ten who are making a trip around the world. They came in on the Overland fiver at 5:35 in a special car and a few minutes later continued on their way

Joe is a straight six-footer and well built. A short beard covers the greater portion of his face. He talks good English, with a decidedly English accent, and is very polite. When a reporter approached him the prince began a very effusive apology to the effect that he had entirely forgotten at what court he had met the reporter, but when the latter explained his ignoble birth and low station in life Joe remained as polite as before.

"I've never been in this country before and on this trip I have been in this country only for a few days," remarked the prince over a glass of amber colored fluid,"but I have remarked one thing especially, and that is the lager beer. It is excellent and much better than that in the old country. It is excellent and becomes delicious when we get a thirst on our trip. It is so light. This is no doubt a great country."

He asked if Omaha was not a mighty city

He asked if Omaha was not a mighty city and after he had been briefly assured that it was one of the greatest in the country he said in answer to a question that he had not seen many cities in the country yet.

"As I remarked before." he continued, "this is my first trip to the United States and it will be a short one, for I must be hack in my country in June. We disembarked in San Francisco on last Thursday and remained there only a short time. I think San Francisco is the greatest city in the world for its architecture. It is grand. the world for its architecture. It is grand. We stayed a day in Salt Lake and now we are going through to Chicago, where we will stay a day. Then we will go to Albany and down the Hudson to New York, where I will remain four days. Over what road? Over the railroad. Then I will sail to my country I will say again that I am sorry that I can not stay to see more of this great country, but I must be back in June. "We are on a trip around the world. I started in October and since that time I have traveled 36,000 miles. It was very in ing. I put down in a diary everything I see I do not know if I will write a book or not. Goodbye, the train is going. I thank you much for your consolation.

HORNPIPE AT 20 TO 1 WINS

Brooklyn Handicap Won in a Drive by Keene's Representative.

FAVORITES NEVER SHOWED AT THE END

Dr. Rice, Ramapo and Rey el Santa Anita Were Run Out Before the Stretch Was Reached-Hamilton Made it a Runaway.

NEW YORK, May 15,-The first real trial of the new racing law was had today at Gravesend, and as far as could be seen it is likely to become popular. The morning hours were anything but pleasant, for a cold wind blew across the track. The air was raw and chilly, and the overcast sky made it seem as if rain might fall at any minute. The track was very muddy and there were pools of water all over it. The clouds began to break away at about 10 o'clock, and there was plenty of blue sky and sunlight by noon. The bookies had plenty of work to do, but they did not shout the odds, and the betting was done quietly. From 1 o'clock until the start of the handleap betting was in order, and Dr. Rice and Ramapo were about equal choices, though it finally settled down on the latter as favorite. The attendance was but moderate at 1 o'clock, although the weather was greatly improved. The bookmakers were beginning to offer odds on the handicap. Ramapo and Dr. Rice were in nearly even terms in the betting. Rey el Santa Anita was held at a short figure, and Sir Wälter was next. The average of the quotations was as follows: ODDS ON THE STARTERS.

Assistance Counter Tenor ... Ed Kearney

The final betting showed Ramapo at 14 to 5, while Dr. Rice was 3 to 1; Sir Walter, 8 to 1; Rey El Santa Anita, 6 to 1; Rubicon, 12 to 1; Lazzarone and Bassetlaw, 30 to 1 Declare and Counter Tenor, 40 to 1; Ed Kearney, 20 to 1; Hornpipe, 15 to 1, and Assignee, 50 to 1.

At 4:30 the bugie called the horses to the post for the big event, and everybody hurried to take his place to watch the contest As the horses cantered slowly to the post each was heartily cheered. Then but a few minutes clapsed before all were at the start ing point, and all got away; but the start was too straggling, and they had to go back There was a little more maneuvering, and at exactly 4:45 Starter Rowe caught them in good line, the red flag fell and it was followed by the well known yell, "They're off," and the great opening race of the year was on. There was a general struggle to the stand for position, and the first quarter was passed in twenty-five seconds, with Assignee making the pace, a nose in front of Ed Kearney, who was three parts of a length in front of Ramapo, he a length ahead of Sir Walter and Dr. Rice, with Counter Tenor, Rubicon, Declare, Rey el Santa Anita, Hornpipe and Laz-zarone following, and Bassetiaw a bad last, completely out of the race. At the three furlong pole Assignee had a good lead of two lengths and was doing well, while Griffin was urging Ramapo to keep him up in front, a fatal error, as he could only keep a head in front of Ed Kearney, who was in turn a head in front of Sir Walter, followed by Dr. Rice, whom Taral was holding in his favorite fifth place. Rubicon was in sixth place, but was not doing well, while Counter Tenor was seventh. Then came Hornpipe, who had moved up a peg, followed by Rey el Santa Anita, Declare, Lazzarone, on whom that master judge of pace, Isaac Murphy, was watching the others like a cat, and Bassetlaw was hope-

POSITIONS AT THE HALF. At the half-mile pole, which was reached in fifty seconds, Griffin had sent his mount within a half a length of the flying leader, Assignee, and was a length in advance of Sir Walter, who was a length ahead of Ed came Dr. Rice, Tarai sitting quietly waiting for the last struggle, and Counter Tenor next. Murphy urged Lazzarene into seventh place, ahead of Hornpipe, while Rubicon Anita was going well in tenth place and De clare had joined Bassetlaw in the struggle for last place.

On the way to the five-furlong pole there was a quick shifting of positions, and Ramapo tumbled back to sixth place, out of the contest apparently, as he had shot his bolt trying to keep up with the leaders. Sir Walter took first place by a head from Assignee, with Ed Kearney in third place, Dr. Rice fourth, Taral still holding him well in, Counter Tenor fifth, and Hornpipe next. Rubicon, Rey el Santa Anita and the others followed. Then Ed Kearney stumbled and was out of the race altogether, Penn pulling him up and cantering home slowly.

The three-quarters was reached in 1:17, and the great Ramano had foined Diclare, Bassat-Sir Walter was still in the lead and had half length the best of Lazzarone, whom Murphy had sent through the field like a flash, suddenly becoming a dangerous competitor. The pair were three lengths ahead of Hornpipe, on whom Hamilton had moved up as he saw he had something beside Dr. Rice and Sir Walter to beat. Counter Tenor had moved into fourth place, but still Taral made no sign on Dr. Rice, who was going well in fifth place. Rey el Santa Anita was close behind him, with Assignee in seventh place.

HERE IT WAS A HORSE RACE. The turn was in sight and the seven-fur-long pole at hand. Doggett was working hard to hold his lead with Sir Walter. was now trying to get Dr. Rice to the front, but it was of no avail, for he lacked the speed and could only keep his head in front of Rey el Santa Anita, a very dangerous horse. The saile post at the head of the stretch was reached in the slow time of 1:45. As the horses were straightened out for the final effort there were religious. for the final effort there were only six horses in the race. Sir Walter had the lead still by half a length, but Doggett had to go to whip and spur to keep him there. Lazzarone had a head the better of Hornpipe, as Murphy had stolen up on Hamilton and was riding like a master of his art; Counter Tenor, with Lamley urging hard, was fourth, while Taral could not get Dr. Rice any higher in the line, with Rey el Santa Anita gaining on him under Bergen's urging, while the others were hopelessly out of it. Down through the stretch the racers rushed, every jockey working his hardest to win wha only one could. Doggett felt Sir Walter falter under him and only worked the harder to make the game little horse do his utmost, but it was no use. Murphy got within a neck of him at the last furlong post, while Hornpipe was only a short head behind. The to do battle for the $10,000 prize. Inch by inch Lazzarone crept past Sir Walter and as he did so Hamilton came up with Hornpipe and to Murphy's surprise began to pass him. Both jockeys were working as hard as they knew how, but Murphy saw Hamilton had the better horse under him and had to rest con-tent with second place by half a length, while he was three lengths in front of Counter Tenor, followed closely by Rey El Santa Anita, Declare, Dr. Rice, Rubicon, Assignee, Bassetlew and Ramapo, with Ed Kearney a quarter of a mile behind. The time was

OTHER RACES WORTH WATCHING. Four out of the seven originally entered started in the first race and when the flag fell Wernberg had a length the best of it. fell. Wernberg had a length the best of it. Tarai quickly took Domino alongside and held him there to the stretch, when he gave the black his head and won in the hollowest possible style, two lengths from Wernberg. Pa-trician nipped Factotum on the post for third place and Taral had won the first race of the neason in this state. After a half hour's de-lay the six 3-year-olds in the second race were sent away to a good start. Hallstone jumped to the lead at the first turn and had four lengths the best of it in a few jumps. Owiet was second and Hermanita third. At the turn into the stretch Owiet took the lead and held it easily to the end. Kennet came out of the bunch and, with Lamley riding like a demon, got second place from Hermanita. The Expectation stakes was the third race on the program and brought out a field of seven starters, with Belmont's filly, Floretta, as a strong favorite. The flag fell quickly to a good start and Floretta jumped at once into the lead. In a few yards she was four lengths to the good, with Axiom and Montezuma following. They kept their re-spective places to the end, the two latter whipped out, while the winner was well in hand. The third tilt between Omaha and Rockford was watched by a good crowd yesterday afternoon at Charles Street park. It was ladies' day, as could easily be seen by the number of the fair sex who assembled to cheer Uncle Dave's men on to victory.

It was a red hot game, and for five innings it looked as though Omaha was doomed to another defeat at the hands of Little Nic's fossils. But in the sixth inning the home team rallied and with some good stick work. most noticeable of which was Darby's second home run in the game, succeeded in piling up six runs, which gave a lead of four runs. The Rockfords were not to be outdone and saw the raise and added six to their score, making a lead of two.

This put a damper on the ladies, but when the Omahogs came in for the seventh and last inning it was with a determination to win the game right there. Three doubles and three singles added six more scores to the Omaha side and it proved more than the Rockfords could overcome. Both teams played strong. The game put up by the Rockford out and infielders was the best seen in Omaha this year. Visner made a running one-hand catch and Kreig made two difficult catches of balls which looked safe. The infield made three lightning doubles and shut off several runs by excellent work at critical times.

The game was called at the end of the seventh inning to allow the Rockfords to catch a train in time to get home to open with the Lincolns tomorrow. Yesterday's game is the last that will be seen at Charles Street park this month. Omaha left last night for Jacksonville and will be gone until
