Another Milk Case.

John and James Wiatt, milkmen, will have hearing in Justice Cook's shop today on the charge that has been lodged against them for selling milk that did not come up to the state's standard. The facts in the pase seem to indicate that the offense was a technical one rather than a willful wrong, and as the information charges them with having sold skimmed milk, the state will be compelled to prove that it was really skimmed milk and produce the skimmer. This will be a difficult matter, and the propects are good that the case will be promptly knocked out of court upon one of the redhot lemurrers that have made Justice Cook's court somewhat famous in the last few days.

TALKS ABOUT THE COMING CAMPAIGN

He Thinks it Will Be a Quiet One Which the Republicans Will Be Easily Victorious Over All Opposition.

General F. M. Drake of Centerville spent a few hours in the city yesterday and took a room at the Grand, where he met a large number of prominent republicans. He came here chiefly for the purpose, he said, of calling upon Hon. George F. Wright, John N. Baldwin and other gentlemen here whom he has known for years. Mr. Wright and he were boys together in the eastern part of the state. Incidentally, of course, General Drake desired to ascertain how the western Iowa republicans felt concerning his candidacy for governor.

"I have been visiting a dozen or fifteen places in the state," said he, in a cheery, pleasant manner, "but not altogether for the I met a few friends at Atlantic last evening, and after shaking hands with a few of my old friends and acquaintances here I will return home. The first deals with the water works problem and calls for a legal inquiry into the validity of the company's contract with the city, and recom-mends that the city at once abrogate the contract and bring the proper action that its validity may be determined by the courts, to the end that a new contract may be made that will relieve the city of the burdensome water rents. of putting general fund warrants into judgments, for the payment of which a heavy judgment tax must be levied, a tax greater than is contemplated by law.

The third provides that a part of the sinkng fund not available for the payment of obligation for which it is pledged for ber of years, shall be invested in the purchase of interest bearing obligations of fourth calls for a refunding of the outstanding general fund warrants at a lower rate of interest in long time bonds. The fifth recommends the consolidation the chief of police and marshal's offices. The sixth demands rigid economy and the careful investigation by the city council of all the departments of the city government and the checking of useless expenditures.

The seventh objects to the abuses that have grown up under the power given the council to order improvements at the expense of abuting property, and suggests a change in the general law relating to street improvements.

There is but one sensible and patriotic thing to do, we must unite upon an independent ticket. The head of the ticket should be some man of democratic antecedents like Sibley, who has left his party and declared for the people. The vice president should be some prominent republican like Judge Caldwell, who is for financial reform." ROLES COMES OUT FOR FREE SILVER Does Not Believe in Waiting on the Action of Other Nations. 16 to 1, without walting on any international action, Mr. Boies says: "It is idle to expect the masses of the American people to wait for the co-operation of foreign nations before they settle this question. They tions before they settle this question. They have no faith in such a remedy. They have aken the matter into their own hands and they will settle it one way or another, so far as this country is concerned, in the next national election that is held. If unrestricted coinage follows and the result is all hat gold monometallists predict, the conse quences, if evil, should not be charged t friends of free coinage of both metals. They did not seek the issue; all that they asked grounds, as I believe no possible legislation could effect that end. I frankly admit that both metals at the old ratio on the other. I am in favor of free coinage, because I believe it will at least be the beginning of a broadned financial system that will, if necessary be so perfected in the near future as to give us an absolutely safe and sound currency the foundation of which will be legal at least, and I believe practically the equal use of both gold and silver as the money of re-demption."

Ex-Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue Murphy, Who Guarded His Records, Speaks in Praise of Paine's Celery Compound.

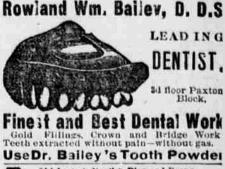

Ex-Collector of Internal Revenue Thomas F. Murphy of Maine, who was brought into prominence all over the country during Pres-ident Cleveland's first administration by refusing to allow certain civil officials to peruse his records, heartily endorses Paine's celery compound.

Mr. Murphy is a keen observer. He is a writer of no mean ability, has been employed as editor and editorial writer on several papers, is recognized throughout Maine as a relble and convincing speaker and is unihotel and railway train.

In the smoking compariment of a parlor car last week he was praising Paine's celery ompound to a fellow passenger. The pe been laid up with the grip. The malady left him in a bad way, a sort of depression of spirits and disinclination for business.

"I felt the same way," said Mr. Murphy, "After wrestling aweck with the grip it left me depressed and weak. One flight of stairs did not seek the issue; all that they asked was honest bimetallism with reasonable safeguards for maintaining the parity of the two. This has been denied them upon false go out of bed, and I felt about as mean as any one could for the whole day. Hearing so much about Palne's celery compound I made If the question is to be narrowed to the up my mind to try it, and I'll tell you how it single question of gold monometallism on worked.
